

Bible, old Testament, Psalms

THE WHOLE BOOK OF PSALMS,

Collected into English

Metre, by Thomas Sternhold,
John Hopkins, and others.

Conferr'd with the Hebrew.

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all Churches, of all the People together, before and after Morning and Evening-Prayer; and also before and after Sermons; and moreover, in private Houses, for their godly Solace and Comfort: laying apart all ungodly Songs and Ballads, which tend only to the nourishing of Vice, and corrupting of Youth.

JAMES V. 13.

If any be afflicted, let him pray; and if any be merry, let him sing Psalms.

COLOS. III. 16.

Let the Word of God dwell plenteously in you, in all Wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, singing unto the Lord with Grace in your hearts.

The PSALMS of DAVID

IN METRE.

PSAL. I. T. S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked men his ear :

Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in scorners chair.

2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight :

And in the same doth exercise
himself both day and night,

3 He shall be like a tree that is planted the rivers nigh :

Which in due season bringeth forth
its fruits abundantly.

4 Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourishing shall stand :

Ev'n so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

5 As for ungodly men, with them
it shall be nothing so ;

But as the chaff which by the wind
is driven to and fro.

6 Therefore the wicked men shall not in judgment stand upright :

Nor in assembly of the just shall sinners come in sight.

7 For why ? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known :

Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSAL. II. T. S.

WHy did the Gentiles tumults raise ?
what rage was in their brain ?

Why do the people still contrive
a thing that is but vain ?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire, and are all bent

Against the Lord, and Christ his Son, whom he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them ? say they,
let all their bonds be broke,

And of their doctrine and their law,
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heav'n doth dwell,
their doings will deride :

And make them all as mocking-stocks,
thro' out the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath he shall reprove
their pride and scornful way ;

And in his fury trouble them,
and unto them shall say,

6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill :

I will therefore, Lord, preach thy Law,
according to thy will.

7 The law whereof the Lord himself

hath thus said unto me,

Thou art my only Son, this day
have I begotten thee.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request :

The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be posses'd. (those

9 Thou shalt them bruise ev'n like to that under foot are trod :

And as a potter's vessel, break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd :

By whom the matters of the world
are judg'd and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above,
in trembling and in fear :

See that with reverence ye rejoyce
when ye to him draw near.

12 See that ye do embrace and kiss
his Son without delay :

Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish from the right-way.

13 If once his wrath (but little) shall be kindled in his breast :

Then only they that trust in him,
shall happy be, and blest.

PSAL. III. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increas'd,
who vex me more and more ;

They break my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.

2 But thou, O Lord, art my defence,
when I am hard beset :

My worship and my honour both,
and thou hold'st up my head.

3 Then with my voice unto the Lord
I did both call and cry :

And he out of his holy hill
did hear me speedily.

4 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept, and rose again :

For why ? I know assuredly
the Lord did me sustain.

5 If thousands up against me rise,
I will not be afraid :

For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and my aid.

6 Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
to thee I make my pray'r :

For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of all that wicked are.

7 Salvation only doth belong to thee, O Lord, above :

Who on thy people dost bestow
thy blessing and thy love.

PSALM IV. T. S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord, hear me when I call :
Thou hast set me at liberty
when I was bound in thrall.
2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me,
and grant me my request :
For unto thee incessantly
to cry I will not rest.
3 O mortal men, how long will ye my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies.
4 Know ye, that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make complaint,
he doth me not refuse.
5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert,
6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness and praise,
And look that in the living Lord,
you put your trust always.
7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad,
Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep :
For thou only dost me, O Lord,
preserve and safely keep.

PSALM V. T. S.

I Ncline thine ears, O Lord, and let
my words have free access To thee, who art my God and King,
from whom I seek redress.
2 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not;
for I will have respect,
My supplication in the morn,
to thee for to direct.
3 And I will patiently still trust
in thee my God, alone :
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.
4 Such as be foolish shall not stand in sight of thee, O Lord :
Vain workers of iniquity
thou hast always abhorr'd.
5 The liars and base flatterers
shall be destroy'd by thee :
Blood-thirsty and deceitful men
likewise shall hated be, 6 Therefore will I come to thy house,
trusting upon thy grace ;

And reverently will worship thee
towards thy holy place.
7 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound thy foes :
Also the way that I shall walk,
before my face disclose.
8 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their inward filth is great,
Their throat an open sepulchre,
and tongues full of deceit.
9 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought :
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
who have rebellion wrought.
10 But those that put their trust in thee
let them be glad always :
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.
11 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still :
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

PSALM VI. T. S.

L Ord, in thy wrath reprove me not,
tho' I deserve thine ire :
Nor yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.
2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear.
And heal me, Lord, for why? thou know
my bones do quake for fear.
3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vex'd exceedingly :
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my misery ?
4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace
some pity on me take :
O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercy's sake.
5 For why? no man among the dead
remembereth thee at all :
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
that in the pit doth fall ?
6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I grow wondrous faint :
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.
7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of them that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
8 But now depart from me, all ye
that work iniquity :
Because the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.
9 He heard not only the request
and pray'r of my sad heart :
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me,

the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
with great rebuke and shame.

PSAL. VII. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and still deliver me.

1 Left, like a lion, he me tear,
and rend in pieces small:
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

2 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight;

3 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress:
Who me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeless;

4 Then let my foe pursue my soul,
let him my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay
my honour in the dust.

5 Stand up, O Lord, in wrath, because my foes do rage so fast:
Unto the Judgment rise for me,
which thou commanded hast.

6 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

7 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and my integrity.

The second part.

8 Lord, cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just man's guide:
By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descry'd.

9 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart:
Who doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

10 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his pow'r:
So that he feels his mighty hand,
ev'n ev'ry day and hour.

11 Except he change his mind, I die,
for ev'n as he thinks fit,
He whets his sword, he bends his bow,
aiming where he may hit.

12 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp:
For them that do me persecute,
and do at mischief harp.

13 But lo, tho' he in travail be
of his devilish forecast:
And of the mischief he conceiv'd,

yet brings forth nought at last.

14 He digs a ditch, and makes it deep,
in hopes to hurt his brother,
But he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.

15 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought,
shall fall on his own head.

16 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteously: (Name
And with my songs will praise the
of him that is most high.

PSAL. VIII. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderful
are thy works every where!
Thy fame surmounts in dignity
the highest heav'ns that are.

1 Ev'n by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

2 And when I see the heav'ns above,
the works of thine own hand:
The son, the moon, and all the stars,
in order as they stand:

3 Lord! what is man, that thou of him
tak'st such abundant care?
Or what the son of man, whom thou
to visit dost not spare?

4 For thou hast made him little less than Angels in degree:
And thou hast also crowned him
with glorious dignity.

5 Thou hast preferr'd him to be lord
of all thy works, and thou Hast in subjection unto him
put all things here below.

6 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:
Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

7 O God our Lord, how excellent is thy most glorious Name
In all the earth! therefore we do praise and adore the same.

PSAL. IX. T. S.

With heart and mouth to thee, O Lord,

will I sing laud and praise:
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare always.

1 I will be glad, and much rejoice
in thee, O God most high:
And make my songs extoll thy Name
above the starry skie.

2 Because my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They do fall down, and are destroy'd
by thy great pow'r and might.

Pſalm X.

- 4 Thou haſt revenged all my wrong,
my grief, and all my grudge:
Thou doſt with juſtice hear my cauſe,
moſt like a righteous judge.
- 5 Thou doſt rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked ſo confound,
That afterward the memory
of them can not be found.
- 6 Deſtructions to an end are come,
and cities overthrow'n:
With them likewiſe is perſh'd
their fame and great renown.
- 7 Know thou, that he that is above,
for evermore ſhall reign:
And in the ſeat of equity
true judgment will maintain.
- 8 With juſtice he will keep and guide
the world and ev'ry wight:
And ſo will yield with equity
to ev'ry man his right.
- 9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppreſt:
He is in all adverſity
their refuge and their reſt.
- 10 All they that know thy holy Name
therefore ſhall truſt in thee:
For thou forſakeſt not their ſuit
in their neceſſity.

The ſecond part.

- 11 Sing Pſalms therefore unto the Lord,
that dwells on Sion hill:
Among the people all declare
his noble acts and will.
- 12 For he is mindful of the blood
of them that be oppreſt:
Forgetting not the humble man
that ſeeks to him for reſt.
- 13 Have mercy, Lord, on me, becauſe
my foes do yet remain:
Who from the gates of death are wont
to raiſe me up again.
- 14 In Sion that I may ſet forth
thy praiſe with heart and voice:
And that in thy ſalvation great,
my ſoul may ſtill rejoice.
- 15 The heathen ſtick faſt in the pit
which they themſelves prepar'd:
And in the net which they did hide,
their own feet are enſnar'd.
- 16 By judgments great the Lord is known
whiſt wicked men are caught
And faſt entangled in the work which their own hands have wrought.
- 17 The wicked and deceitful men,
go down to hell below:
And all the people of the world
that God reſuſe to know.
- 18 But ſure the Lord will not forget
the poor man's grief and pain:

- The patient people never look for help of him in vain.
- 19 O Lord, ariſe, leſt men prevail
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive their judgment in thy ſight. (dread
- 20 Lord, ſtrike ſuch terror, fear, and into their hearts, and then
They will be forced to confeſs themſelves to be but men.

P S A L. X. T. S.

- What is the cauſe that thou, O Lord,
ſo far off now doſt ſtand?
Why hideſt thou thy face in time
when trouble is at hand?
- 2 The poor do periſh by the proud
and wicked mens deſire:
Let them be taken in the craft
which they themſelves conſpire.
- 3 For in the luſt of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praiſe himſelf,
and doth the Lord deſpite.
- 4 He is ſo proud, that right and wrong
he ſetteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, ſaith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Becauſe his ways do proſper ſtill,
he doth thy law neglect,
And with a blaſt doth puff againſt
ſuch as would him correſt.
- 6 Tuſh, tuſh, ſaith he, I have no dread
leſt my eſtate ſhould change:
And why? for all adverſity
to him is very ſtrange.
- 7 His mouth is full of curſedneſs,
of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Under his tongue there nothing is
but what is baſe and vile.
- 8 He lieth hid in ways and holes,
to ſlay the innocent:
Againſt the poor that paſs by him
his cruel eyes are bent.
- 9 And like a Lyon privily
lies lurking in his den:
That he may ſnare them in his net,
and ſpoil poor harmleſs men.
- 10 With cunning craft and ſubrility
he croucheth down alway:
So are great heaps of poor men made
by his ſtrong pow'r a prey.

The ſecond part.

- 11 Tuſh, God forgetteth this, ſaith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is caſt aſide,
he doth it not behold.
- 12 Ariſe, O Lord our God, in whom
the poor man's hope doth reſt:
Liſt up thy hand, do not forget
the poor that be oppreſt.

13 Why should the proud and wicked man

blaspheme God's holy Name?
Whilst in his heart he crieth, Tush,
God cares not for the same.

14 But thou seest all their wickedness,
and well dost understand,
That friendless and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.

15 Of wicked and malicious men
they break the pow'r alway:
That they with their iniquity
may perish and decay.

16 The Lord shall reign for evermore
as King and God alone:
And he will chase out of the land
the heathen folk each one.

17 Thou hearest, Lord, the poor's complaint,

their pray'r and their request:
Their hearts thou wilt confirm, untill
thine ears to hear be prest:

18 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more oppress'd
by men of worldly might.

P S A L. XI. T. S.

IN God the Lord I put my trust,
why say ye to my soul,
Unto the mountain swiftly fly,
as doth the winged fowl?

2 Behold, the wicked bend their bows,
their arrows they prepare:
To shoot in secret at those, who sincere and upright are.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:
Alas the just and upright man,
what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high,
And in the highest heav'ns doth sit
in royal Majesty,

5 The poor and simple man's estate
considers in his mind:
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind.

6 And with a chearful countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief use.

7 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as hail or rain:
Brimstone and fire, and whirlwinds
great,
appointed for their pain.

8 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace;
And unto just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

P S A L. XII. T. S.

Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk,
't is all but vanity:

For ev'ry man bethinketh how to speak deceitfully.

3 But flatt'ring and deceitful lips,
and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words, and make great brags,

the Lord soon cuts them out.
4 For they say still, We will prevail,
our lips shall us extoll: (speak,
Our tongues are ours, we ought to what Lord shall us controll?)

5 But for the great complaint and cry
of those that are oppress'd,
I will arise now, saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 God's word is like to silver pure,
that from the dross is try'd;
Which hath not less than seven times in the fire been purify'd.

7 Now since thy promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kind of men.

8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold:
Whilst vanity with worldly men
so highly is extoll'd.

P S A L. XIII. T. S.

How long wilt thou forget me, Lord,
shall it for ever be?

How long dost thou intend to hide
thy face away from me?

2 In heart and mind how long shall I with care tormented be?

And how long shall my deadly foe
thus triumph over me.

3 Behold me now, O Lord my God,
and hear me sore oppress'd:
Lighten my eyes, lest I do sleep
as one by death possess'd.

4 Lest that my enemy do say,
Behold, I do prevail:
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoice to see me fail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall not depart:
In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request
for ev'ry needful thing.

Psalm XIV. XV. XVI. XVII.

PSALM XIV. T. S.

T Here is no God, do foolish men
affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good. (high 2 The Lord beheld from heav'n most
the whole race of mankind:
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to find.
3 They went all wide, and were corrupt,
and truly there was none
That in the world did any good,
no not so much as one.
4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still?
Eating my people ev'n as bread,
not one to seek God's will?
5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will preserve them all.
6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his Name.
7 But who shall give thy people health?
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill?
8 For when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel be glad.

PSALM XV. T. S.

W ithin thy tabernacle, Lord,
who shall inhabit still?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight;
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
and tongue speaks no deceit.
3 That to his neighbour doth no ill
in body, goods, or name:
Nor willingly doth slander raise,
which might impair the same.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.
5 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully, Altho' he make his cov'nant so that he doth lose thereby.
6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coin:
Nor for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe, or else purloin.
7 Who so doth these things faithfully,
and turneth noth therefrom,

Shall never perish in this world,
nor that which is to come.

PSALM XVI. T. S.

L ord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods
thou hast not any need.
2 Therefore I give them to the saints
that in the world do dwell:
Namely, unto the faithful flock
in virtue that excell.
3 Their sorrows shall be multiply'd,
who run so hastily,
To offer to the idol gods,
that are but vanity.
4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, neither thereof
shall my lips make report.
5 For why? the Lord the portion is
of my inheritance:
And he it is that doth preserve
my lot from all mischance.
6 The place wherein my lot is fall'n,
in beauty doth excell:
My heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.
7 I thank the Lord, that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me in the night.
8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.
9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also rejoice exceedingly.
My flesh likewise doth rest in hope,
to rise again, for why?
10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell
because thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to see.
11 But wilt me shew the way to life,
where there is joy in store.
And where at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII. T. S.

O Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend unto my cry:
And hear the pray'r I offer up
to thee unfeignedly.
2 And let the judgment of my cause
proceed always from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear truth and simplicity.
3 Thon hast well try'd me in the night,
and yet could nothing find,
That I have spoken with my tongue
that was not in my mind.

4 As for the works of wicked men
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.
5 Then in thy paths that be most pure,
guide me, Lord, and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, surely thou wilt me aid: (well
Then hear my pray'r, and weigh right
the words that I have said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy Majesty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes, that go about
my soul for to destroy.
10 Who wallow in their worldly wealth,
and are so full and fat,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.
11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their minds,
to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a lion greedily,
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lion's whelp,
within some secret place.
13 Up, Lord, in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at my feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with thy sword him smite.
14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy pow'r,
out of the tyrants hands:
Who now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.
15 I mean from worldly men, who do
in worldly goods abound:
That have no hope or joy, but what
in this life can be found.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st
with pleasure to their mind:
Their children have enough, and leave
the rest to theirs behind.
17 But as for me I will behold
thy face in righteousness:
And shall be satisfy'd, when I awake with thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII. T. S.

God, my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:

Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.
2 My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.
3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd:
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserv'd.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me ev'ry where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.
5 The sly and subtle snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my life there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith heard my complaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his pow'r, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yea, the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.
8 And from his nostrils went a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth went burning coals
of hot consuming fire.
9 The Lord descended from above,
and bow'd the heav'n's most high:
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.
10 On cherubs and on cherubins full royally he rode:
And on the wings of mighty winds
came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most dark, he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black, and airy clouds encompassed he was. (clouds 12 At his bright presence did thicke
in haste away retire:
And in the stead thereof did come hail-stones and coals of fire.
13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his frequent lightnings he doth put them in great fear. (ke 14 When thou, O Lord, with great rebu-thy anger dost declare,
The springs and the foundations of the world discover'd are.
15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below:
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
16 And me deliver'd from my foes
that sought me to enthrall:

Yea, from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.
17 They did prevent me evermore
in time of my great grief :
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
18 He brought me forth in open place
that so I might be free ;
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
19 According to my innocence,
so did he me regard :
And to the cleanness of my hands,
he gave me my reward :
20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod :
And not departed wickedly
from him that is my God :
The third part.
21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree :
His statutes and commandments I cast not away from me.
22 But pure, and clean, and uncorrupt,
appear'd before his face :
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in ev'ry case.
23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright :
And to the cleanness of my hands
appearing in his sight.
24 For, Lord, with him that holy is,
wilt thou be holy too :
And with the good and virtuous man
thou wilt uprightly do.
25 And for the loving and elect thy favour wilt reserve :
And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.
26 For thou dost save the simple folk,
in trouble when they lie :
And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.
27 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.
28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall :
By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.
29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
his word is purely try'd :
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
30 For who is God, except the Lord ;
for other there is none :
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone ?
The fourth part.
31 The God that girdeth me with strength,

is he that I do mean :
That all the ways wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.
32 That made my feet like to the hart,
in swiftness of my pace :
And for my safety brought me forth
into an open place.
33 He did in order put my hands,
in battle for to fight :
To break in sunder bars of brass,
he gave my arms the might.
34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tow'r :
Thy love and gentleness also doth still increase my pow'r.
35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should go :
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor wander to and fro.
36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy'd :
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroy'd.
37 So I suppress and wound my foes
that they can rise no more :
For underneath my feet they fall,
I wound them all so fore. (strength 38 For thou hast girded me with unto the battle, and Thou wilt throw down my enemies
that do against me stand.
39 Lord, thou hast given me the necks
of all my enemies :
That so I might destroy all those
that up against me rise. (ear, 40 They call'd for help, but none gave
nor came to their relief :
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for aid,
yet heard he not their grief.
The fifth part.
41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them under feet :
And sweep them out like filthy dirt,
that lieth in the street. (folk, 42 Thou keep'st me from seditious that still in strife are led :
And thou dost of the heathen folk,
appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve :
And at the first obey my word,
whereas my own will swerve.
44 I shall be irksome to my own,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all prayse :
He is my rock, and saving health,
praised be he always.
46 For it is he that gave me pow'r

revenged for to be :

And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliver'd me,
and set me over those

That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall :

And sing our praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all. (King,

49 Deliv'rance great thou giv'st the
and dost reserve in store

Mercy for thine anointed, and his seed for evermore.

P S A L. XIX. T. S.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare

God's glory and omnipotence,
his works and what they are.

2 The wondrous works of God appear
by ev'ry day's success : (run,

The nights likewise, with their race
the self same thing express.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech
where their sound is not heard :

In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown :

Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
comes from his chamber down.

5 And as a valiant champion
who would to honour rise,

With joy doth haste to take in hand
some noble enterprize.

6 And all the sky from end to end
he compasseth about :

Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
his covenant is sure,

Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure. (and 8 The Lord's commands are righteous, rejoice the heart ; likewise

His precepts are most pure, and do give light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and ever doth endure :

The judgments of the Lord also
most righteous are and pure :

10 And more to be desired are
than much fine gold alway :

The honey and the honey comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard :

And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord, what earthly man doth know

the errors of his life ?

Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife ?

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me :

And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and heart also,
my words and thoughts each one ;

For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

P S A L. XX. T. S.

IN trouble and adversity
the Lord God hear me still ;

The Majesty of Jacob's God defend me from all ill.

2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at ev'ry need :

And so in Sion 'stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done :

And so receive most graciously thy offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :

And all thy counsel and thy mind,
full well perform may he.

5 We will rejoice when thou us sav'st,
and banners shall display

Unto the Lord, who thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace :

And send him help by his right-hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust :

But we remember God our Lord,
who keepeth promise just.

8 They all fall down, but we do rise,
and stand up stedfastly :

O save and help us, Lord and King,
when we to thee do cry.

P S A L. XXI. T. S.

O Lord, how joyful is the king
in thy strength and thy pow'r !

Exceedingly he doth rejoice
in thee his Saviour.

2 But thou hast given unto him
his godly heart's desire :

To him thou nothing hast deny'd
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold :

And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure :
To have long life, yea, such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :

6 Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay :
And with thy chearful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 Because the king doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail :
Therefore his goodness and his grace
to save him will not fail.

8 Thy enemies shall feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand :
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the pow'r of thy right-hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thy anger shall destroy them all
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase :
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For they much mischief did contrive against thy holy Name :
Yet did they fail, and had no pow'r,
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-strings readily,
against their very face.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, in thy own strength, which is our tow'r ;

So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and pow'r.

P S A L. XXII. T. S.

○ God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly ?
And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry ?

2 To thee my God, ev'n all day long
I do both cry and call :
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 But thou that in thy holy place
for evermore dost dwell, Thou art the joy, the comfort, and glory of Israel.

4 And him in whom our Fathers old,
had all their hope and stay :
Who when they put their trust in thee,
deliver'dst them alway.

5 They were preserved ever when they called on thy name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become more like a worm, than to a man :
An out-cast, whom the people scorn
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way : (head,
They grin, make mouths, and nod the
and on this wise do say ;

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :
Let him redeem and help him now,
his pow'r if he will prove.

9 But from the prison of the womb
I was by thee releast :
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck the breast.

10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode :
Since I came from my mother's womb,
thou hast been still my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me
in this my present grief :
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 For many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
Yes, bulls so fat, as tho' they had
in Basan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily
as tho' they would me slay :
Much like a lion roaring out
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down, like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break :
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax, I am so weak.

15 My strength doth like a potsherd dry,
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 For many dogs do compass me,
in council they do meet :
Conspiring still against my life,
piercing my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told :
Whilst they do look and stare at me,
when they do me behold.

18 My garments they divided have
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it should befall.

19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far from me at my great need :
But rather, since thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.

20 And from the sword save thou my soul
by thy might and thy pow'r :
And ever keep my darling dear
from dogs, that would devour :

21 And from the lion's mouth, that would
me all in sunder tear :
From 'midst the horns of unicorns,
O Lord, thou didst me hear.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy Majesty record ;
And in thy church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him, praise the Lord,
thou Jacob, him adore :
And all the seed of Israel,
fear him for evermore.
24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he hideth not away
His countenance when they do call,
but hears them when they pray.
25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.
26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd ;
such as their minds do give
To seek the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall ever live.
27 The coasts of all the earth shall praise
the Lord, and seek his grace :
The heathen folk shall worship all
before his blessed face.
28 The kingdoms of the heathen folk,
the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their Governour,
and king for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall taste and feed also ;
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that do go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
A seed shall serve and worship him,
till time away shall waste.
31 They shall declare and plainly shew
his truth and righteousness,
Unto a people yet unborn,
who shall his Name confess.

P S A L. XXIII. W. W.

THe Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed ;
How can I then lack anything
whereof I stand in need ?

2 In pastures green he feedeth me,
where I do safely lie :

And after leads me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.

3 And when I find my self near lost,
then doth he me home take :

Conducting me in his right paths,
ev'n for his own Name's sake.

4 And tho' I were ev'n at death's door,
yet would I fear no ill :

For both thy rod and shepherd's crook afford me comfort still.

5 Thou hast my table richly spread
in presence of my foe ;

Thou hast my head with balm refresh'd,
my cup doth overflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend :

And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same, by T. S.

MY shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need :
In pastures fair, near pleasant streams,
he setteth me to feed.

2 He shall convert and glad my soul,
and bring my mind in frame ;
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.

3 Yea, tho' I walk in vale of death
yet will I fear no ill :

Thy rod and staff do comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foe
my table thou shalt spread :
Thou wilt fill up my cup, and thou anointed hast my head.

5 Thro' all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me,
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

P S A L. XXIV. J. H.

THe earth is all the Lord's, with all
her store and furniture :

Yea, his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it
above the seas to stand,
And plac'd below the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 Who is the man, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still ? (pure.

4 Ev'n he whose hands and heart are
which nothing doth defile :
His soul not set on vanity,
and hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
most highly will regard :
And from his God and Saviour shall,
receive a just reward.

6 This is the generation of them that do seek his grace :
Ev'n them that with an upright heart,
O Jacob, seek thy face.

7 Ye gates, and everlasting doors,
lift up your heads on high :
Then shall the king of glorious state
come in triumphantly.

1 Who is the King of glorious state?
the great and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battle strong
and trial of the sword.
9 Ye gates and everlasting doors,
lift up your heads on high:
Then shall the King of glorious state
come in triumphantly.
10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

P S A L. XXV. T. S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
2 Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make their scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown
that put their trust in thee.
3 But shame shall them befall,
who harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways
unto me, Lord, descry.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
And teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my Saviour and my God,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold
remember, Lord, I pray;
In pity thou art plentiful,
and so hast been alway.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Call not to mind how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
7 Not after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
8 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach
and such as go aside.
9 The humble he will teach
his precepts to obey:
He will direct in all his paths
the lowly man alway.
10 For all the ways of God
both truth and mercy are,
To them that do his covenant
and statutes keep with care.
The second part.
11 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.
12 Who so doth fear the Lord,
by him he shall be kept,

To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
13 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.
14 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.
15 My eyes and thankful heart
to him I will advance:
That pluck my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
16 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moan:
For I am poor and desolate
and comfortless alone.
17 The troubles of my heart,
are multiply'd indeed:
Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
18 Behold my poverty,
my anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and my offence,
and make me clean again.
19 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.
20 Preserve and keep my soul,
and still deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
21 Let truth and uprightness
for ever wait on me:
Because my hope and confidence
hath always been in thee.
22 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief:
I mean thy chosen Israel
from all their vain and grief.

P S A L. XXVI. T. S.

L Lord, be my judge, and thou shalt see
my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he
with strength will me sustain.
2 Prove me, my God, I thee desire,
my ways to search and try;
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my heart and reins espy.
3 Thy loving kindness in my sight
I do behold always:
I ever walked in thy truth,
and will do all my days.
4 I do not love to haunt or use
with men whose deeds are vain,
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitful train.
5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:

Psalm XXVII. XXVIII.

19

I do not once to them resort
that hurtful things devise.
6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright:
Then to thy altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight. (praise 7 That I may speak and preach the
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous ways
thou hast been good to me.
8 O God, thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell:
My chief delight is to be near
the place where thou dost dwell.
9 O shut not up my soul with them
in sin that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.
10 For in their hands much mischief is,
their lives therewith abound:
And nothing else in their right-hand
but bribes is to be found.
11 But I resolve in righteousness
my time and days to spend:
Therefore, that I may not transgress,
let thy grace me defend.
12 My foot is staid for all assays,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise,
in all the people's sight.

P S A L. XXVII. J. H.

THE Lord is both my health & light,
shall man make me dismay'd?
Since God doth give me strength and might,
why should I be afraid? (strength, 2 While that my foes with all their
began with me to brawl,
Thinking to eat me up, at length,
themselves have caught the fall.
3 Tho' they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:
And if in battle they will try,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray, and will desire,
till he to me apply:
5 That I within his holy place,
my life thro' out may dwell:
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.
6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure:
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.
7 At length I know the Lord's good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalms and Songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The second part.

9 Lord, hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I cry:
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress,
and help me speedily.
10 My heart confesseth unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face, saidst thou to me,
Lord, I will seek thy face.
11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
My help thou hast been to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 When both my parents me forsake,
and cast me off at large:
Ev'n then the Lord himself doth take
of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth-right:
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 O leave me not unto the will
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.
15 I utterly should faint, but that
this hope supporteth me,
That in the land wherein I live
God's goodness I shall see. (art, 16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou
his will abide thou must:
He will support and ease thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

P S A L. XXVIII. T. S.

THOU art, O Lord, my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave:
Neglect me not, lest I be like
them that are laid in grave.
2 My voice and supplications hear,
when unto thee I cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.
3 Repute me not among those men
in sin that take their fill:
That speak right fair unto their friends,
but think in heart full ill.
4 According to those wicked deeds
which they did most regard:
And after their inventions, Lord,
let them receive reward.
5 Because they never mind the works
of God, he will therefore,
Instead of building of them up,
destroy them evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,

My

My voice, my pray'r, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly.
7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress:
My heart rejoiceth greatly, and
my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our foes for to resist:
The health and the salvation of his own elect by Christ.
9 Thy people and thy heritage,
Lord, bless, guide, and preserve;
Increase them Lord, and rule their hearts
that they may never swerve.

P S A L. XXIX. T. S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
give ye with one accord,
All praise and honour, might and
strength,
unto the living Lord.
2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Give worship to his Majesty
within his holy throne.
3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
as he him self doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder claps,
and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent. (break
5 The voice of God doth rend &
the cedar-trees so long:
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are both high and strong.
6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or as the unicorn:
Not only trees, but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.
7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
It makes the desert quake for fear,
that Cades called is.
8 It makes the hinds for fear to calve,
and covert plain appear:
And in his temple ev'ry man
speaks of his glory there.
9 The Lord doth sit upon the floods,
their fury to restrain:
And he likewise as Lord and King,
for evermore shall reign.
10 The Lord will give his people
strength,
whereby they shall encrease:
And he will bless his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

P S A L. XXX. J. H.
All laud and praise with heart and
voice,
O Lord, I give to thee:
Who didst not make my foes rejoice,
but hast exalted me.
2 O Lord my God, to thee I cry'd
in all my pain and grief:
Thou gav'st an ear, and didst provide to ease me with relief. (from hell
3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul
and thou the same didst save
From them that in the pit do dwell,
and kept'st me from the grave:
4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see
the goodness of the Lord:
In honour of his Majesty
rejoice with one accord.
5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last, ceasing again:
But in his favour and his grace
always doth life remain.
6 Tho' heaviness and pangs full sore
abide with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.
7 When I enjoy'd the World at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel no ill,
my wealth shall not decay.
8 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace,
didst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my mind was sore dismay'd.
9 Wherefore again then did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
And my complaints did multiply,
praying both day and night.
10 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days?
Can dust declare thy Majesty,
or give thy truth its praise?
11 Wherefore, my God, some pity take,
O Lord, I thee desire:
Do not, O Lord, my soul forsake,
of thee I help require. (woe 12 Then didst thou turn my grief and into a cheerful voice:
My sackcloth didst take off also,
and mad'st me to rejoice.
13 Wherefore my soul incessantly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord, my God, to thee will I
give laud and thanks always.
P S A L. XXXI. J. H.
O Lord, I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me free from blame.

2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.
3 For why? as stones thy strength is try'd,
thou art my fort and tow'r:
For thy name's sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy pow'r.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy mighty aid.

5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my soul, which is thy due:
Because thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhorr'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell: (noy, Thou see'st when ought would me an-
and know'st my soul full well:

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail,
some pity on me take.

My eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail,
my heart with fear doth ake.

10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in woe are past:

My strength is gone, and thro' disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes, I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismay'd:

My neighbours and my kinsmen born,
to see mee are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:

As little use of me they find,
as of a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray:

How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.

14 But, I ord, I trust in thee for aid
not to be over-trod:

For I confess, and still have said,
Thou art the Lord my God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand:

Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant, Lord, express
and shew thy joyful face:

And save me, Lord, for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to shame,
because on thee I call:

But let the wicked bear the blame,
and into the grave fall. (right,

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips out-
who given are to lies:

And cruelly with pride and spite
against the just devise.

19 How plentiful thy mercies be laid up for thy children,

That fear and put their trust in thee
before the sons of men! (guide

20 Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:

Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far,

Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.

22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd,

Lo, I am clean past out of sight,
yet heard'st thou my request.

23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord alway,
the faithful he doth guide:

And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

24 Be of good courage all ye just,
on God your strength depend:

For those in him that put their trust,
he ever will defend.

P S A L. XXXII. T. S.

THe man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord forgiven hath:

And he whose sin is likewise hid,
and cover'd from his wrath.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:

Who in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint,

My bones did waste and wear away
with daily moan and plaint.

4 Both night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,

My moisture, like the summer's heat,
to dryness did convert.

5 I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins reveal:

Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins conceal.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:

So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about,

Thou

Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
3 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide, as I my self
have learn'd by proof and sight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a rein or bit,
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and grief sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.
11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just, lift up your voice,
And ye of pure and perfect heart
with chearfulness rejoice.

PSAL. XXXIII. J. H.

YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.
3 Praise ye the Lord with harp, and sing
to him with psalttery: (ding,
With ten-string'd instrument found-
praise ye the Lord most high.
3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.
4 Both judgment, equity, and right,
he ever lov'd, and will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
5 For by the word of God alone,
the heav'n's above were wrought:
Their hosts and powers ev'ry one,
his breath to pass hath brought.
6 The waters great gather'd hath he
on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.
7 Let all the earth then fear the Lord,
and keep his righteous law:
And all the world with one accord,
dread him and stand in awe.
8 What he commanded, wrought it was
at once with utmost speed:
What he doth will, is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.
9 The counsels of the nations rude,
the Lord doth bring to nought;
He doth defeat the multitude
of their device and thought.
10 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his mind and will take place in ev'ry age.

The second part.

11 Blessed are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth chuse of meer accord,
to take them as his own. (sight 12 The Lord from heav'n did cast his
on men mortal by birth:
Beholding from the seat of might
the dwellers on the earth. (wrought 13 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath man's heart, and doth it frame:
'Tis he alone doth know the thought,
and working of the same.
14 A king that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fail for all his strength.
15 The troops of horsemen all shall fail,
their sturdy steeds shall swerve:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.
16 But lo, the eyes of God attend
and watch to aid the just:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.
17 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresses,
in hunger them to feed. (depend 18 Wherefore our soul doth whole
on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.
19 Our joyful souls always proclaim
his power and his might:
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.
20 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we always with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSAL. XXXIV. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always:
My mouth also for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
2 I do delight to laud the Lord,
in soul, in heart, and voice:
That humble men may hear thereof,
and heartily rejoice.
3 Therefore see that ye magnify
with me the living Lord:
Let us exalt his holy Name
always with one accord.
4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answer'd me again:
And me deliver'd speedily
from all my fear and pain.
5 Whoso they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:

Theirs

Their countenance shall not be dash'd,
they never need to fear.

6 The poor distressed man for help
unto the Lord doth call:

Who doth him hear without delay,
and rids him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in ev'ry place:

To save all such as do him fear,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just:

O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust!

9 O fear the Lord, all ye his saints,
who is a mighty King:

For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The lions shall be hunger-bit
and pin'd with famine much:

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come near to me, my children, and
unto my words give ear:

I will you teach the perfect way
how ye the Lord shall fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a happy life?

See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

13 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:

Enquire for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.

14 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent:

His ears likewise to hear the cry
of the poor innocent. (brows)

15 But he doth frown and bend his upon the wicked train:

And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.

16 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,

That out of pain and misery,
forthwith he lets them go.

17 The Lord is ever nigh to them
that broken-hearted are:

And for the contrite spirit he salvation doth prepare.

18 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men endure:

But of deliv'rance from them all
the Lord doth them secure.

19 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway,

That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

20 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:

And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

21 But they that fear the living Lord,
are ever safe and sound,

And as for those that trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

P S A L. XXXV. J. H.

L ord, plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:

And take my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hold upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour drest:

Stand up with me to fight the field,
to help me from distress.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
my enemies withstand:

That thou unto my soul may'st say,
I am thy help at hand. (blame,

4 Confound them with rebuke and
that seek my soul to spill:

Let them turn back and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:

That so the angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their ways be void of light,
and slipp'ry like to fall:

And send thy angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault have they
in secret set their gin:

And digg'd a pit in my path-way,
to take my soul therein. (care,

8 When they think least, and have no
O Lord, destroy them all:

Let them be caught in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 But let my soul, my heart, and voice,
in God have joy and wealth:

That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health. (say,

10 Then all my bones shall speak, and (my parts shall all agree:)

O thou great God of heav'n and earth,
what man is like to thee!

The second part.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them

that are both stout and strong:

And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.

12 My cruel foes against me rise
to witness things untrue:

And to accuse me they devise,
of things I never knew. (will,

13 Where I to them did shew good
they quit me with disdain:

That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.

14 When

14 When they were sick, I mourn'd therefore,
my self in sackcloth clad :
With fasting I did faint full sore,
and pray'd with heart most sad.
15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my self behave,
As one that mourneth heavily
about his mother's grave.
16 But they in my adversity
did gather in a rout, Yea, abject slaves reproachfully
at me did mock and flout.
17 The belly-gods and flatt'ring train,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
turning their mouths aside.
18 Lord, when wilt thou for me appear,
why dost thou stay and pause?
Orid my soul, my darling dear,
out of these lions claws.
19 And then will I give thanks to thee
before the church always :
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Neither let them wink with their eyes,
that causeless me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue :
They still consult how to betray
all those that peace pursue.
22 With open mouth they run at me,
their fury is like fire :
Well, well, say they, our eyes doth see the thing that we desire. (take 23 But Lord, thou see'st what ways they
and what they do intend :
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
but speedy help me send.
24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, O Lord my God,
and aid me with thy might.
25 According to thy righteousness,
O Lord God, set me free :
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.
26 Let not their hearts rejoice, nor cry,
Ev'n so we would it have :
Nor give them cause to say on high,
He's sunk into the grave.
27 Confound them all that do rejoice
when they my trouble see :
Let them be clothed with rebuke,
that boast with scorn at me.
28 But let them heartily rejoice,
who love thy upright way :

Let them all times with heart and voice
still praise the Lord, and say, 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
and he doth much delight
To see his servants prosper well,
it is his pleasant sight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise :
To thee the Lord my God will I
give laud and thanks always.

PSAL. XXXVI. J. H.

THe wicked by his works unjust,
doth thus persuade his heart,
That in the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.
2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserves the hate
of God as well as man. (naught, 3 His words are wicked, vile, and his tongue no truth can tell :
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well. (muse, 4 When he should sleep, then doth he
his mischiefs to fulfill :
No wicked way doth he refuse,
nor any thing that's ill.
5 But, Lord, thy goodness doth ascend above the heav'ns most high :
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy sky. (sleep 6 Much more than hills so high and thy justice is express :
Thy judgment's like to seas most deep,
thou sav'st both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excell :
In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 Because the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee :
And in thy light we are full sure eternal light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me prevail
O Lord, of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device shall fall,
that wicked works maintain :
They shall be certainly cast down,
and never rise again.

PSALM XXXVII. W. W.

GRudge not to see the wicked men
in wealth to flourish still :
Nor envy such as ill to do
have bent and set their will.
For as the grafs and the green herbs
do wither and decay :
So shall their great prosperity
soon fade and pass away.
Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure foot shalt find.
In God set all thy heart's delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou need'st it not to crave.
Cast both thy self and thy affairs,
on God with perfect trust,
And then thou shalt with patience see
th' effect both sure and just.
Thy perfect life and godly name
he will clear as the light :
So that the sun ev'n at noon-day
shall not shine half so bright.
Be still therefore, and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosp'rous state
of lewd and wicked men.
Shake off despite, envy and hate,
let not thy anger rise :
That thou may'st not be drawn into
some sinful enterprize.
For ev'ry wicked man will God
most certainly destroy :
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to enjoy.
Wait but a while and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train :
No, not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second part.

But merciful and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.
The lewd men and malicious do
against the just conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
who do his bane desire.
But while ungodly men thus think
the Lord laughs them to scorn :
For he doth see their time approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.
The wicked have their sword out drawn,
their bow is also bent,
To overthrow and kill the poor,
whose life is innocent. (heart,
But the same sword shall pierce their wiche was to kill the just :

So shall the bow in shivers break,
wherein they put their trust.
Doubleless the just man's poor estate
is to be valu'd more Than all the lewd and wicked men's rich pomp and heaped store.
For tho' their power be most strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
He sees by his great providence
the godly's upright way :
And will give them inheritance
which never shall decay.
Discouraged they shall not be,
when some are hard bestead :
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.
For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to God,
Shall like the fat of lambs consume,
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

Behold, the wicked borrows much,
and payeth not again :
Whereas the just by liberal gifts,
the needy doth sustain. (have
For they whom God doth bless shall
the land for heritage :
And they whom he doth curse, likewise
shall perish in his rage. (guide,
The Lord the just man's steps doth
and all his ways doth bless :
To ev'ry thing he takes in hand
he giveth good success.
Tho' he do fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to sink :
For God upholds him with his hand,
and from him will not shrink.
I have been young, and now am old,
but never yet saw I
The just man left, neither his seed
reduc'd to beggary.
He gives always most lib'rally,
and lends where there is need :
By which he doth from God secure
a blessing to his seed.
Therefore flee vice and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace :
So God shall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling-place.
For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace :
That he preserveth them, but doth
cut off the wicked race.
Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land :
Having as lords all things therein
in their own pow'r and hand.
The just man's mouth doth ever speak
of matters wise and high:

His tongue doth talk of judgment, and
of truth and equity.

31 For in his heart the law of God
doth evermore abide :

So that whereever he doth go,
his foot shall never slide.

32 The wicked like a greedy wolf,
the just man doth beset :

By all means seeking him to kill,
and take him in his net.

The fourth part.

33 But tho' he fall into his hands,
God will him succour send :

Tho' men against him sentence give,
yet God will him defend.

4 Waite thou on God, and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then,

The earth to rule, and thou shalt see
destroy'd these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree :

Spreading himself, and flourishing,
as doth the lawrel-tree.

36 But suddenly he past away
and lo, he was quite gone :

Then I him sought, but could not find,
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the upright man,
how God doth him increase :

For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressors, woe to them,
destroy'd they all shall be :

God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,

Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meer grace and love.

40 God evermore delivers them
from lewd men and unjust :

And still will save them, whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSAL. XXXVIII. J. H.

Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire :

And in thy wrath correct me not,
I humbly thee desire.

2 Thy arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me sore :

And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in :

Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sin.

4 For lo, my wicked doings, Lord,
above my head are gone :

A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.

5 My wounds do stink and are corrupt,
and loathsome are to see :

Which all thro' my own foolishness
doth happen unto me.

6 And I in careful wise am brought into such great distress,

That I go wailing all the day
in doleful heaviness.

7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part :

I feeble am, and broken sore,
and roar for grief of heart.

8 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my groans

are open in thy sight : (sail
My heart doth pant, my strength doth

mine eyes have lost their light.

9 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my woe :

My kinsmen they do far away
from me depart also.

10 They that do seek my life, lay snares,
and they that go the way

To do me hurt, speak lyes, and think,
on mischief all the day.

The second part.

11 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all :

And as one dumb, that opens not
his mouth to speak withal.

12 For all my confidence, O Lord,
I wholly place in thee :

Therefore, O Lord, who art my God,
do thou give ear to me.

13 This do I crave, that they my foes
triumph not over me :

For when my foot doth slip, then they rejoice my fall to see.

14 And I am ready for to halt,
I cannot stand upright :

Also my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.

15 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confess,

And while I for my sinful deeds
my sorrows do express ;

16 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are I know :

And they that hate me wrongfully
in number hugely grow.

17 They stand against me that my good
with evil do repay :

Because that good and honest things
I do pursue alway.

18 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
bethou not far away :

Make haste to help me, O my God,
my safety, and my stay.

PSAL. XXXIX. J. H.

I said, I will look to my ways,
for fear I should go wrong :

I will

I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.
3 I held my tongue and ſpake no word,
but kept me cloſe and ſtill.
Yea, from good talk I did refrain,
but ſore againſt my will.
4 My heart grew hot within my breaſt,
with muſing, thought and doubt:
Which did increaſe and ſtir the fire,
at laſt theſe words burſt out:
5 Lord, number out my life and days
which yet I have not paſt,
So that I may be certify'd
how long my life ſhall laſt.
6 For thou haſt pointed out my life,
in length much like a ſpan:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
ſo vain is ev'ry man.
7 Man walketh like a ſhade, and doth
in vain himſelf annoy,
In getting goods, and cannot tell
who ſhall the ſame enjoy.
8 Therefore, O Lord, what wait I for,
what help do I deſire?
Truly, my hope is ev'n in thee,
I nothing elſe require.
The ſecond part.
9 From all the ſins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand:
And make me not a ſcorn to fools,
that nothing underſtand.
10 I was ſo dumb, that to complain
no trouble could me move:
Becaufe I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove. (plague 11 Lord, take from me thy ſcourge and I cannot them withſtand;
I faint and pine away for fear
of thy moſt heavy hand.
12 When thou for ſin doſt man rebuke,
he waxeth pale and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
ſo vain a thing is man. (heed, 13 Lord, hear my ſuit, and give good
regard my tears that fall:
I ſojourn like a ſtranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O ſpare a little, give me ſpace
my ſtrength for to reſtore,
Before I go away from hence,
and ſhall be ſeen no more.

P S A L M. XL. J. H.

I Waited long, and ſought the Lord,
and patiently did bear:
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to hear.

2 He brought me from the dreadful pit,
out of the mire and clay:
Upon a rock he ſet my feet,
and he did guide my way.
3 To me he taught a pſalm of praiſe,
which I muſt ſhew abroad:
And ſing new ſongs of thanks always unto the Lord our God. (ſee, 4 When all the folk theſe things ſhall
as people much afraid:
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and truſt upon his aid.
5 Bleſſed is he whoſe hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain:
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor ſuch as lies maintain.
6 For, Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatneſs far do paſs:
Thy favour towards us exceeds
all things that ever was.
7 When I intend and do deviſe
thy works abroad to ſhow,
To ſuch a reck'ning they do riſe,
thereof no end I know.
8 Burnt-off'rings thou delight'ſt not in:
I know thy whole deſire:
With ſacrifice to purge his ſin,
thou doſt no man require.
9 Meat-offerings and ſacrifice
thou wouldeſt not have at all:
But thou, O Lord, haſt open made
my ears to hear withal.
10 But then, ſaid I, behold and look,
I come with heart moſt free:
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it ſaid of me:
11 That I, O God, ſhould do thy mind,
which thing doth pleaſe me well:
For in my heart thy law I find
faſt placed there to dwell.
12 Thy righteousneſs and juſtice I
in great aſſemblies tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth ceaſe,
O Lord, thou knoweſt well.
The ſecond part.
13 I have nor hid within my breaſt
thy goodneſs as by ſtealth:
But I declare and have expreſt
thy truth and ſaving health.
14 I kept not cloſe thy loving mind,
that no man ſhould it know:
The truſt that in thy truth I find,
to all the church I ſhow.
15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me,
withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and verity
preſerve me night and day.
16 For I with many troubles am encompaſſed about:
My ſins ſo greatly do increaſe,
I cannot ſpy them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head.

My heart doth faint for very fear,
that I am almost dead. (free,

18 With speed send help, and set me
O Lord, I thee require :

Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire. (shame

19 Confound them with rebuke and
that seek my soul to spill :

Drive back my foes, and them defame
that wish me any ill.

20 For their ill feats do them descry
that would deface my name,

Always at me they rail and cry,
Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee always :

That those that love thy saving health,
may say, To God be praise.

22 But as for me, I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low :

Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know. (trust,

23 For why? thou art my hope and
my refuge, help and stay :

Wherefore, my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

P S A L. XII. T. S.

THe man is blest that doth provide for such as needy be :

For in the season perilous
the Lord will set him free.

2 And he will keep him safe, and make him happy in the land :

And not deliver him into his enemies strong hand.

3 And from his bed of languishing
the Lord will him restore :

For thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sickness and his sore.

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
Have mercy, Lord, on me :

And heal my soul, which grieved is,
that I offended thee.

5 My foes did wish me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,

When shall he die, that so his name
may perish quite away?

6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask, If I do well?

But in their hearts they mischief hatch,
and then abroad it tell.

7 All they that hate me do conspire against me craftily :

And still devise how to procure
my hurt and misery. (to 8 Some grievous sin hath brought him

this sickness, say they plain;

He is so low that without doubt
he cannot rise again.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit :

Who at my table did eat bread,
the same for me laid wait.

10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preserv'd :

That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.

11 By this I know assuredly
to be belov'd of thee :

Because my foes no power have to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept
and it maintained well :

And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall ever dwell.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore :

Ev'n so be it, Lord, will I say,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L. XLII. J. H.

LIke as the hart doth pant and bray,
the well-springs to obtain :

So doth my soul desire alway,
with thee, Lord, to remain. (near

2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw
the living God of might :

O when shall I come and appear,
in presence of his sight?

3 The tears all times are my repast
which from mine eyes do slide :

Whilst wicked men cry out so fast,
Where now is God thy guide?

4 Alas! what grief it is to think the freedom once I had :

Therefore my soul, as at pit's brink,
most heavy is and sad.

5 For I did march in good array,
with joyful company :

Unto the temple was our way,
to praise the Lord most high.

6 My soul, why art thou sad alway,
and frett'st it thus in my breast?

Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

7 By him I succour have at need
against all pain and grief :

He is my God, who with all speed
doth haste to send relief.

8 My soul is vexed in me, and therefore, O Lord, I will Remember thee from Jordan's land,

and Hermon's little hill.

The second part.

9 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice :

The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.

10 Yet I by day felt his goodness,
and help at all assays ;

Like-

Likewise at night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
11 I am persuaded thus to say
to him with reverence,
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence 12 Why do I then in pensiveness,
hanging the head, thus walk?
While that my enemies oppress and vex me with their talk. (parts 13 For why? they pierce my inward
with pains to be abhorred,
When they cry out with stubborn
hearts,

Where now is God the Lord.
14 So soon my soul, why dost thou faint
with pain and grief oppress?
Why do sad thoughts without restraint,
thus rage within thy breast?
15 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see, (se,
To give him thanks with laud and praise for health restor'd to thee.

PSALM XLIII. T. S.

Judge and defend my cause, O Lord,
'gainst them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitful men,
O Lord, deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why am I put from thee?
Why walk I heavily, whilst that my foe oppresseth me?

3 O Lord, send out thy light and truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling-place.

4 Then shall I to thine altar go,
with joy to worship there:
And on my heart give thanks to thee,
O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and frett'st thus in my breast?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it always best.

6 By him I have deliverance
from all my pain and grief,
He is my God who doth always
at need sent me relief.

PSALM XLIV. T. S.

O Ur ears have heard our fathers tell,
and rev'rently record (done
The wondrous works that thou hast
in ancient time, O Lord.

2 How thou didst drive the heathen out with a most pow'rful hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquer'd not by their own sword,
the land wherein they dwell

But by thy hand, thy arm and grace,
because thou lov'dst them well.

4 Thou art my King, O God, who sav'st Jacob in sundry wise. (such Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise.

5 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:
Thou kept'st us from our foe's great rage,

and didst them all confound.
6 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:

Yet now thou go'st not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

7 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
so were we over-trod:

They did us rob, and spoil our goods,
we were dispers'd abroad.

8 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:

Amongst the heathen ev'ry where
scatter'd we do remain.

9 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:

For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was fought. (made

10 And to our neighbours thou hast
of us a laughing-stock:

And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

11 Thus we serve for no other use,
but for a common talk: (heads
They mock, they scorn, and shake their where ever they do walk.

12 With shame and great confusion I afflicted am till fore:

Yea, so I blush, that all my face
with red is cover'd o'er. (words,

13 For why? we hear such scandalous
such false reports and lies:

That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.

14 For all this, we forgot not thee,
nor ver thy cov'nant brake: (thee,

We turn'd not back our hearts from
nor did thy paths forsake.

15 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be:

And cover'd us with shade of death
and great adversity.

16 If we Gods Name forgotten have,
and help of idols sought:

Shall he not search and find this out?
for he doth know our thought.

17 But 'tis for thy Name's sake, O Lord,
we always are slain thus:

As sheep unto the shambles sent,
ev'n so they deal with us.

26 Up, Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
for ever leave us not:

Why hidest thou thy countenance?
our thrall thou hast forgot.

27 Ev'n to the dust our souls are brought,
our troubles so encrease:

Our belly cleaveth to the ground,
our grief no time doth cease.

28 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us, Lord, at need:

We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

PSALM XLV. J. H.

MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing,
The praise that I shall shew therein
pertaineth to the King.

2 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,

As is the pen of any scribe
that useth fast to write.

3 O fairest of all men,
thy lips with grace are pure:

For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.

4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:

With honour, glory, and renown,
thou art most richly deckt

5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth and right:

And thy right-hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadful might.

6 Thy arrows sharp and keen
their hearts so sore shall sting,

That they shall crouch and kneel to thee,

yea, all thy foes, O King.

7 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain,

Because the sceptre of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain.

8 Because thou lov'st the right
and didst the ill detest:

Therefore hath God anointed thee
with joy above the rest.

9 With myrrh and savours sweet,
thy clothes are all bespread:

When thou dost from my palace pass,
thereby to make thee glad.

10 Kings daughters do attend
in line and rich array:

At thy right-hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear:

Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and father's house most dear.

12 Then shall the King desire
thy beauty more and more:

He is the Lord thy God, whom thou must worship and adore.

13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see:

And all the wealthy of the land,
shall make their suit to thee.

14 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold:

Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes with needle wrought,
and ev'ry pleasant thing,

With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the King.

16 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,

Into the palace of the King,
and there they do abide.

17 Instead of fathers thou shalt children multiply: (rule

Whom thou may'st princes make to all lands successively.

18 Wherefore thy holy Name
all ages shall record.

The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

PSALM XLVI. J. H.

THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:

When we with woe are much dismay'd,
he is our help at hand.

2 Tho' the earth move, we will not fear,
tho' mountains high and steep,

Be thrust and hurled here and there
within the sea so deep.

3 No, tho' the sea do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spills:

And tho' it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.

4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace:

To glad the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she never can decay:

All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will surely slay.

6 The heathen folk and kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:

The earth doth melt, and disappear,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:

Our hope of health with all our heart
on Jacob's God doth lie. (thought

8 Come here and see with mind and the working of our God:

What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are hush and gone,
tho' countries did conspire:

Their

Their bows and spears he brake each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.

10 Be still therefore, and know that I am God, and therefore will Among the heathen people be highly exalted still.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tow'r:
On Jacob's God we do depend,
and on his mighty pow'r.

PSAL. XLVII. J. H.

YE people all, with one accord,
clap hands, shout and rejoice:
Be glad, and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.

1 For high the Lord and dreadful is his wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is likewise
in all the earth extoll'd.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet shall he
the nations make to fall.

4 For us the heritage he chose
which we possess alone:
The excellency of Jacob
his well beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high
with joy and pleasant noise.
The Lord goes up above the skie
with trumpets royal voice:

6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
For God is king of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.

7 God on the heathen reigns and sits
upon his holy throne:
The Princes of the people have them joined ev'ry one

8 To Abraham's people; for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSAL. XLVIII. J. H.

Great is the Lord, and with great praise,
to be advanced still,
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Zion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty King,
on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:
For lo, the kings are gather'd, and
together they are gone.

4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were

Astonish'd much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear.

5 Great terrour there on them did fall,
for grief of heart they cry:
As doth a woman when she shall go travel speedily.

6 As thou with eastern wind the ship
upon the seas dost break,
They were destroy'd: and ev'n as we have heard our fathers speak;

7 So in the city of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:

Yea, in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord, we wait and do depend,
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise:

And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

10 For thy judgments let Zion mount
be fill'd full with joys:
Also of Judah grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.

11 Go walk about all Zion hill,
yea, round about her go:

And tell the towers that thereon,
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

13 For this most mighty God our God
for evermore is he,

And unto death we are resolv'd
our guide he still shall be.

PSAL. XLIX. J. H.

ALl people hearken and give ear
to that which I shall tell:

Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.

2 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things most wise:

In understanding shall my heart
its study exercise.

3 I will incline my ear to know
the parable so dark:

And open all my doubtful speech
in metre on my harp.

4 Wherefore should I affliction fear
or any careful toyl?

Or else my foes which at my heels
do press my life to spoil?

5 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most;

And they which of their treasures great
do proudly brag and boast.

6 There is not one of them that can
his brother's life redeem,

Or give a ransom unto God sufficient in esteem.

7 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :

So that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.

8 They see wise men as well as fools
are subject to death's bands :

And being dead, strangers possess
their houses, goods and lands.

9 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure,

To make their names upon the earth,
for ever to endure.

10 Yet shall no man always enjoy high honour, wealth and rest :

But must at length submit to death
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

11 And tho' they find their foolish thoughts,

to be most lewd and vain,

Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sin remain.

12 As sheep into the fold are brought,
they shall be laid in grave :

Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall Lordship have.

13 Their beauty and their royal ports
shall fade and quite decay,

When from their house unto the pit
with woe they pass away.

14 But God will surely me preserve
from death and endless pain :

Because he will of his good grace
my soul receive again.

15 If any man grow wondrous rich,
he not afraid therefore :

Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

16 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive :

His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take its leave.

17 Yet in this life he counts himself
the happiest under sun :

And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.

18 But yet if he should live as long
as did his fathers old,

Yet must he needs at length give place
and be brought to death's fold.

19 Man that in honour lives, and doth not understand, may be

Compar'd unto the very beasts
that perish utterly.

P S A L M. L. W. W.

THe mighty God
th' Eternal hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke,

Psalms L.

Ev'n from the east
and so forth to the west,

Out of Sion,
which place he liketh best,

God will appear
in beauty most excellent,

Our God will come
before long time be spent.

2 Devouring fire
shall go before his face,

A great tempest
shall round about him trace.

Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright

To judge his folk
with equity and right :

Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble,

My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.

3 The heavens they shall declare his righteousness,

For God is Judge
of all things more and less.

Hear my people,
for I will now reveal ;

Lift, Israel,
I'll from thee nought conceal.

Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee,

For not giving
all sorts of off'rings to me.

4 I have no need to take of thee at all

Goats of thy fold,
or calves out of thy stall :

For all the beasts
are mine within the woods,

On thousand hills
cattle are my own goods.

I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains :

All beasts mine are
which haunt the fields and fountains.

5 Were I hungry
I would not thee it tell :

For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

Eate I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks ?

Or drink the blood
of goats or of the flocks ?

Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving

And pay thy vows unto God ever living.

6 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be

Then will I help
and thou shalt honour me.

To the wicked
 thus saith the eternal God,
 Why dost thou preach
 my word and laws abroad :
 Seeing thou hast
 them with thy mouth abused,
 And hast to be
 by discipline reduced.
 7 My words I say,
 thou dost reje^t and hate
 If that thou see
 a thief, as with thy mate,
 Thou runst with him,
 and so your prey seek out ;
 And art all one
 with the adul^{ter}ous rout.
 Thou givst thy self
 to backbite and to slander,
 And how thy tongue
 deceiveth, is a wonder.
 8 Thou sittst musing
 thy brother how to blame,
 And how to put
 thy mother's son to shame.
 These things thou didst,
 and while I held my tongue,
 Thou didst me judge,
 because I said so long,
 Like to thy self ;
 yet tho' I keep long silence,
 Once shalt thou feel
 of thy wrongs just recompence.
 9 Consider this
 ye that forget the Lord,
 And fear not when
 he threatneth with his word ;
 Left without help
 I spoil you as a prey.
 But he that thanks
 offers, praiseth alway, Saith the Lord God ;
 and he that walketh this race,
 I will him teach
 God's saving health t^e embrace.

 Before him shall the fire waste,
 and tempest round about.
 4 The heav^{ens} which are so high,
 the earth below likewise,
 He will call forth, that he may try
 the people that are his.

5 Bring forth my saints, saith he,
 my faithful flock most dear :
 Which are in band and league with me
 my law to love and fear.
 6 And when these things are try'd,
 then shall the heav^{ens} record,
 That God is just, and all must bide
 the judgment of the Lord.
 7 My people now give heed,
 Israel, to thee I cry :
 I am thy God ; thy help at need,
 thou canst it not deny.
 8 I do not say to thee,
 thy sacrifice is slack :
 Thou offerst daily unto me
 much more than I do lack.
 9 Thinkst thou that I do need thy cattle young or old ?
 Or else so much desire to feed
 on goats out of thy fold ?
 10 Nay, all the beasts are mine,
 in woods that eat their fill :
 And thousands more of neer and kine
 that run wild on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high,
 on hills and out of sight :
 And beasts that in the fields do lie,
 are subject to my might.
 12 Then though I hungered sore,
 what need I ought of thine ? (re,
 Since that the earth with her great store
 and all therein is mine.
 13 To bulls flesh have I mind,
 to eat it dost thou think ?
 Or such a sweetness do I find
 the blood of goats to drink ?
 14 Give to the Lord his praises, with thanks to him apply :
 And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.
 15 Then seek and call to me, (blame :
 when ought would work thee
 And I will sure deliver thee,
 that thou mayst praise my Name.
 16 But to the wicked train,
 who talk of God each day,
 And yet their works are foul and vain,
 to them the Lord will say, 17 With what face dar^{est} thou,
 my word once speak or name ?
 Why doth thy words my law allow,
 thy deeds deny the same ?
 18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slack :
 My word, the which thou dost pretend,
 is cast behind thy back.

The third part.

19 When thou a thief dost see
 by theft to live in wealth,

B 2

With

With him thou runn'st and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile:
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.
21 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and defame: (I ye, Thy tongue doth teach to cheat and
and still doth use the same.
22 Thou studi'st to revile
thy friends to thee most near:
With slander basely dost defile
thy mother's son most dear.
23 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see Thou go'st on still and so dost think that I am like to thee.
24 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.
25 Mark this I you require,
who have not God in mind:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to find.
26 Herchar doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly ways.

PSAL. II. W. W.

O Lord, consider my distress, (take:
and now with speed some pity
My sins forgive, my faults redress,
good Lord, for thy great mercies
sake.
2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean,
from this unjust and sinfull act,
And purify me once again
from this foul crime and bloody fact.
3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge my excess:
Because my sin doth still remain
before my face without release.
4 Against thee only have I sinn'd,
and done this evil in thy sight:
And if I should no mercy find, (right.
yet were thy judgments just and 5 It is too manifest alas!
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea, of my mother so born was,
and yet, vile wretch, remain therein.
6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd, me to convert.
7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glass:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in witness shall I pass.

8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send,
that I may praise thee with my
voice,
And that my strength may now amend,
and broken bones also rejoyce.
9 Turn back thy face, and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number pass the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will,
And let thy Spirit in me rest,
which may my soul with comfort fill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy sight,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy holy Spirit,
which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those joys again,
which I was wont in thee to find:
Let me thy free Spirit retain,
which unto thee may draw my mind.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein: (low,
And men that are likewise brought
by my example shall fly sin.
14 O God, that of my health art Lord,
forgive me thus my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord,
to sing thy mercy and justice. (untie
15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue
O Lord, I do thee humbly pray:
And then my mouth shall testify (way,
thy praise and wondrous works al-16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offer'd many one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest none.
17 The heavy heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:
This sacrifice indeed is best,
and that thou chiefly dost expect.
18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.
19 Thou shalt accept our offerings
of peace and righteousness alway:
Yea, calves and many other things
upon thy altar we will lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

HAVE mercy on me, Lord after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude
do thou my sins deface.
2 Yea, wash me clean from my offence,
and my iniquity:
For I do own my faults, and still
my sin is in my eye.

Psalm LII. LHI.

- 3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case :
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face. (done)
- 4 That in the things that thou hast
upright thou mayst appear :
And when thou judgest all may see,
that thou art very clear.
- 5 In wickedness I formed was when I began to be :
My mother at the very first
in sin conceived me :
- 6 But lo, truth in the inward parts
is pleasant unto thee :
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealedst to me.
- 7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so :
Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
- 8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice :
That so the bones which thou, O Lord,
hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face :
And all my deeds of wickedness,
do utterly deface.
- 10 O God, create in me a heart
unsported in thy sight :
Within my bowels, Lord renew
a firm and stable spirit.
- 11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy Spirit quite away :
The comfort of thy saving health
give me again, I pray.
- 12 With thy true Spirit me support,
then shall transgressors be,
By my instruction and advice,
converted unto thee.

The second part.

- 13 O God, that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me :
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
- 14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose :
The praises of thy Majesty
my mouth shall then disclose
- 15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee :
But pleased with burnt offerings
I know thou wilt not be.
- 16 A spirit griev'd is sacrifice,
delightful in thy eyes :
A broken and a contrite heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.
- 17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
with Sion, and withal,
Grant that of thy Jerusalem,
uprear'd may be the wall.

- 12 Burnt-off'rings, gifts, and sacrifice,
of justice in that day, (shall)
- Thou shalt accept, and calves they upon thy altar lay.

PSAL. LII. J. H.

- Why dost thou tyrant, boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise ?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last always ?
- 2 Why dost thy mind yet still devise
such wicked wiles to waip ?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lyes,
is like a razor sharp. (mind,
- 3 On mischief why sett'st thou thy
and wilt not walk upright ?
Thou lovest more false tales to find
than bring the truth to light.
- 4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood, and wrong :
Thy lips have learn'd the flatt'ring
style,
- O false deceitful tongue ! (sound,
- 5 Therefore the Lord shall thee con-
and pluck thee from thy place,
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and utterly deface.
- 6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withal,
cry out with one accord :
- 7 Behold the man that did refuse
the Lord for his defence :
But in his riches great did place
his trust and confidence.
- 8 But I, as olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad,
Because my trust all times hath been upon the living God.
- 9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice :
I will advance thy Name always,
wherein thy saints rejoice.

PSAL. LHI. T. S.

- The foolish man within his heart
blasphemously hath said,
There is no any God at all,
why should we be afraid ?
- 2 They are corrupt, and they also
a heinous work have wrought :
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.
- 3 The Lord lookt down from heaven
upon
the sons of men below,
To see if any were that sought
the living God to know.
- 4 Out of the way they all are gone,
they all corrupted are :
There is not any that doth good,
not one for God doth care.

- 3 Do not all wicked workers know that they do feed upon My people as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.
- 6 Ev'n there they were afraid, and stood
with trembling all dismay'd,
When as there was no cause at all
why they should be afraid.
- 7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd,
hath scatter'd all abroad:
He hath confounded them, for they rejected are of God.
- 8 O Lord, give to thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfil
The promise made to Israel
from out of Zion hill.
- 9 When God his people shall restore
that once were captiv'd:
Then Jacob shall rejoice therein,
and Israel be glad.

PSAL. LIV. J. H.

- God, save me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodness sake:
Unto the strength, Lord, of the same
I do my cause betake.
- 2 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray;
Bow down thy self to me, and hear
the words that I do say.
- 3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Who have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.
- 4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is flaid,
the Lord doth ever stand.
- 5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait,
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
- 6 An off'ring of free heart and will then I to thee shall make
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort do I take.
- 7 Thou Lord, at length hast set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now my eye with joy doth see
on them my heart's desire.

PSAL. IV. J. H.

- O God, give ear, and speedily
hear me when I do pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.
- 2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again:
With grief I pray, full sore oppress,
sorrow doth me constrain.
- 3 Because my foes with threats & cries
oppress me through despite?

- And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me take delight.
- 4 For they in counsel do conspire
to charge me with some ill:
And in their hasty wrath and ire,
they do pursue me still. (bread,
- 5 My heart doth faint for want of
it panteth in my breast:
With terror and the dread of death,
my soul is much oppress'd.
- 6 Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror overwhelmeth me,
that I no shift can make.
- 7 Oh that I had wings like a dove,
then would I swiftly flee
Away from hence unto a place where I at rest should be.
- 8 Lo, then would I go far away,
to flee I would not cease:
And I would hide my self, and stay
in some great wilderness.
- 9 I would be gone with speed and haste
and nor abide behind:
Till I had safely overpast,
these blasts of boistrous wind.
- 10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull
their false and double tongue:
For I have spy'd their city full
of rapine, strife and wrong.
- 11 Both day and night they go about
within the city wall:
In midst of her is mischief wrought,
and sorrow great withal.
- 12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds they are most vile:
And in her streets there doth remain,
nothing but fraud and guile.

The second part.

- 13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:
Because from all their check and blame
somewhere I could me hide.
- 14 But thou it was, my fellow dear,
who friendship didst pretend:
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as a familiar friend.
- 15 With whom I had delight to talk,
in secret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
unto the house of God.
- 16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief doth abide in all
the places where they dwell.
- 17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will aid me speedily,
and he will succour me.

Psalm LVI. LVII.

18 At morning, noon, and evening-tide
unto the Lord I pray:

When I so constantly have cry'd,
he did not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand:

Although the number be full great,
that do against me stand. (reign,

20 The Lord that first and last doth
both now and evermore,

Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full fore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:

For why? they will not God obey,
nor fear the living Lord: (hands

22 Upon their friends they laid their
who were in cov'nant knit:

Of friendship to neglect the bands
they do not care one whit. (hearts

23 While they have war within their
as butter are their words:

And though they were as soft as oyl,
they cut as sharp as swords.

24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:

For in no wise shall he accord,
the just in thrall to see

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit,
who thirst for blood always:

He will no guileful man permit
to live out half his days. (gone

26 Tho' such be quite destroy'd and on him is all my stay:

I will depend his grace upon
with all my heart alway.

PSAL. LVI. J. H.

HAve mercy, Lord, on me I pray,
for man would me devour:

He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.

2 My foes do daily enterprize
to swallow me out-right:

To fight against me many rise,
Or thou most high of might. (fraid,

3 When they would make me fore a
with boasts and brags of pride,

I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.

4 God's promise I do mind and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee:

I do not care at all assays
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them at their will:

And all the counsel that they take,
is how to work me ill.

6 They all content themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay: (ty'd

They spy my paths, and snares have
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief's feet
thou God, on them wilt frown:

For in thy wrath thou dost not let,
to throw whole kingdoms down.

8 Thou see'st how oft they made me
flee,

and on my tears dost look:
Reserve them in a glass by thee,

and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start:

I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:

With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God the Lord and say,
as I before began,

The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart most free
my vows to God always:

And I, O Lord, all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise. (sendy

13 My soul from death thou dost de-
and keep'st my feet upright:

That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

PSAL. LVII. J. H.

TAke pity, for thy promise sake,
have mercy, Lord, on me:

Because my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.

2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my selffull fast,

Till mischief, malice, and like things,
be gone and overpast.

3 I call unto the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:

I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

4 For he from heav'n hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spite:

That to devour me have assay'd
ev'n mercy, truth, and might.

5 I lead my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:

And with such wicked men I dwell
who fret like flames of fire. (long,

6 Their teeth are spears and arrows
as sharp as I have seen: (rongue

They wound and cut with their quick
like swords and weapons keen.

7 Set up and shew thy self, O God,
above the heav'ns bright:

Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.

8 They lay their net and did prepare
a privy cave and pit,

Wherein they thought my soul to snare,
but are fall'n into it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwayes:

My heart doth ever well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp and string:
And I my self before the day
will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God,
And shew his praise that doth excel
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as far as the heav'n's all are high:

His truth as high as any star
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heav'n's most bright:
Exalt thy self on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.

PSAL. LVIII. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust
to judge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgments true and just,
regarding no man's might:

2 Nay, in your hearts ye daily muse
in mischief do consent:

And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:
And from their mother's womb alway
have used craft and lyes.

4 In them the poison and the breath
of serpents doth appear:

Yea, like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear.

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well:
No, though he were the chief of choice,
and therein did excell.

6 The teeth, O Lord, which fast are set
in their mouth round about:

The lions teeth that are so great,
do thou, Lord, break them out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth-right:

The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do turn:

As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:

The storms of anger waxing strong,
shall take them e'er they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good,
that God doth vengeance take:

And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake. (tell

11 Then shall the world shew forth and that good men have reward;

And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

PSAL. LIX. J. H.

Sead aid, and save me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord, preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:

And set me sure and safe from them,
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:

Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:

Arise, and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 Arise, O God of Israel,
smite ev'ry heathen land!

And pity none that do rebel
and in their mischief stand.

6 At night they run and seek about,
like dogs they howl also:

And all the city quite throughout,
from place to place they go.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords: (say,

They have contriv'd my death, and
there's no one hears our words.

8 But, Lord, thou hast their ways espyd,
and thou shalt them disgrace:

The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,

O Lord, doth come from thee:

Thou art, O God, my help at hand,
a fort and fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace
in great abundance still:

That I may see my foes in case
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord, lest it from mind do fall: (broad,

But with thy strength drive them a-
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words and lying tongue,
confound them in their pride:

Their wicked oaths with lyes and wrong,

let all the world deride.

Psalm LX: LXI. LXII.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world,
that Jacob's God doth reign.
14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place,
they run about and spy.
15 They seek about for meat alway,
but let them not be fed:
Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head:
16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God
in time of need alway. (staid,
17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me
O Lord, I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

PSAL. LX. J. H.

Lord, thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatter all abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
return to us, O God.
2 Thy might did move the land so fore
that it in sunder brake:
The health thereof, O Lord, restore,
for it doth bow and quake.
3 With heavy things thou plaguest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.
4 But yet to such as fear thy Name,
a banner thou dost shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.
5 So that thy might may keep and save
the folk that serveth thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord, grant this to me. (place,
6 The Lord did speak from his own
this was his joyful sound:
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and meet out Succoth's ground.
7 Gilead is given to my hand
Manasseh mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guide.
8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
ov'r Edom cast my shoe,
And thou, Philistia, ought'st to seek
to me for favour too.
9 But who will bring me at this tide
unto the city strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong? (fate, 10 Lord, wilt not thou, who didst for-
thy folk, their land and coasts,

Our wars in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor go forth with our hosts.
11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve,
from them thus disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
is all but weak and vain. (might 12 But thro' our God we shall have to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

PSAL. LXI. J. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee:
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me. (part 2 From out the coasts, and utmost
of all the earth, I cry:
In grief and anguish of my heart
to thee, O God, most high.
3 Upon the rock of thy great pow'r,
my woful mind repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tow'r,
my fence against my foes.
4 Within thy tent I long to dwell,
there ever to abide:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall me safely hide.
5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With riches great will he reward
all those that fear his Name.
6 The king shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his days:
That he from age to age may reign,
with honour great alway.
7 That he may have a dwelling-place
before the Lord alway:
O let thy mercy, truth, and grace,
defend him from decay.
8 And then, O Lord, I ever will sing praise unto thy Name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSAL. LXII. J. H.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
Because my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health, and aid:
He is my stay, and no pretence
shall make me much dismay'd.
3 Oh wicked folk, how long will ye
use craft? sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tott'ring wall.
4 Whom God doth love, ye seek always
to put him to the worse:

Ye love to lye, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
From all ill feates me to defend,
none but him I require.

6 He is my rock, my fort, and tow'r,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me that no pow'r
can move me out of place.

7 My glory and salvation deth
on him alone depend:
He is my strength, my stay, my wealth,
and still doth me defend.

8 O put your trust in him alway,
ye folk, with one accord:
Pour out your hearts to him, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a sleight; (pare,
With things most vain do them com-
for they can hold no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong, and robbery,
let vain delights be gone:
Though riches flow in suddenly,
set not your hearts thereon. (tell,

11 The Lord long since one thing did
which here to mind I call:
He spake it oft, I hear it well,
that he alone doth all, (kind,

12 And that thou, Lord, art good and thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall find
according to their deed.

PSAL. LXIII. T. S.

O God my God, I early seek to come to thee in haste:
For why? my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.

2 And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none,
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

3 That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength, and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy temple bright.

4 For why? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched days:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud, and praise.

5 And whilst I live, I will not fail
to worship thee alway:
And in thy Name I will lift up
my hands when I do pray.

6 My soul is as with marrow fill'd,
which is both fat and sweet: (songs,
My mouth therefore shall sing such as are for thee most meet.

When in my bed I think on thee,
and in the watchful night,

I under covert of thy wings
rejoyce with great delight.

8 My soul doth closely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my pow'r:
And those that seek my soul to slay,
death shall them soon devour.

9 The sword shall them devour each one:
their carcasses shall feed
The hungry foxes that do run,
their prey to seek at need.

10 The king and all men shall rejoyce,
that do profess God's word:
For liars mouths shall then be stop'd,
and all their ways abhor'd.

PSAL. LXIV. J. H.

O Lord, unto my voice give ear
when I complain and pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men who in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
who all ill feates do work. (seen,

3 Who whet their tongues as we have men whet and sharp their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.

4 They privily do shoot their shaft,
the upright man to hit:
The innocent to strike by craft,
they care or fear no wit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in council thus they cry,
To use deceit let us not dread,
for none can it espy. (muse

6 What way to hurt they talk and
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feates to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail,
when they think least thereon.
God with his dart shall sure assail
and wound them every one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withal
shall work themselves such blame,
That they who then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same. (well,

9 And all that see shall know right
that God the thing hath wrought,
And praise his wondrous works, and tell

what he to past hath brought:
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with mind and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

PSAL. LXV. T. S.

Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth reign
in Sion thine own hill:

Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and promises fulfill. (hear

2 For that thou dost their pray'rs still and thereto dost agree.

The people all both far and near,
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:

But, Lord, forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin. (chuse

4 The man is blest whom thou dost
within thy courts to dwell;

Thy house and friendship he shall use
with pleasures that excel.

5 Of thy great justice, hear, O God,
our health of thee doth rise:

The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea-coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy pow'r:

Thou mak'st the mountains strong
and stout,

to stand in every show'r.

7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage,
making them very still:

Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will. (earth

8 The folk that dwell throughout the shall dread thy signs to see:

Morning and evening with great mirth,

send praises up to thee. (dry,

and thirsteth more and more,

Then with thy drops thou dost supply,
and much increase her store.

10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring

The seed and corn, which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing. (hill,

11 With rain thou dost her furrows
whereby her clouds do fall:

Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and bless her fruit withal. (grace

12 Thou deck'st the earth of thy good
with fair and pleasant crop:

The clouds distil their due apace,
great plenty they do drop.

13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring:

The little hills shall joy therein.
much fruit in them shall spring.

14 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:

The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that they shall sing with mirth.

PSAL. LXVI. T. S.

YE men on earth, in God rejoice,
with praise set forth his Name:

Extol his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.

2 How wonderful, O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art!

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee
full sore against their heart.

3 All men that dwell the earth
shall praise the Name of God,

The land thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:

Mark well the wondrous works that he

for man to pass hath brought.

5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had

On foot to pass both fair and dry,
whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world
always,

his eyes all things behold:

All such as will him disobey,
by him shall be controll'd.

7 Ye people, give unto our God
due laud and thanks always:

With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise.

8 Who dost endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withal:

He stays our feet, so that no strife,
can make us slip or fall. (fire,

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with whether they will abide,

As workmen do, when they desire to have their metals try'd.

10 Although thou dost us suffer long
in prison to be cast, (strong,

And there with chains and fetters
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign:

Though we through fire and water run with very grief and pain: (grace

12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good dispose it to the best,

Bringing us out into a place
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray:

And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay. (spake

14 The vows that with my mouth
in all my grief and smart:

The vows, I say, which I did make
in anguish of my heart.

15 Burnt-off'rings I will give to thee
of oxen fat, and rams:

Yea, this my sacrifice shall be
of bullocks, goats, and lambs.

16 Come

16 Come forth and hearken here full soon

all ye that fear the Lord :
What he for my poor soul hath done
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry : (pace
And thou, my tongue, made'st speed to
to praise him joyfully.

18 But if I feel my heart within
in wicked works rejoice :

Or if I have delight in sin,
God will not hear my voice,

19 But surely God my voice hath heard and what I do require :

My pray'r also he doth regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of mind :

Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever find.

PSALM LXVII. J. H.

HAve mercy on us, Lord,
and grant to us thy grace :

To shew to us do thou accord
the brightness of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth :

And all the nations here below
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name :

And let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide let all rejoice with mirth : (guide
For thou with truth and right dost
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name :

And let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall,

And then our God, the God of peace,
shall ever bless us all.

7 God shall us greatly bless,
and them both far and near,

The folk which all the earth possess,
of him shall stand in fear.

PSALM LXVIII. T. S.

Let God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight :

His enemies for fear shall run,
and scatter out of sight.

2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and wind blows smok away :

So in the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily rejoice :

They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie :

Extol the great Jehovah's Name,
and him still magnify.

5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,

That father is of fatherless,
and judge of widow's case.

6 Houses and issue both he gives unto the comfortless :

He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distress. (folk,

7 When thou didst march before thy
th' Egyptians ran among,

And brought'st them thro the wilderness,

which was both wide and long.

8 The earth did shake, the heav'ns did drop,

great thunder claps were heard :
Mount Sinai also moved was when Israel's God appear'd.

9 Thy heritage with drops of rain,
abundantly was wash'd :

And if so be it barren was,
by thee it was refresh'd. (main,

10 Thy chosen flock doth there re-
thou hast prepar'd that place :

And for the poor thou dost provide
of thy especial grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just
to magnifie his Name,

When as his people triumphs make
and purchase mighty fame.

12 Puissant kings for all their pow'r,
shall flee and take the foil,

And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil. (pots,

13 And though ye were as black as your hue shall pass the dove,

Whose wings and feathers seem to 14 When in this land God shall ov'r kings both high and low,

Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as is the snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitful hill,
and in height others pass :

Yet Zion, God's most holy hill,
doth far excel in grace. (high,

16 Why leap ye thus, ye hills most
and thus in pride do swell?

The hill of Zion God doth love,
and there will ever dwell.

17 God's army twenty thousand is of angels great and strong :

The-

Psalm LXXIX.

The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.
18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captive led them all,
Who in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage did ithrall.
19 Thou hast received gifts for men,
ev'n for thy enemies :
Unto the end that God the Lord
might dwell with them likewise.
20 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace ;
From day to day he is the God
both of our health and peace.

The third part.

21 He is the God from whom alone
salvation we obtain ;
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.
22 And he shall wound the head of all his enemies ; also
The hairy scalp of such as on
in wickedness still go.
23 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep :
And all my own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep. (blood 24 And make them dip their feet in
of those that hare my Name :
The tongues of dogs they shall be fed
with licking of the same.
25 Thy goings they have seen, O God,
unto their own disgrace :
How thou, my God and King, dost go
within thy holy place.
26 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels make no stay :
And in the midst the damsels do
with timbrels sweetly play.
27 Now in the congregations, thou,
O Israel, praise the Lords :
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.
28 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host :
With Zebulun and Naphtalim,
who dwelt about their coast.
29 Thy God hath sent forth strength
for thee,
O God, make firm and sure (us,
The thing that thou hast wrought in
for ever to endure.
30 Then in thy temple gifts will we offer to thee, O Lord :
And in thy own Jerusalem
praise thee with one accord.

The fourth part.

31 Yea, and strange kings by us sub-du'd,
shall do like in those days :

For unto thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.
32 He shall destroy the spearman's
ranks,
the calves and bulls of might :
And make them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.
33 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :
The Moors also stretch out their hands : earth,
to God their Lord and King.
34 Therefore ye kingdoms of the give praise unto the Lord :
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord :
35 For he doth ride, and ever dill,
above the heav'ns most bright :
And by his fearful thunder-claps,
men may well know his might.
36 Therefore the strength of Israel ascribe to God on high, (tend Whose might and pow'r doth far ex-
above the cloudy sky.
37 O God, thy holiness and pow'r
is dread for evermore :
The God of Israel gives us strength,
therefore his Name adore.

PSAL. LXXIX. J. H.

SAVE me, O God, and that with speed ;
because the waters do
So very nigh my soul proceed,
and enter thereinto.
2 I sink full deep in mire and clay,
where I can feel no ground :
And in deep waters where I may
most suddenly be drown'd.
3 With crying I am weary ; lo,
my throat is hoarse and dry :
My sight doth fail, looking also
for help to God on high.
4 My foes that guiltless do oppress
my soul, with hate are led :
In number sure they are no less than hairs upon my head.
5 Tho' for no cause they vex me fore,
they prosper and are glad :
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.
6 What I thro' my simplicity
have done, Lord, thou canst tell :
And all my faults or privacy
to thee are known full well.
7 O God of hosts, defend and stay
all those that trust in thee :
Let no man doubt or shrink away
for ought that chanceth me.
8 It is for thee, and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame :
In spite to thee, they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mother's sons, my brethren all,
 reject me with disgrace:
 And as a stranger they me call,
 they will not know my face.
 10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
 that it doth vex me much: (hear,
 Their checks and taunts at thee to my very heart doth touch.

The second part.

11 Tho' I do fast my flesh to tame,
 yea, if I weep and moan;
 I am reproached for the same
 by scorners ev'ry one.
 12 If I for grief and pain of heart
 in sackcloth use to walk, Reproachfully they it pervert, thereof they jest and talk. (throng 13 Both high and low, and all the
 that sit within the gate,
 They have me ever in their tongue,
 of me they talk and prate.
 14 They that sit in the gate, with spite against me all agree:
 The drunkards that in wine delight
 do make their songs of me.

15 But unto thee, O Lord, I pray,
 that when it pleaseth thee.
 For thy great truth thou wilt alway
 send down thy aid to me. (mire, 16 Pluckt thou my feet out of the
 from drowning do me keep:
 From such as owe me wrath and ire,
 and from the waters deep.

17 Lest & the waves I should be drown'd
 and depth my soul devour:
 And lest the pit should me confound,
 and shut me in her pow'r.

18 O Lord of hosts, to me give ear,
 as thou art good and kind;
 And as thy mercy is most dear,
 Lord, have me in thy mind.

19 And do not from thy servant hide
 nor turn thy face away;
 I am oppress'd on ev'ry side,
 in haste give ear, I pray.

20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh,
 the same with aid repose;
 Because of their great tyranny
 acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
 thou know'st and thou canst tell:
 For those that seek & work the same,
 thou see'st them all full well.

22 When with reproach they break
 my heart:

some help I fain would see;
 But find no friends to ease my smart,
 not one to comfort me.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
 too cruel for to think;

And gave me in my thirst withal
 strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord, turn their table to a snare,
 to take themselves therein:
 And when they think full well to fare,
 then trap them in their gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
 that they may nothing see: (find Bow down their backs, and let them themselves in thrall to be.

26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
 that it on them may fall:
 Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
 take hold upon them all.

27 As desarts dry their house disgrace,
 their seed do thou expell:
 That none thereof possess their place,
 nor in their tents do dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
 on him they lay full sore:
 And if that thou do wound the same,
 they seek to hurt him more. (still,

29 Then let them heap up mischief
 since they are all pervert;
 That of thy favour and good will they never have a part. (book

30 And raise them clean out of thy
 of life, of hope, of trust:
 That for their names they never look
 in number of the just.

The fourth part.

31 Tho' I, O Lord, with pain and grief
 have been full sore oppress'd:
 Thy help shall give me such relief,
 that all shall be redress'd. (praise

32 That I may give thy Name the
 that doth to thee be'long:
 I will extoll the same alway
 with a thanksgiving song,

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
 such mind thy grace hath born,
 Than either ox or calf can be,
 that hath both hoof and horn.

34 When simple folk do this behold,
 it shall rejoyce them sure:
 All ye that seek the Lord, your life
 for ever shall endure. (hear

35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth
 the poor when they complain:
 His pris'ners are to him full dear,
 he doth them not disdain.

36 Wherefore the sky and earth below,
 the sea with flood and stream:
 His praise they shall declare and show,
 with all that live in them.

37 For sure our God will Sion save,
 and Judah's cities build:
 Much folk possession there shall have,
 her streets shall all be fill'd. (same

38 His servants seed shall keep the
 all ages out of mind:

And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling-place shall find.

PSAL. LXX. J. H.

O God, to me take heed,
I help of thee require :
O Lord of hosts with haste and speed
help me, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all,
that seek my soul to spill :
Let them be turned back and fall,
that think and wish me ill.

3 Let them rewarded be with infamy and shame,
Who when harm happens unto me,
do triumph at the same.

4 But let them joyful be in thee with joy and wealth,
Who only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may say always
in mirth and one accord.
All glory, honour, laud, and praise
be given to the Lord.

6 But I am weak and poor,
come, Lord, thy aid I lack :
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slack.

PSAL. LXXI. J. H.

MY Lord my God, in all distress
my hope is whole in thee :
Then let no shame my soul oppress,
nor once take hold on me.

2 As thou art just, defend me, Lord,
and rid me out of dread :
Give ear, and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may,
for aid all times resort
Thy promises to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their strength and pow'r :
From folk unjust, and also them
that cruelly devour.

5 Thou art the stay whereon I rest,
thou Lord of hosts, art he :
Ev'n from my youth I thought it best
still to depend on thee : (birth,

6 Thou hast me kept ev'n from my
and I thro' thee was born :
Wherefore I will thee praise & mirth,
both ev'ning and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng :
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid most strong.

8 Wherefore my mouth for ever shall be filled with thy praise :
Also my tongue shall never fail
to honour thee alway.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I pray,
when age my limbs doth take :
And when my strength doth waste away,

do not my soul forsake.
10 Among themselves my foes enquire
to take me through deceit :
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hands upon him now, they said,
for God from him is gone :
Dispatch him quite for to his aid
most sure there cometh none.

12 Do not withdraw thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be :
But that in time of grief I may have speedy help from thee.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Suppress them with rebuke also
that vain would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assays : (tide, Still more and more each time and I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send :
For thy great benefits, O Lord,
no numbers have, nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek for one
with thy good help, O God,
The saving health of thee alone
to shew an set abroad. (care,

17 For of my youth thou took'st the
and dost instruct me still :
Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great mind and will.

18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didst me keep and stay :
Forlake me not in mine old age,
and when my head is gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may show
to them that now be here : (know
And that our seed thy pow'r may hereafter many year.

20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see :
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
O who is like to thee ! (fore,

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction
and yet thou didst me save :
Yea, thou didst help and me restore,
and took'st me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintain :

Yea

Yea, thou didst make all grief to cease,
and comfort 'st me again. (praise

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to
I will with viol sing:

My harp shall sound thy laud always,
O Israel's holy King. (voice,

24 My mouth shall joy with pleasant
when I shall sing to thee:

Also my soul will much rejoyce,
for thou hast set me free. (sound,

25 My tongue thy righteousness shall
I daily speak it will: (found

For grief and shame do them con-
that seek to work me ill.

PSAL. LXXII. J. H.

Lord, give thy judgments to the king:

wherein instruct him well:

And with his son in ev'ry thing,

Lord, let thy justice dwell,

2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk with right:

And so defend with equity
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace:

Let little hills also apply
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them strong:

And so destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.

5 And them from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:

So long as sun doth shine by day
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord, make the king unto thee just,
like rain to fields new mown:

And like to drops that lay the dust,
refreshing land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his day,
and all shall be at peace,

Until the moon shall cease always
to change, waste, or increase.

8 He shall be Lord; and have command
from shore to shore throughout:

And from the floods within the land,
thro' all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneel to him full thick:

And all his foes that do rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The lords of all the isles also great gifts to him shall bring:

Arabia and Saba's kings
give many costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seek with one accord
in his good grace to stand:

And all the people of the world
obey at his command.

12 For he the needy sore doth save
that unto him do call:

Also the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poor
that are with need oppress:

He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread, (might:

from fraud, from wrong and
Also their blood that shall be shed,

is precious in his sight. (bring

15 But he shall live, and they shall
to him of Saba's gold:

He shall be honour'd as a king,
and daily be extol'd.

16 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bring such throng,

That it like cedar-trees shall stand
in Libanus full long.

17 Their cities also well shall speed,
the fruits thereof surpass:

In plenty it shall so exceed,
and spring as green as grass.

18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the sun is light:

And think them happy thro' the same,
all folk shall bless his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israel's God each one:

For he doth ev'ry wondrous thing,
yea, he him self alone.

20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally:

Let all the earth still praise the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. LXXIII. T. S.

TRuly, the Lord is very good and kind to Israel:

And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.

2 But as for me, I almost slept,
my feet began to slide:

Before that I was well aware,
my steps did turn aside.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd with great disdain, (have

That wicked men all things should without turmoil and pain.

4 They never suffer pains nor grief,
as if death should them smite:

Their bodies are full stout and strong,
and ever in good plight.

5 Always free from adversity
and ev'ry sad event:

With other men they take no part of plague or punishment. (brace

6 Therefore presumption doth em-
their necks as doth a chain:

They're

They're even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.
7 They are so fed, that ev'n with fat
their eyes oft-times out start:
And as for worldly goods they have more than can with their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious, and they boast much with their tongue,
How they the poor and simple have oppressed with great wrong.
9 They set their mouth against the heav'ns,
and do the Lord blaspheme:
They proudly boast of worldly things,
no one they do esteem.
10 God's people often do turn back
to see their prosperous state:
And almost drink the self same cup,
and talk at the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
should know or understand (men
These worldly things, since wicked
be lords of sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches will increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.
13 Then why do I so carefully
from wickedness refrain?
And wash my hands in innocence,
and cleanse my heart in vain?
14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:
And ev'ry morning from my youth
sustain rebuke and shame.
15 Now I had almost said as they,
misliking my estate:
But that I should thy children judge
as most unfortunate.
16 Then I be thought me how I might
this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand.
17 Until the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.
18 Namely, how that thou settest them
upon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them soon deface. (sight, 19 Then all men muse at that strange to see how suddenly
They do consume, perish and come to endless misery. (wakes,

so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous Names in all mens sight
shall fail and pass away.

The third part.

21 Yet, thus my heart was grieved
then,
my mind was much oppressed:
So simple and so ignorant,
ev'n as it were a beast.
22 Nevertheless by my right hand
thou hold'st me always fast:
And with thy counsel shalt me guide,
to glory at the last.
23 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heav'n above?
And in the earth there nothing is like thee that I can love.
24 My flesh and spirit both do fail,
but God will me restore:
For of my heart he is the strength,
and portion evermore.
25 But lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing,
saving in thee alone.
26 Therefore will I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
his wonders I will tell.

W Hy art thou, Lord, so long from us
in all this danger deep?
Why doth thy anger kindle thus
at thy own pasture-sheep?
3 Lord, call the people to thy thought,
which have been thine so long.
The w^h thou hast redeem'd & brought from bondage sore and strong.
3 Have mind therefore, & think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet, and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Who now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.
5 Amidst the congregations all thy foes do roar, O God:
They set as signs on ev'ry wall
banners display'd abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of those within thy temple now.
7 The cieling fine, and carved boards,
with all the gooly stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords,
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
their rage doth so abound:
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze ev'n to the ground.
9 And thus they say within their heart,
Disparch them out of hand:
Then

Then burn they up in ev'ry part
 God's houses thro' the land.
 20 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
 our prophets all are gone,
 To tell when this our plague shall end
 among us there is none.

 thus boldly thee defame?
 Shall they for evermore blaspheme thy great and holy Name? (draw against thy enemies;

PSALM LXXV. J. H.

TO thee, O God, will we give thanks;
 we will give thanks to thee:
 Since thy Name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.
 2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
 The earth is weak, and all therein,
 but I her pillars stay.
 3 I did to the mad people say,
 Deal not so furiously:
 And unto the ungodly ones,
 Lift not your horns on high.
 4 I said unto them, Set not up your raised horns on high:
 And see that with stiff neck you do not speak presumptuously.

 himself will pour abroad.
 8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
 The wicked of the earth shall drink
 and suck them every whit.
 9 But I will talk of God always,
 and his great Name adore:
 And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.

 ungodly men will I:
 But then the horns of righteous men
 shall be exalted high.

As half asleep their chariots stood,
no horseman once did move.

I With my voice to God did cry
who lent a gracious ear:
My voice I lifted up on high,
and he my suit did hear.
2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.
3 When I to think of God intend,
my trouble then is more,
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou dost my eyes so hold from rest
that I always awake:
With fear I am so sore oppress,
my speech did me forsake.
5 The days of old in mind I cast,
and oft do think upon
The times and ages that are past,
full many years agoe.

6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I find,
my spirit's search to know.
7 Will God, said I, at once, for all,
cast off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?
8 What is his goodness quite decay'd,
and passed clean away?
Or is his promise now delay'd,
and doth his truth decay?
9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?

my own infirmity:
But his right hand can help all this,
and change it speedily.

thy lightnings from above,

11 What wonders to our fore-fathers
did he himself disclose

In Egypt-land, within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?

through which he made a way

For them to pass and on a heap
the waters made to stay.

13 He led them secret in a cloud,
by day when it was bright:

And in the night when it was dark,
with fire he gave them light.

14 He clave the rocks and wilderness,
and gave the people drink:

As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

15 He drew forth rivers out of rocks,
that were both dry and hard:

In such abundance that no floods
to them might be compar'd.

16 Yet for all this, against the Lord
their sin they did increase:

And did provoke the most Highest
to wrath in wilderness. (God,

17 And in their hearts they tempted

where all their tents did stand.

How did they move and stir him up to plague them with his stroke:

and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man as well as beast.

46 He smote also all the first-born that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of man and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

did them preserve and keep:

and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

51 Yet for all this, the God most high
they mov'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.

52 But as their fathers turned back,
ev'n so they went astray:
Much like a bow that will not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

53 And griev'd him with their hill
altars,
with offerings and fire:
And with their idols grievously
provoked him to ire.

54 For which his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast:
The wickedness of Israel
he did so must detest.

58 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:

And

And not a widow left alive
 their death for to bemoan.
 59 Then did the Lord awake as one whom sleep could not confine :
 And like a mighty giant that refreshed is with wine.
 60 With emiroids in the hinder parts
 his enemies he smote :
 And put them unto such a shame,
 as should not be forgot.
 61 The tent and tabernacle he
 of Joseph did refuse :
 Also the tribe of Ephraim,
 he would in no wise chuse.
 62 But he the tribe of Judah chose
 that he therein might dwell :
 Ev'n the most noble mount Sion,
 which he did love so well.
 63 And there he did his temple build,
 both sumptuously and sure :
 Like as the earth which he hath made
 for ever to endure.
 64 Then chose he David him to serve
 his people for to keep :
 Whom he took up and brought away,
 ev'n from the folds of sheep.
 65 From following the ewes & young,
 the Lord did him advance
 To feed his people Israel
 and his inheritance.
 66 Then David with a faithfull heart
 his flock and charge did feed :
 And prudently with all his pow'r
 did govern them indeed.

PSAL. LXXIX. J. H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade
 thy heritage to spoil :
 Jerusalem a heap is made,
 thy temple they defile.
 2 The bodies of thy saints most dear
 abroad to birds they cast :
 The flesh of them that do thee fear,
 the beasts devour and waste.
 3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
 as water spilt they have :
 So that there is not one of them
 to lay their dead in grave.
 4 Thus are we made a laughing-stock
 almost the world throughout :
 The enemies at us do mock
 who dwell our coasts about.
 5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou retain thy anger and thy rage ?
 And shall thy wrath and jealousy
 not any more assuage ?
 6 Upon these people pour the same
 who did thee never know :
 The realms that call not on thy Name,
 consume and overthrow.
 7 For they have got the upper-hand,
 and Jacob's seed destroy'd :

His habitation and his land
 they have laid waste and void.
 8 Bear not in mind our former faults,
 with speed some pity show
 And aid us, Lord, in our assaults,
 for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God, that giv'st all health and grace,
 on us declare the same.
 Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
 for honour of thy Name.
 10 Why shall the wicked thus alway,
 to us as people dumb,
 In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
 Where is their God become ?
 11 Require, O Lord, as thou seest good,
 before our eyes in sight,
 Of all these folk thy servants blood
 which they spilt in despite.
 12 Receive into thy sight in haste,
 the clamours, grief and wrong,
 Of such as are in prison cast,
 and bound in irons strong.
 13 Thy force and strength to celebrate,
 Lord, set them out of band :
 Who unto death are destinate,
 and in their foes strong hand. (bold, 14 The nations which have been so
 as to blaspheme thy Name,
 Into their laps do thou seven fold
 repay again the same.
 15 So we thy flock and pasture-sheep
 will praise thee evermore :
 And teach all ages how to keep
 for thee like praise in store.

PSAL. LXXX. J. H.

THOU Shepherd, that dost I s'r'el keep,
 give ear and take good heed :
 Who leadest Joseph like a sheep,
 and dost him watch and feed.
 2 And thou, O Lord, whose seat is set on cherubims most bright, Shew forth thy self, and do not let,
 send down thy beams of light.
 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
 Manasse in likewise
 To shew thy pow'r do thou begin,
 come help us, Lord, arise.
 4 Direct our hearts by thy good grace,
 convert us unto thee :
 Shew us the brightness of thy face,
 and then full safe are we.
 5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
 how long wilt thou delay :
 Against thy folk in anger swell,
 and wilt not hear them pray ?
 6 Thou dost them feed & sorrows deep
 their bread with grief they eat :
 And drink the tears that they do weep,
 in measure full and great.

Psalme LXXXI.

7 Thou hast made us a very strife
to those that dwell about :
Which much doth please our enemies,
they laugh and jest it out.
8 O take us, Lord, unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee :
Shew forth to us thy joyful face,
and we full safe shall be.
9 From Egypt, where it grew not well,
thou brought'st a vine full dear :
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set its roots full fast,
That it did grow and spring apace
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were cover'd roundabout,
with shades that from it came :
Also the cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same. (stroy, 12 Why then didst thou her walls de-
her hedge pluck up thou hast :
That all the folk that pass thereby
the same do spoil and waste?
13 The boar out of the wood so wild
doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.
14 O Lord, of hosts, return again,
from heav'n do thou look down :
Behold, and with thy help sustain,
thy vineyard overthrowen.
15 Thy pleasant vine, thy Israel,
which thy right hand hath set,
The same which thou didst love so
O Lord do not forget. (well, 16 They lop and cut it off apace,
they burn it down with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.
17 Let thy right hand be with him now,
whom thou hast kept so long,
And with the son of man, whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame :
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name. (grace, 19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good
convert us unto thee :
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

PSAL. LXXXI. J. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce,
who is our strength and stay :
Be joyful, and lift up your voice
to Jacob's God alway.
2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyful Psalm to sing :

Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on ev'ry pleasant string.
3 Blow as it were in the new-moon,
with trumpets of the best :
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.
4 For this is unto Israel
a statute, which was made By Jacob's God, and must full well
be evermore obey'd.
5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.
6 When God himself had so prepar'd,
to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not understand.
7 I from his shoulder took (saith he)
the burden clean away :
And from the furnace set him free,
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I helpt thee speedily :
And I did answer thee withal
in thunder from on high 9 Yea, at the waters of Discord
I did thee tempt and prove :
Where thou the anger of the Lord
with murmuring didst move.
10 Heare, O my people Israel,
what I do promise thee :
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.
The second part.
11 Thou shalt no god in thee reserve,
of any land abroad :
And in no wise bow to or serve
a strange and foreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.
13 But yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake :
And Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardness of their heart :
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they did pervert.
15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say,
And Israel with due regard had walked in my way! (foes, 16 I should have soon destroy'd their
and brought them down full low :
And turn'd my hand against all those
that sought their overthrow.
17 And they that at the Lord did rage,
as liars should be found:

C

But

But for his folk, their time and age,
should with great joy be crown'd.
18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills might eat.

PSAL. LXXXII. J. H.

Among the princes, men of might,
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.
2 How long, saith he, will you proceed,
false judgment to award?
Why have ye partially agreed
the wicked to regard?
3 Whereas of right ye should defend
the fatherless and weak,
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgment justly speak.
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws,
of tyrants force and might.
5 They will not learn nor understand
but still in darkness go:
All the foundations of the land
are out of course also.
6 I had decreed assuredly,
as gods to take you all:
Children also of the most High,
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, you destroy will I,
and pluck you quire away. (known,
8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be
and judge the world with might,
For why? all nations are thy own
to take them as thy right.

PSAL. LXXXIII. J. H.

Do not, O God, refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.
2 For why? behold thy foes, and see,
how they do rage and crie:
And those that bear a hate to thee,
hold up their head on high.
3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily enquire:
Fortune elect to lie in wait
in counsel they conspire.
4 Come on, say they, let us expel
and pluck their folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.
5 They all conspire within their hearts,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites likewise:

The Hagarens and Moabites
their plots do still devise.

7 Gebal and Ammon do likewise
with Amalek conspire:

The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur is also joyn'd to them,
in their conspiracy:

And doth become a fence and aid
to Lot's posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
to serve them Lord, each one:

To Jabin and to Sisera,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy and waste them through thy might:

That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appear

like Zeb and Oreb then:
As Zeba and Zalmunna were,

the kings of Midian. (land

12 Who said, Let us throughout the
in all the coasts abroad.

Possess and take into our hand,
the fair houses of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with storms so fast
as wheels that have no stay:

Or like the chaff which men do cast
with winds to fly away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mighty forest spills:

And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath,
upon their necks be laid:

And of thy wind and stormy breath,
Lord, make them all afraid.

16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame:

That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them daily more and more
to shame and slander fall:

And in rebuke and obloquy
confound and sink them all.

18 That they may know and understand
thou art the God most High:

And that thou dost with mighty hand
the world rule constantly.

PSAL. LXXXIV. J. H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts, to me?

The tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleasant, Lord, they be?

2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:

Psalm LXXXV. LXXXVI.

My heart and flesh cry out also
for thee the living God.

3 The sparrows find a room to rest,
and save themselves from wrong :

The swallow also hath a nest,
wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thy altar may have place to sit and sing :

O Lord of hosts, thou art alway
my only God and King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always !

For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art :

Which to thy house do mind the way
and seek it in their heart.

7 As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still :

That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill. (fast)

8 From strength to strength they go full no faintness there shall be :

And so the God of gods at last
in Sion they do see.

9 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and hearken to my cry :

And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacob's God most high.

10 O God our shield, of thy good grace regard and so draw near :

Regard, O Lord, behold the face
of thy anointed dear.

11 For why ? within thy courts one day,
is better to abide :

Than other where to keep or stay
a thousand days beside.

12 Much rather had I keep a door
within the house of God :

Than in the tents of wickedness
to settle my abode.

13 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give :

And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.

14 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,

That is perswaded in his breast
to trust all times in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV. J. H.

Thou hast been merciful indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land :

For thou restoredst Jacob's seed
from thralldom by strong hand.

2 The wicked ways that they were in thou didst them clean remit :

And thou didst hide thy people's sin,
full close thou cover'dst it.

3 And thou thy anger didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone :

And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God our health, do thou convert thy people unto thee :

Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Shall thy fierce anger never end,
but still be pour'd on us ?

And shall thy wrath itself extend unto all ages thus ?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn again
and quicken us, that we

And all thy folk that yet remain
may glad and joyful be ?

7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth :

Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thy aid and saving health.

8 I'll hear what God the Lord doth say,
to his he speaketh peace :

And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.

9 For why ? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear :

Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place :

And peace shall justice with kifs greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 Truth from the earth shall spring apace,

and flourish pleasantly :

So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven most high.

12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing :

And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go,
much like a guide or stay :

He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

PSAL. LXXXVI. T. S.

Lord, bow thine ear to my request,
and hear me speedily,

For with great pain and grief oppress'd
full poor and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be :

And save thy servant, O my God,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy upon me express,
and me defend alway :

For through the day I do not cease
to thee, O Lord, to pray.

4 Comfort, thy servant's soul, I pray,
that now with pain is pin'd :

For unto thee I do alway
list up my soul and mind.

5 For thou art good and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free :
Also thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord, likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear :
Mark well the words that I do say,
all my petitions hear.
7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain :
For why ? I know, and well do prove thou answer'st me again.
8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none
with thee to be compar'd :
And none can do as thou hast done,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The gentiles, and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.
10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own :
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.
11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed :
O joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.
12 To thee I will give thanks and praise, O Lord, with all my heart,
And glorifie thy Name always,
because my God thou art.
13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me,
is great, and doth excell :
Thou sett'st my soul at liberty
out from the lowest hell.
14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might :
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.
15 Thou, Lord, art merciful and kind,
but very slow to wrath :
Thy goodness is full great I find,
thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turn to me, and mercy show,
thy strength to me apply :
O help, and save thy servant now,
thy hand-maid's son am I.
17 On me some sign of favour show,
that all my foes may see,
And be asham'd, because that thou
dost help and comfort me.

PSAL. LXXXVII. J. H.

That city shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay,
Upon the holy hills full sure
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide :

He loves them more than all the rest of Jacob's tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad :

Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou city of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same ;

To Babylon also apply,
and them that know thy Name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise :

A people old, and long ago
were born, and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame

Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall
by him be made appear,

Of Sion, that the chief of all
had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters, with such as sing,
there in great plenty be :

My fountains and my pleasant springs
are all contain'd in thee.

PSAL. LXXXVIII. J. H.

Lord, God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me :

I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my pray'r with speed ascend unto thy sight on high :

Incline thy ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd
and doth in trouble dwell :

My life and breath doth almost yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall :

And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain :

It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot :

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure
within the lowest pit,

In darksome place, and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thy anger and thy wrath likewise,
full sore on me do lie :

And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and try.

9 Thou putt'st my friends far off from
and mak'st them hate me sore :

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more. (wo,
10 My sight doth fail: through grief and I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare,
thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?
12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be shewed in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroy'd,
thy truth her honour have?
13 Shall they that lie in darkful low,
see all thy wonders great?
Or there, shall they thy justice know,
where men all things forget?
14 But I, O Lord, to thee always,
do cry; and call apace:
My pray'r also, e'er it be day,
shall come before thy face.
15 Why dost thou Lord, abhor my soul,
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
16 I am afflicted, dying still,
from youth many a year:
Thy terrors, which do work me ill,
with troubled mind I bear.
17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full sore upon me lie:
Thy terrors they do not assuage,
but press me heavily.
18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full great,
beset me on each side.
19 Thou settest far from me my friends,
and lovers every one:
Yea, and my old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

PSAL. LXXXIX. J. H.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare:
My mouth from age to age accord,
thy truth for to declare.
2 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore endure:
Thy faithfulnefs in th' heavens all
is stablish'd firm and sure.
3 With mine elect, faith God, have I
a faithful cov'nant made:
And sworn to David solemnly,
having to him thus said:
4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast;
And still uphold thy throne away,
from age to age to last.

5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord,
The saints within the church on earth
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of gods or men,
what one is like our God?
7 God in assembly of the saints
is greatly to be dread.

And over all that dwell about,
in rev'rence to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?

On ev'ry side, most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

9 The rage and fury of the sea
thou rulest at thy will:

And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.

10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdu'd,
thou hast destroy'd it quite:

Thy foes thou closely hast pursu'd,
and scatter'd thro' thy might.

The second part.

11 The heav'ns are thine, and still have been,
likewise the earth and land:

The world, and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand. (west,

12 Both north and south, with east and
thy self didst make and frame:

Both Tabor mount, and Hermon hill,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.

13 Thy arm is strong and full of pow'r,
all might therein doth lie:

The strength of thy right hand each hour
thou liftest up on high.

14 In righteousness and equity,
thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knoweth right,
the joyful sound, O God:

For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad,

16 And in thy Name throughout the day
they greatly do rejoyce:

And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:

And thy goodness, which hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high,

18 Our strength that doth defend us well,
the Lord to us doth bring:

The Holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and king.

19 Sometimes thy will to holy men
in visions thou didst show:

And thus didst say unto them then,
thy mind to make them know :
20 A man of might I have erect,
your King and guide to be :
And set him up whom I elect
among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I appoint to rule my people well :
And with my holy oyl anoint
him king of Israel.
22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain :
And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.
23 The enemies shall not oppress,
they shall not him devour :
Nor shall the sons of wickedness,
on him have any power.
24 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight;
Those that him hate I will annoy,
and strike them with my might.
25 My truth and mercy shall likewise,
upon him ever lie :
And in my Name his horn shall rise
and be exalted high.
26 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land :
27 As the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
28 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My Father, and my God thou art
my rock, my health, and stay.
29 As my first-born I will him count
of all on earth that springs :
His might and honour shall surmount,
above all earthly kings.
30 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told :
My faithfull cov'nant to fulfill
my promise I will hold.
31 Also his seed I will sustain forever strong and sure :
So that his seed shall still remain
while heav'n and earth endure.

The fourth part.

32 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve,
And of my judgments have no awe,
and will not them observe :
33 Or if they do not use aright
my laws for them prepar'd :
But set all my commandments light,
and will not them regard :
34 Then with the rod, will I begin their doings to amend,
And so will scourge them for their sin,
whenever they offend.

34 But yet my mercy and goodness
I will not take away
From him, nor let my faithfulness
in any wise decay.
35 But sure my cov'nant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke :
No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.
36 Once sware I by my holiness,
and that perform will I :
With David I shall promise keep,
to him I will not lie.
37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
also his throne of might :
As doth the sun it shall remain
for ever in my sight.
38 And as the moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast,
A faithfull witness from on high,
so shall his kingdom last.
39 But, Lord, thou dost him now reject,
and put him in great fear :
Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thy own anointed dear.
40 The cov'nant with thy servant made thou hast quite overthrowen :
And down upon the ground hast laid,
and cast his royal crown.

The fifth part.

41 His hedges thou hast overthrowen,
his walls destroy'd quite round :
All his strong holds hast beaten down,
and levelld with the ground.
42 That he is sore destroy'd, and torn of comers by throughout :
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast arm'd
with pow'r,
that him so sore annoy :
And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou hast made to joy. (away, 44 His sword's edge thou dost take that should his foes withstand :
To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
45 His glory thou dost all to waste,
his throne, his joy, and mirth,
By thee is overthrowen and cast
full low upon the earth. (short 46 Thou hast cut off, and made full
his youth and joyful days :
And rais'd of him an ill report,
to his shame and dispraise.
47 How long away from me therefore,
forever wilt thou turn ?
And shall thy anger ever more like fire consume and burn ?
48 O call to mind, remember then,
my time consumeth fast :

Why hast thou made the sons of men,
as things in vain, to waste?
49 What man is he that liveth, and death never thinks to see?
Or from the grave's devouring hand
shall he his soul set free? (ne's, 50 Where is, O Lord, thy great good-
so oft declar'd before?
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast swore?
51 The great rebukes to mind I call,
that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all
born in my breast have I.
52 Wherewith, O Lord, thy enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thy anointed one
they cease not to defame.
53 All praise be given unto thee,
O God the Lord most high,
From this time forth for evermore,
Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. XC. J. H.

THOU Lord hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest,
In all times past, yea, so long since
as cannot be exprest.
1 Before was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always still,
for ever thou art God. (and pain,
3 Thou grindest man through grief
to dust, or clay, and then,
Thou unto them dost say again,
Return ye sons of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear
or as a watch by night.
5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade,
Ev'n as a sleep, or like the grass,
whose beauty soon doth fade:
6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth suddenly,
And is cut down before the night,
all wither'd, dead, and dry.
7 For through thy anger we consume,
our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath, O Lord,
we are full sore afraid. (wrought, 8 The wicked works which we have thou set'st before thine eye:
Our privy faults, yea, all our thoughts,
thy countenance doth spie. (waste, 9 For through thy wrath our days do thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as doth or blasts
and are not call'd again.

10 The time of our abode on earth
is threescore years and ten:
But if we come to fourscore years,
our life is grievous then.
The second part.
11 For of this time the strength & chief
we dote so much upon,
Is nothing else but pain and grief,
and we as blasts are gone. (and 12 What man doth know what power,
what might thy anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?
13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try
how long our days remain,
That so we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou
in thy great wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
then shall we joyful be:
All times as long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore
affliction we have had.
17 O let thy work and pow'r appear,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear
thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord, let thy grace and glory stand
on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
and prosper them to us.

PSAL. XCI. J. H.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell,
Under the shadow of his grace,
he shall be safe and well. (hold,
2 Thou art my hope, and my strong
I to the Lord will say:
My God he is, in him will I
my whole affiance stay 3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
and sure as shield and spear.
5 So that thou never shalt have cause
to fear, or be affright,
For all the shafts that flie by day,
or terrors of the night.
6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in darkness fast:

Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon-day doth waste.

7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be :

Ten thousand more at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thy eyes shall well regard ;

According unto their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why ? O Lord, I only rest,
and fix my hope on thee :

In the most High I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 No evil thou shalt need to fear,
with thee it shall go well :

No plague shall ever once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why ? unto his angels all
with charge commanded he,

That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon ;

Lest that thy foot should happen for
to dash against a stone.

13 Upon the lion thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long :

On the young lions tread also,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 Because he sets his love on me,
I'll save him by my might :

And him advance, because that he doth know my name aright.

15 When he for help to me doth cry,
an answer I will give :

And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of days, and years I
him fully satisfy :

And also my salvation still shew him assuredly.

PSAL. XCII. J. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet
to praise the highest Lord :

And to thy Name, O thou most High,
to sing with one accord.

2 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
before the day be light :

And to declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten stringed instrument,
on lute and harp so sweet,

With all the mirth you can invent
of Instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee,

That I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are thy works round about :

So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can find them out.

6 The man unwise cannot tell how this work to pass does bring :

And fools also are most unfit
to understand this thing.

7 When as the wicked at their will like grass do spring full fast,

And when they flourish in their ill,
they suddenly shall waste.

8 But thou art mighty, Lord most high,
and thou dost reign therefore,

In glory and great Majesty,
both now and evermore.

9 Behold, O Lord, thy enemies
shall be destroyed away :

And all that work iniquity
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou, like as an unicorn,
shall lift my horn on high :

With fresh and new prepared oyl
anointed king am I.

11 And of my foes, before my eyes,
shall see the fall and shame :

Of all that do against me rise,
my ears shall hear the same.

12 The righteous flourish shall on high,
as palm-trees bud and blow :

And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God :

Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall
most pleasant to be seen :

And also shall both bud and spring
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will :

He is my rock, my hope and trust.
In him there is no ill.

PSAL. XCIII. J. H.

THE Lord doth reign, and clothed is
with majesty most bright :

And to declare his strength likewise,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord also the earth hath made,
and shaped it most sure :

No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Before the world was made or wrought,

thy seat was set before :

Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise :

The floods, I say, did enterprise
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea,

Psalm XCIV. XCV.

19

5 Yea, though the storms arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell,
The Lord is strong, and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 O Lord, thy testimonies great are very sure : therefore Doth holiness become thy seat
and house for evermore.

PSAL. XCIV. J. H.

○ Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong,
vengeance belongs to thee :
Since then it doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide :
Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride. (sway)

3 How long shall wicked men bear
with lifting up their voice ?
Shall proud and wicked men alway
thus triumph and rejoyce ? (out,

4 How long shall they with brags burst
and proudly talk their fill ?
Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill ?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sore :
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :
They slay the children fatherless,
and none doth put them by. (hand,

7 And when they take these things in this talk they have of thee,
Can Jacob's God this understand ?
cush, no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :
Ye fools among the multitude
at length begin to learn.

8 The Lord who made the ear of man
he needs of right must hear :
He made the eyes, all things must then before his sight appear. (reft,

10 The Lord doth all the world cor-
and make them understand :
Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can ye scape his hand ?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the heart of man,
and sees the same full plain :
And he his very thoughts doth scan,
and findeth them but vain.

12 But, Lord, that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe,
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit :

When wicked men shall be suppress and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take :
His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that judgment be decreed
to justice to convert :
That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part will stand against the cursed train ?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

17 Except the Lord had been my aid,
my enemies to quell :
My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say, My foot doth slide
before that I could call :
Thy mercy, Lord, most ready was
to save me from the fall.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find ;
Then, Lord, thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou accustom, Lord, thy self,
with wicked men to sit ?
Who with pretence in stead of law
much mischief do commit :

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men, and good :
And in their counsels they are rife
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord is unto me
a sure and strong defence :
To him I flee, because he is
my strength and confidence.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy :
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

○ Come, let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord :
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.

2 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise :
In singing of psalms unto his grace
let us be glad a' ways.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God :
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are most steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought :

The

The earth, and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.
6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall,
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.
7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.
8 To day, if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd him in desert.
9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove: (see,
My wondrous works when they did
yet still they would me move.
10 Twice twenty years they did me
grieve,
which caused me to say,
They err in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.
11 Wherefore I swear, when that my wrath
was kindled in my breast,
That they should never tread the path,
to enter in my rest.

PSAL. XCVI. J. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord,
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Yea, sing unto the Lord alway,
praise ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.
3 Among the heathen all declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy of all praise:
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods always.
5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:
Whereas our God he is the Lord
that heav'n and earth hath made.
6 All praise and honour also dwell
ever before his face:
Both power and might likewise excel
within his holy place.
7 Ascribe unto the Lord therefore,
all men with one accord:
All might and worship evermore
ascribe unto the Lord.
8 Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glory of his Name:
Into his courts with presents go
and offer there the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearful at his sight.
13 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above:
Yea, he the earth so fast hath stay'd
that it can never move.
11 And that it is the Lord alone
who rules with princely might,
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heav'ns shall joyfully begin,
the earth likewise rejoyce:
The sea, with all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.
13 The fields shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth:
The wood, and ev'ry tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth;
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might,
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

PSAL. XCVII. J. H.

THE Lord doth reign, for which the earth
may sing with pleasant voice:
Also the isles with joyful mirth
may triumph and rejoyce. (swell, 2 Both clouds and darkness likewise
and round about him beat:
Yea, right and justice ever dwell,
and bide about his seat.
3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run
and go before his face:
Which all his enemies shall burn abroad in ev'ry place. (blaze
4 His lightnings great full bright did
and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.
5 The hills like wax did melt in sight,
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before the ruler's might who guideth all the world. (show 6 The heav'ns likewise declare and his justice forth abroad.
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.
7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:
Also to those that glory much
dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.
9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce:

For at thy judgments they shall sing
with a most chearful voice
10 For thou, O Lord, art set on high
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.
11 All ye that love the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
12 And light shall spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Gladness and joy likewise to them
that are of upright heart.
13 Ye righteous, in the Lord rejoyce,
his holiness proclaim:
And thankfully with heart and voice,
be mindful of the same.
P S A L. XCVIII. J. H.
O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song:
For he hath wrought throughout the world

his wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour:
And gets himself the victory
with his own arm and pow'r.
3 The Lord doth make the people know
his saving health and might:
And also doth his justice show
in all the heathens sight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in mind he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.
5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce
to him with joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him always:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King,
with trumpets sound his praise.
7 Yea, let the sea, with all therein,
for joy both roar and swell:
The earth likewise, let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoyce their fills,
and clap their hands apace:
Yea, let the mountains and the hills
triumph before his face.
9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and ev'ry wight:
And rule the people mightily,
with justice and with might.
P S A L. XCIX. J. H.
T He Lord doth reign, altho' at it
the people rage full sore:
Yea, on the cherubims doth sit,
tho' all the world do roar.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell,
is high and wondrous great:
Above all those he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.
3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearfull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgment and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob thro' thy might.
5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him shew:
And at his footstool worship him,
that holy is and true.
6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as priests on him did call: (well,
When they did pray, he heard them
and gave them answer all.
7 Within the clouds to them he spake,
then did they labour still
To keep such laws as he did make,
according to his will. (hear,
8 O Lord our God, thou didst them
and answer'dst them again:
But their inventions punished,
which foolish were and vain.
9 O praise our God and Lord therefore
upon his holy hill:
For why? our God whom we adore,
is the most Holy still.

P S A L. C. J. H.

A L l people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with chearful

come ye before him and rejoyce.
2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take,
3 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless his Name always,
for it is seemly so to do.
4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

I N God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth,
Serve him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:
Not we ourselves, for we are his own flock and pasture-sheep.
3 O go into his gates always,
give thanks within the same:

Within his courts set forth his praises
and laud his holy Name.

4 For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign: world,
From age to age throughout the
his truth doth still remain.

I Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God unto thee:
O let me understand the ways
that good and holy be.

2 Within my house I daily will walk with an heart upright:
And I no kind of wicked thing
will set before my sight.

3 I hate their works that fall away,
they shall not cleave to me:
From me shall go the froward heart,
no evil will I see,

4 Hini I'll destroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:

The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.

5 My eyes shall be on them within
the land that faithful be:

In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.

6 I will no guileful person have
within my house to dwell:

And in my presence he shall nor remain, that lyes doth tell.

7 Betimes I will destroy ev'n all
the wicked of the land:

That I may from Gods city cut
the wicked worker's hand.

PSAL. CII. N.

Hear thou my pray'r, O Lord, and let

my cry come unto thee:

In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.

2 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:

For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.

3 And as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead:

And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.

4 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:

As pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in.

5 And as an owl in desert is,
lo, I am such a one:

I watch, and as a sparrow on
the house-top am alone.

6 For daily in reproach full wife
my foes they do me scorn:

And them that mad upon me are,
against me they have sworn.

7 Surely with ashes, as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:

And mingled have my drink with tears,
that from my eyes do still'd;

8 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and great disdain:

For thou hast set me up on high,
and cast me down again.

9 The days wherein I pass my life,
are like the fleeting shade:

And I am wither'd like the grass,
that soon away doth fade.

10 But thou, O Lord, for ever dost
remain in steady place:

And thy remembrance ever doth,
abide from race to race.

The second part.

11 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion will extend:

The time of mercy, now the time
foreset is come to end.

12 For in the very stones thereof
thy servants do delight:

And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sight.

13 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy Name:

And all the kings on earth shall dread
his glory and his fame.

14 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:

And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

15 To pray'r of the poor destitute
when he himself shall bend:

When he shall not disdain unto their suits for to attend.

16 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:

The people that are yet unborn
the Lord's renown shall spread.

17 From his high sanctuary he hath looked down below:

And out of heav'n most high he hath beheld the earth also.

18 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:

And that he might deliver those
that were condemn'd to dye.

19 That they in Sion may declare
the Lord's most holy Name:

And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same.

20 Then when the people of the land,
and kingdoms with accord,

Shall be assembled to perform
their service to the Lord.

The third part.

20 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And

And shorter he did cut my days,
thus I therefore did say :
22 My God, in midst of all my days,
now take me not away :
Thy years endure eternally,
and never do decay.
23 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all time hast laid :
The heav'ns also, they are the work
which thy own hands have made.
24 They all shall perish and decay,
but thou remainest still :
And they shall all in time wax old,
ev'n as a garment will. (change,
27 Thou as a garment shalt them
and changed shall they be :
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
26 The children of thy servant shall continue and endure :
And in thy sight, their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

P S A L. CIII. T. S.

MY soul, give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit, do the same :
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name. (hath 2 Praise thou the Lord, my soul, who
to thee been very kind,
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again :
From all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did thy youth prolong :
Like as the eagle casts her bill,
again becoming young.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as are oppress :
So that their sufferings & their wrongs,
are turned to the best.
7 His ways and his commandments all to Moses he did show :
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kind and merciful
when sinners do him grieve :
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
9 He will not always chiding be,
tho' we be full of strife :
Nor keep our faults in memory,
for all our sinful life.
10 According to our sins also
he doth us not regard :

And after our iniquities
he doth us not reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heav'n above :
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.
12 He doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as the sun-rising is full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pity parents do unto their children bear :
Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear. (shape, 14 The Lord that made us knows our
our mould and fashion just :
How weak and frail our nature is,
and that we are but dust.
15 And how the time of mortal men
is like the with'ring hay :
Or like the flow'r, right fair in field,
that fades full soon away. (winds 16 Whose gloss and beauty stormy
do utterly disgrace :
And make that after their assaults,
such blossoms have no place.
17 But yet the goodness of the Lord,
with his shall ever stand :
Their childrens children do receive
his righteousness at hand.
18 I mean, who keep his covenant,
with all their whole desire :
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require. (seat 19 The heav'ns most high are made the
and footstool of the Lord :
And by his pow'r imperial
he governs all the world.
20 Ye angels that are great in pow'r,
praise ye, and bless the Lord :
Who to obey and do his will immediately accord.
21 Ye noble hosts and ministers,
cease not to laud him still :
Who ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
22 Yea, all his works in ev'ry place,
praise ye his holy Name :
My thankful heart, my mind and soul
praise ye also the same.

P S A L. CIV. W. K.

MY soul, praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name,
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame :
Honour and majesty
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light, as a robe,
thou hast thy self clad :
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see :
The heav'ns in such sort
thou also hast spread,
That they to a curtain
compared may be.
3 His chamber beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear :
And there with much swiftnes
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.
4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go,
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest :
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save and consume things
as seemeth him best.
5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such pow'r.
The deep a fair cov'ring
for it made thou hast,
Which by its own nature
the hills would devour.
6 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee,
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearful they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.
7 The mountains full high
they then up ascend,
If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfil :
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend :
Where thou them appointest
remain they do still.
8 Their bounds thou hast set
how far they shall run,
So that in their rage
not that pass they can :
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.
The second part.
9 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills :

Where both the wild asses
their thirst often slakes,
And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fills.
10 By these pleasant springs,
and rivers most clear,
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell :
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there,
Among the green branches
their song shall excel.
11 The mountains to moist
the clouds he doth use :
The earth with his works
is wholly repleat.
So as the brute cattell
he doth not refuse :
But grass doth provide them,
and herb for man's meat.
12 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl
he made for man's sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
The cedars of liban
the great Lord did make,
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.
13 In these may birds build,
and all make their nests :
In fir trees the storks remain and abide,
The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest :
Also the rock stony
for conies to hide.
14 The moon that is set
her seasons to run,
The days from the nights
thereby to discern :
And by the descending
also of the sun,
The cold from heat alway
thereby we do learn.
15 When darknes doth come
by God's will and power,
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.
The lions range roaring
their prey to devour :
But yet 'tis thou, Lord,
who givest them food.
16 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire,
To couch in their dens
then are they full sate :
That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

17 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found,
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought,
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound,
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.

18 So is the great sea,
which is large and broad,
Where creeping things swarm,
and beasts of each sort,
There mighty ships sail,
and some lie at rode:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

19 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed;
Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

20 Thou open'st thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see,
But sore are they troubled
if thou hide thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

21 Again, when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed,
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed,
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.

22 The praise of the Lord
forever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice:
His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast.
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

23 To this Lord and God
I will sing always:
So long as I live
my God praise will I.
Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I cry.

24 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
Also the perverse
them root out with shame:

But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
Praise ye the Lord's Name.

P S A L. CV. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name:
Among the people all declare
his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing joyfully unto the Lord,
yea, sing unto him praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works,
that he hath wrought always.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoice with one accord:
And let the heart also be glad
of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might:
Yea, seek his face incessantly,
and presence of his sight. (done)

5 The wondrous works which he hath keep still in mindful heart:
Let not the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithful Abraham,
his servant are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For why? 'tis he alone that is the mighty Lord our God:
And his most righteous judgments are
in all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abram long ago,
And faithful oath which he hath sworn
to Isaac also:

10 And did appoint it for a law
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternal covenant
to Israel alway.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.

12 Although their number at that time
did very small appear:
Yea, very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were, (land,

13 While yet they went from land to without a sure abode,
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 Yet wrong at no oppressor's hand
he suffer'd them to take;
But ev'n the great and mighty kings
repro-

reproved for their sake.
 15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be ;
 Nor do the prophets any harm
 that do pertain to me.
 16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
 of bread destroy'd the store :
 But yet against the time of need
 did sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Ev'n Joseph, who had once been sold to live a slave in woe : (soul Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose
 the iron pierc'd into.

18 Until the time came when his cause
 was known apparently :

The mighty word of God the Lord
 his innocence did try.

19 The king sent and deliver'd him
 from prison where he was :

The ruler of the people then
 did freely let them pass.

20 And over all his house he made him lord to bear the sway :

And of his substance made him have
 the rule and all the stay.

21 That he might to his will instruct
 the princes of the land :

And wisdom teach his senators rightly to understand.

22 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also :

And Jacob in the land of Ham
 did sojourn to and fro.

23 His people he exceedingly
 in numbers made to grow :

And stronger than their enemies,
 who sought their overthrow.

24 Whose heart he turned, that with hate
 they did his people treat :

And did his servants wrongfully abuse with base deceit.

The fourth part.

25 His faithful servant Moses then,
 and Aaron, whom he chose,

He did command to go to them,
 his message to disclose.

26 His wonderful and mighty signs
 among them they did show :

And wonders in the land of Ham
 then did they work also.

27 Darknes he sent, and made it dark,
 in stead of brighter day :

And his commission and his word
 they did not disobey.

28 He turn'd their waters into blood,
 their fish al'o did slay : (place

Their land brought frogs, ev'n in the
 where their king Pharaoh lay.

29 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies :

And all the quarters of their land
 were fill'd with crawling lice.

30 He gave them cold and stony hail,
 instead of milder rain :

And fiery flames within their land,
 he sent unto their pain. (trees

 and fruit of all their ground.

Yea, the beginning and first fruit
 of all their strength and might.

And in the number of the tribes
 no feeble one therewas.

 when they did thence depart :

For terrour and the fear of them,

36 To shroud them from the parching
 a cloud he did display :

And fire he sent to give them light,
 when night had hid the day.

37 They asked, and he caused quails
 to rain at their request :

And fully with the bread of heav'n
 their hunger he repress.

38 He opened the stony rock,
 and waters gushed out :

Also the dry and parched ground,
 like rivers, ran about.

39 For of his holy cov'nant he was mindful evermore,

Which to his servant Abraham
 he lighted long before. (mirth

40 He brought his people forth with

Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd great annoy.

41 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitful lands :

The Labour's of the people did they take into their hands.

 observe for evermore :

And faithfully obey his laws ;
 praise ye the Lord therefore.

2 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway:
With favour of thy people, Lord,
remember me, I pray.
3 And with thy saving health, O Lord,
vouchsafe to visit me:
That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see.
4 And with thy peoples joy, I may
a joyful mind possess:
And may with thy inheritance
a cheerful heart express.
5 Both we and our forefathers all have sinned ev'ry one:
We have committed wickedness,
and very lewdly done.
6 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land:
Our fathers, tho' they saw them all,
yet did not understand.
7 Nor yet thy mercies multitude
did keep in memory:
But at the sea, yea, the Red sea,
rebell'd ungratefully;
8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name:
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.
9 The Red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd:
As in the wilderness, so thro'
the deep he did them guide.
10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their most spiteful foe:
And from their enemies he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters did them overthrow,
not one was left alive:
Then they believ'd his word, and praise
in song they did him give.
12 But very soon ungratefully
his works they quite forgot:
And for his counsel and his will,
they did neglect to wait.
13 But sinned in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
their only stay and trust.
14 Who, went their wanton minds desire
did suffer them to have:
But wasting leanness there withall
into their souls he gave. (tents, 15 Then when they lodged in their
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord
they also envy'd much.
16 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour,
And all Abiram's company
did swallow in that hour.

17 In their assembly kindled was a hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burn up,
the wicked in his ire.
18 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calf did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.
19 Thus to the likeness of a calf
which feedeth on the grass,
They turned all their glory, and their honour did deface.
20 And God their only Saviour they unthankfully forgot:
Who many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

21 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done:
And by the Red-sea dreadful things performed long ago: (selves 22 Therefore because they shew'd them-
forgetful and unkind:
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind.
23 Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the way:
To turn away his wrath, lest he should them destroy and slay.
24 They did despise the pleasant land
that he to them did give:
Yea, and the words that he had spoke,
they did no whit believe. (heart 25 But in their tents with grudging
they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
did give an hearkning mind.
26 Therefore against them list'd he
his strong revenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness
before they saw the land.
27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
And thro' the kingdoms of the world
to scatter them abroad.
28 To Baal-peor they did join themselves most wickedly:
The sacrifices of the dead
eating most greedily, 29 Thus they with their inventions did
his anger much provoke:
And in his fore enkindled wrath,
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgment he did execute
and then the plague did slay.

32 At waters called Meribah,
 they did him angry make :
Yea, ſo far forth, that Moſes then
 was puniſh'd for their ſake:
33 Becauſe they vext his ſpirit ſo,
 that in impatient heat
 His lips ſpake unadviſedly,
 his fervour was ſo great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
 did they the people ſlay :
 But were among the heathen mixt,
 and learn'd their wicked way.
35 They did their idols ſerve, which was
 their ruin and decay :
 To devils ſons and daughters did
 they offer up and ſlay. (knife,

 And with their own inventions did

39 Therefore againſt his people was his anger kindled ſore:
 And ev'n his own inheritance
 he did abhor therefore.
40 Into the hands of heathen men
 he gavethem for a prey : (they
 And made their foes their lords, whom were forced to obey.
The fifth part.
41 Yea, and their hateful enemies
 oppreſt them in the land :
 And they were humbly made to ſtoop
 as ſubjects to their hand.
42 Full oftentimes from thrall had he deliver'd them before :
 But they rebell'd againſt him, and
 provok'd him evermore.
43 Therefore they by their wickedneſs
 were brought full low to lye :
 Yet when he ſaw them in diſtreſs,
 he hearkned to their cry.
44 He call'd to mind his covenant,
 which he to them had ſwore:
 And by his mercies multitude,
 repented him therefore.
45 And ſavour he them made to find
 before the ſight of thoſe
 That led them captive from their land,
 tho' they had been their foes.
46 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
 we do thee humbly pray :
 And from among the heathen folk,

Lord, gather us away.
47 That we may triumph and rejoice
 in thy moſt holy Name :
 That we may glory in thy praiſe
 and ſounding of thy fame.
48 The Lord the God of Iſrael
 be bleſſed evermore :
 Let all the people ſay, Amen :
 praiſe ye the Lord therefore.
 P S A L. CVII. W. K.
Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
 for very kind is he :
 And that his mercy hath no end,
 all mortal men may ſee.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
 with thanks ſhall praiſe his Name.
 And ſhew how they from foes were freed,
 and how he wrought the ſame.
3 He gather'd them forth of the lands
 that lay ſo far about :
 From eaſt to weſt, from north to ſouth
 his hand did find them out.
4 They wandred in the wilderneſs,
 and ſtrayed from the way :
 Finding no city whereto dwell,
 that ſerve might for their ſtay.
5 Whoſe thirſt and hunger was ſo great,
 within thoſe deſerts void :
 That faintneſs them aſſaulted, and their ſouls greatly annoy'd.
6 Then did they cry in their diſtreſs,
 unto the Lord for aid :
 Who did remove their troublous ſtate,
 according as they pray'd.
7 And by the way which was moſt right,
 he led them like a guide :
 That they might to their city go,
 and ſafely there abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord,
 confeſs his goodneſs then :
 And ſhew the wonders that he doth
 before the ſons of men.
9 For he their empty ſouls ſuſtain'd,
 whom thirſt had made to faint :
 Their hungry ſouls with goodneſs fed,
 and heard their ſad complaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkneſs deep,
 where they on death do wait :
 Faſt bound to bear ſuch grievous pains
 as iron chains do threat.
The ſecond part.
11 Becauſe againſt the words of God,
 they proudly did rebel :
 Eſteeming light his counſels high,
 which do ſo far excel.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
 they then fell down with grief (help,
 And none was found that could them
 or give them ſome relief.

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd. (out,

14 For he from darkness brought them
and from death's dreadful shade:

Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
with strong and mighty hand:

The iron bars in sunder brake,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel
by reason of their sin:

And for the great transgression which they still continue in.

18 Their soul abhorr'd all sorts of meat,
no relish they could have: (brought

By which means they were almost unto the very grave.

19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore: (deep
And brought them from those dangers wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice
to him most thankfully:

And speak of all his wondrous works
with gladness and with joy.

23 Such as in ships and brittle barks into the seas descend, (floods

Their merchandise through fearful
to compass and to end:

24 These men are forced to behold
the Lord's works what they be:

And in the dreadful deep the same,
most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy wind
ariseh in a rage:

And stirreth up the surges so,
that nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:

And plunging down the depth until their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reel,

As men who had their reason lost,
and had no sense to feel.

28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state
according as they pray'd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease:

So that the waves from their great rage
are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are they glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:

And to the heav'n by him are brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extol his Name:

And where the elders us'd to sit
there let them do the same.

33 The wilderness he often makes
with waters to abound:

And water-springs he often turns
to dry and parched ground.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make:

When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.

35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear,

With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry souls are set
as he hath freely chose:

That they a city may them build
to dwell in, safe from foes.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant:

To yield them fruits of such increase
that they may have no want.

38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so:

Who also maketh the brute beasts
in numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are brought low,
by the oppressors stout,

Diminishing through many plagues
that compass them about:

40 Then doth he princes bring to shame
which did them sore oppress:

And likewise caused them to err
when in the wilderness.

41 But yet the poor he raiseh up,
out of his troubles deep:

And often doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoice:

Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?

Forc: re. inly shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.
P S A L. CVIII. J. H.

O God, my heart prepared is,
my tongue is likewise so:
I will advance my voice in song,
that I thy praise may show.

Awake my viol and my harp,
sweet melody to make:

And in the morning I myself
right early will awake.

By me, among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:

And I among the heathen folk
will praises sing to thee.

Because thy mercy doth ascend
above the heav'ns high:

Also thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty sky.

Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God:

Display likewise upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.

That thy beloved also may be set at liberty,

Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hear me speedily.

God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:

Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth's ground.

And Gilead shall be my own,
Manasse mine shall be:

My head strength Ephraim, and Iaw
shall Judah give to me.

Moab my wash-pot and my shoes
o'er Edom I will throw:

Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

Who to the city strong shall be leader and guide to me?

Also by whom in Edom's land conveyed shall I be?

Is it not thou, O Lord, who late
hast us forsaken quite:

And wilt not thou, Lord, also go forth with our hosts to fight?

Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assail:

For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown:

He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

P S A L. CIX. N.

I N speechless silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue always:

E'en thou, O Lord, because thou art
the God of all my praise.

The wicked and the guileful months,

on me disclosed be:

And they with false and lying tongue
have spoken unto me.

They did beset me round about
with words of hateful spite:

Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

For my good will they were my foes,
then I began to pray:

My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.

Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper-hand:

At his right hand, Lord, suffer thou
his hateful foe to stand.

When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:

And let the pray'r that he doth make,
be turned into sin.

Few be his days, his charge also,
let thou another take:

His children let be fatherless,
his Wife a Widow make.

His off-spring let be vagabonds,
and ever beg their bread:

In places desolate and waste
let them seek to be fed.

Let covetous extortioners
get all his goods in store:

And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.

Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:

That on his children fatherless,
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

Let his posterity be quite
destroy'd and never breed:

Their name out-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.

Let not his father's wickedness
from God's remembrance fall:

And never let his mothers sin
be done away at all.

But in the presence of the Lord,
let them for ever stay:

That from the earth their memory
he may put clean away.

Since mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spite

The troubled man, and sought to slay
the woful hearted wight.

As he did cursing love, it shall happen unto him so:

And as he did not Blessing love,
far from him it shall go.

As he with cursing clad him self
so it like water shall

Enter his Bowels, and like oyl,
into his bones shall fall.

As garments let it be to him,

to cover him withal :
 And as a girdle, wherewith he always be girded shall.
 18 Let this be the reward from God,
 of him that is my foe :
 Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.
 19 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
 deal graciously with me :
 Deliver me for thy Name's sake,
 for great thy mercies be.
 20 Because in depth of great distress
 I needy am and poor :
 Also within my pained breast,
 my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

21 Ev'n so do I depart away,
 as doth declining shade :
 And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade. (food, 22 With fasting long from needful
 my knees enfeebled are :
 And all the fatness of my flesh
 is gone with grief and care.
 23 And I also a vile reproach
 to them am made to be :
 And they that did upon me look,
 did shake their heads at me.
 24 Help me therefore, O God, I pray,
 my aid and succour be :
 According to thy mercies great,
 save and deliver me.
 25 And they shall know thereby, that this is thy most mighty hand :
 And that 'tis thou that hast it done
 they well shall understand. (thou 26 Although they curse with spite, yet shalt blest with loving voice :
 When they rise up, and cometo shame,
 thy servant shall rejoice.
 27 Let them with shame be clothed all,
 that are mine enemies :
 And with confusion, as a cloak,
 be covered likewise.
 28 But greatly I will with my mouth
 give thanks unto the Lord :
 And I among the multitude
 his praises will record.
 29 For he with help at his right hand,
 will stand the poor man by,
 To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L. CX. N.

THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
 sit thou on my right hand,
 Till I have made they foes a stool,
 whereon thy feet shall stand.
 2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might :
 Amidst thy mortal foes be thou
 the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy reign
 and power they shall see,
 Then free-will-offerings shall all
 the people give to thee.
 4 Yea, with an holy worshipping,
 then shall they offer all :
 Thy birth-dew is the dew that doth
 from womb of morning fall.
 5 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say :
 By th' order of Melchisedec
 thou art a priest alway.
 6 The Lord thy God on thy right-hand,
 that standeth for thy stay,
 Shall wound for thee the stately kings,
 in that his wrathful day.
 7 The heathen he shall judge and fill
 the place with bodies dead :
 And over divers countries shall
 in sunder smite the head :
 8 And he shall drink out of the brook
 that runneth in the way :
 Wherefore he shall lift up on high
 his royal head that day.

 In presence of the just.
 For great his works are found,
 To search them such are bound,
 As do him love and trust.

 It ever doth endure :
 His wondrous works he would,
 We still remember should,
 His mercy is still sure.
 3 Such as to him bear love,
 A portion fair above,
 He hath up for them laid,
 For this they shall well find,
 We will have them in mind,
 And keep them as he said.
 4 For he did not disdain
 His works to shew them plain,
 By lightning and by thunders :
 When he the heathens land
 Did give into their hand,
 Where they beheld his wonders,
 5 Of all his works ensu'th
 Both judgment, right and truth,
 Whereto his statutes tend :
 They are decreed sure
 For ever to endure,
 On which we may depend.

4 The Lord is very merciful,
and juſt he is alſo :
And in our God compaſſion doth
moſt plentifully flow.
5 The Lord in ſafety doth preſerve
all thoſe that ſimple be.
I was in woful miſery,
and he deliver'd me.
6 And now my ſoul, ſince thou art ſafe,
return unto thy reſt :
For largely, unto thee the Lord
his bounty hath expreſt.
7 Becauſe thou haſt delivered
my ſoul from deadly thrall :
My moiſt'ned eyes from mournful tears,
my ſliding feet from fall.
8 Before the Lord I in the land,
of life will walk therefore.
I did believe ; therefore I ſpoke,
but I was troubled fore.
The ſecond part.
9 I ſaid in my diſtreſs and fear,
that all men liars be :
What ſhall I pay the Lord for all

his benefit to me ?
10 The whoſome cup of ſaving health
I thankfully will take :
And on the Name of God will call,
when I my pray'rs do make.
11 I to the Lord will pay my vows
with joy and great delight :
Now at this very preſent time
in all his people's ſight.
12 Right dear and precious in his ſight
he always doth eſteem
The death of all his holy ones
whatever men do deem.
13 Thy ſervant, Lord, thy ſervant, lo,
I do my ſelf confeſs,
Son of thy handmaid, thou haſt broke
the bonds of my diſtreſs.
14 Therefore I'll offer up to thee
a ſacrifice of praiſe :
And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.
15 I to the Lord will pay my vows
with joy and great delight :
Now at this very preſent time,
in all his people's ſight. (houſe, 16 Yea, in the courts of God's own
and in the midſt of thee :
O thou Jeruſalem : Therefore
the Lord our God praiſe ye.
P S A L. CXVII. N.
O All yeaſons of the world,
praiſe ye the Lord always :
And all ye people every where
ſet forth his noble praiſe.
2 For great hiſ kindneſs is to us,
hiſ truth doth not decay :
Wherefore praiſe ye the Lord our God
praiſe ye the Lord alway.
P S A L. CXVIII. N.
O Give ye thanks to God the Lord,
for very kind is he :
Becauſe his mercy doth endure
unto eternity.
2 Let Iſrael confeſs that hiſ
mercy doth ever dure :
Let Aaron's houſe likewiſe confeſs,
hiſ mercy is moſt ſure.
3 Let all that fear the Lord our God
ev'n now confeſs and ſay
The mercy of the Lord our God,
endureth ſtill alway.
4 In trouble and in heavineſs,
unto the Lord I cry'd :
Who lovingly heard me at large
my ſuit was not deny'd.
5 The Lord himſelf is on my ſide,
I will not ſtand in doubt :
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God ſtands me about.
6 The Lord doth take my part with them,
that help to ſuccour me :
There-

Therefore I ſhall ſee my deſire
upon my enemy.

7 Better it is to truſt in God,
than in man's mortal ſeed :
Or to put confidence in kings,
or princes in our need.

8 All nations have incloſed me,
and compaſſed me round :
But in the Name of God ſhall I
my enemies confound.

9 They kept me in on ev'ry ſide,
and did me quite ſurround :
But in the Lord's moſt mighty Name,
I caſt them to the ground.

10 They came about me all like Bees,
but in the Lord's great Name,
I quenched their thorns that were on fire,
and did deſtroy the ſame.

The ſecond part.

11 They did with force thruſt fore at me,
that I indeed might fall :
But through the Lord I found ſuch help,
as did them vanquiſh all.

12 The Lord is my defence and ſtrength,
my joy, my mirth, and ſong :
And is become for me indeed
a Saviour great and ſtrong.

13 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to paſs great things :
He cauſeth voice of joy and health
in righteous men's dwellings.

14 The right hand of the Lord doth bring moſt mighty things to paſs :
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

15 I ſhall not die, but ever live
to utter, and declare

The mighty power of the Lord,
his works, and what they are.

16 The Lord himſelf hath chaſtened,
and hath corrected me :

But not me given over yet
to death as you may ſee.

17 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteouſneſs :

That I may enter into them
his praiſe for to expreſs.

18 This is the gate of God the Lord,
which open ſhall beſet :

That good and righteous men always may enter into it.

The third part.

19 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
and ever will praiſe thee :

Who haſt me heard, and art become a Saviour unto me.

20 The ſtone which formerly among
the builders was refus'd,

Is now become the corner-ſtone,
and chiefly to be us'd.

21 This was the mighty work of God,

it was the Lord's own fact :

And it is wondrous to behold
that great and noble act.

22 This is the joyful day indeed,
which God himſelf hath wrought :

Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in mind, and thought.

23 Now help us, Lord, and proſper us
we wiſh with one accord :

Bleſſed is he that comes to us
in the Name of the Lord.

24 God is the Lord that ſhews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord

Your ſacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

25 Thou art my God, I will confeſs,
and render thanks to thee :

Thou art my God, and I will praiſe
thy mercy towards me.

26 O give ye thanks to God the Lord,
for very kind is he :

Be cauſe his mercy doth endure
unto eternity.

P S A L M. CXIX. W. W.

A L E P H.

Bleſſed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart :
Whole lives and converſations do
from God's laws never ſtart.

2 Bleſſed are they that give themſelves
his ſtatutes to obſerve :

Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him ſwerve.

3 Doubtleſs ſuch men go not aſtray,
nor do a wicked thing :

But ſtedfaſtly walk in his way,
without any wandring.

4 'Tis thy commandment and thy will,
that with attentive heed,

Thy precepts which are moſt divine,
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee pleaſe,
my ways ſo to direct,

That I might always keep thy laws,
and never them reject.

6 So ſhall I not aſhamed be,
whiſt I thus ſet my eyes :

And bend my mind always to muſe
on thy decrees moſt wiſe.

7 Then will I praiſe with upright heart
and magnifie thy Name :

When I ſhall learn thy judgments juſt,
and alſo prove the ſame.

8 And wholly will I give my ſelf
to keep thy laws moſt right :

For ſake me not for ever, Lord,
but ſhew thy grace and might.

The ſecond part. B E T H.

9 By what means may a young man beſt
his life learn to amend ?

If that he mark and keep thy word,

and

and therein his time spend.

10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:

O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy commands to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:

That I might not at any time offend thy holy will.

12 We magnify thy Name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:

Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceased to preach,
and publish day and night,

The judgments all which did proceed,
from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy ways,
much more my heart rejoice,
Than all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their choice.

15 Upon thy precepts I will muse,
and thereto frame my talk:

As at a mark so will I aim,
how I thy ways may walk.

16 My only joy shall be so fixt,
and on thy laws so set:

That nothing shall me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

G I M E L. — The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace,
as may my life prolong:

Thy holy word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.

18 My eyes which are dim, and shut up,
so open and make bright,

That of thy law and wondrous works,
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger on the earth
wandering now here now there:

Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my foot-steps for to clear.

20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:

But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud and the malicious men
thou dost destroy each one:

And cursed are such as do not thy laws attend upon.

22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men conspire:

For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.

23 The princes great in council sat,
and did against me speak:

But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.

24 For why? thy covenants are the joy,
and solace of my heart:

They are my faithful counsellors,

from them I'll not depart.

D A L E T H. — The fourth part.

25 Alas! I am as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:

Therefore restore my life again,
as thy promise is just.

26 My ways when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:

Hear now also, and me instruct thy law to love and fear.

27 Make me, O Lord, to understand thy precepts evermore:

Then on thy works I'll meditate,
and lay them up in store.

28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd,
that it doth melt for grief:

According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.

29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:

And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send. (sure,

30 The way of truth both strait and
I chosen have and found:

Before me I thy judgments set,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then, O Lord, I readily
thy covenants embrace:

Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.

32 Then will I run most joyfully
where thy word doth me call:

When thou enlarged hast my heart,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E. — The fifth part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right way,
in thy statutes divine:

And them to keep unto the end,
my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:

With heart and mind, and all my might
I will it keep alway.

35 In the right paths of thy commands,
guide me, Lord, I require:

No other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and cov'nants to embrace:

And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain desires and worldly lusts,
turn back my eyes and sight:

And with thy Spirit strengthen me,
to walk thy ways aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,

Who am thy servant, and do love,
and nothing fear but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expel:

For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excel.

40 Behold my heart's desire is bent
thy laws to keep alway :
O strengthen me so with thy grace,
that it perform I may.

V A U. The sixth part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
For in thy faithful word 's all
my confidence and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let evermore be prest :
For in thy judgments wonderful,
my hope doth always rest. (doth

44 And whilst that breath within me
this mortal life preserve ;
Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I as set at large,
from dread and danger free :
Because I study how to keep
thy precepts faithfully.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame :
Ev'n before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoice then to obey
thy just commands and will :
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.

48 My hands will I lift to thy laws,
which I have dearly fought :
And practise thy commandments all in word, in deed, and thought.

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me,
remember, Lord, I pray :
For therein have I put my trust
and confidence alway.

50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail :
For were my life not by thy word,
it suddenly would fail.

51 The proud, and such as God contemn,
still make of me a scorn :
Yet will I not thy law forsake,
as if I were forlorn. (works

52 But call to mind, Lord, thy great shew'd to our fathers old :
Whereby I feel my joy surmount
my grief a hundred fold.

53 Horror hath taken hold on me,
because the wicked do Forsake thy righteous law, and will have no regard thereto.

54 But as for me, I fram'd my songs

thy statutes to exult.

When I among the strangers dwelt,
and grief did me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep :

Thy law also I kept always,
and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants most dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and fear.

C H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God, who art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay ;

I have decreed and promised,
thy laws to keep alway.

58 With my whole heart I humbly su'd
in presence of thy face :

As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant to me thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothful are :

But hastily thy laws to keep
I did myself prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :

Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray. (are

62 Thy righteous laws and judgments
so very great and high,

That ev'n at midnight I will rise
thy Name to magnifie.

63 I am companion of all them
who fear thee in their heart :

O therefore grant I never may
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
the earth throughout do fill :

O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt :

For of thy grace in sundry sorts,
have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge sure :

For stedfastly I do believe
thy precepts are most pure.

67 Before that I afflicted was,
I err'd and went astray :

But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay. (Lord

68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and in thy gifts most free :

Thy ordinances how to keep,
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and the ungodly have against me forg'd a lye :
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I .
70 Their hearts are ev'n like unto brawn
which is exceeding fat :
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct :
That I thereby might learn thy laws,
and never them reject.
72 So that thy word and law to me
is dearer manifold,
Than gold and silver in great sums,
or ought that can be told.
73 O D. The tenth part.
73 Thy hands have made and fashion'd thy creature, Lord, am I : (me, Make me to understand thy law,
and keep it faithfully,
74 So they that fear thee shall rejoice,
whenever they me see,
Because I have learn'd by thy word
to put my trust in thee.
75 I know, O Lord, thy judgments all,
most just and righteous be :
And that in very faithfulness
thou hast afflicted me.
76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray
some comfort to me send :
And as thou hast me hitherto,
O Lord, still me defend.
77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
then shall I surely live:
For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give.
78 Confound the proud, who do me seek perversely to destroy :
But as for me, thy laws to know,
I will my self employ.
79 Whoso with rev'rence do thee fear,
to me let them retire :
And such as know thy covenants,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wavering,
let on thy laws be bent :
That no confusion come to me,
nor any discontent.
C A P H. The xj. part.
81 My soul doth faint, and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:
And for thy word's sake still I trust
my heart's desire to have.
82 My eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,
O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord ?
why dost thou thus delay ?
83 Like as a bottle in the smoke,
so am I parch'd and dry'd :
Yet will I not out of my heart

let thy commandments slide.
84 How long, O Lord, shall I yet live
before I see the hour,
That on my foes who me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour ?
85 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
thinking to make me sure :
Thus quite contrary to thy law,
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causeless they me grieve :
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou may'st me relieve.
87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd,
and brought me to the ground :
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me, Lord, again to life,
thy mercies do excel:
And so shall I thy statutes keep,
till death my life expel.
L A M E D. The xij. part.
89 In heav'n, O Lord, where thou dost dwell,
thy word is 'stablish'd sure,
And shall to all eternity
fast settled there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness : (sure Whose ground-work thou hast laid so
as no tongue can express.
91 Ev'n to this day we may well see how thou dost them preserve :
According to thy ordinance,
for all things do thee serve.
92 Had it not been that in thy law,
my soul had comfort sought,
Long time e'er now in my distress,
I had been brought to nought.
93 Therefore will I thy precepts keep,
in memory full fast :
Because that thou by them, O Lord,
my life restored hast.
94 No man to me can title make
for I am only thine :
Save metherefore, for to thy laws
my ears and heart incline.
95 The wicked men that seek my bane,
for me do lie in wait :
But I will meditate upon
thy testimonies great.
96 For nothing in this world I see
which hath at length no end ;
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all time extend.
M E M. The xij. part.
97 What great desire and fervent love
unto thy law I bear :
On it my daily study is,
that so I may thee fear. (exceed 98 Thy word hath taught me to

in wisdom all my foes :
 For they are ever with me, and do give me sweet repose.
 99 My teachers who did me instruct,
 in knowledge I excel:
 Because I do thy statutes keep,
 and them to others tell.
 100 In wisdom I do far surpass the ancient men also :
 And that because I keep thy laws,
 and so resolve to do.
 101 My feet I have refrain'd likewise
 from ev'ry evil way :
 That so I might thy word observe,
 and keep without delay. (swerv'd, 102 I have not from thy judgments
 nor shrunk as thou canst tell :
 Because thou hast me taught thereby
 to live godly and well.
 103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
 I find thy wordsalway !
 Doubtless no honey in my mouth
 doth taste so sweet as they. (learn'd 104 Thy laws have me such wisdom that I do hate therefore All wicked and ungodly ways,
 and will do evermore.

NUN. The xiiij. part.

105 Ev'n as a lanthorn to my feet
 so doth thy word shine bright :
 And to my paths where I do go,
 it is a flaming light. (form 106 I have both sworn, and will per-
 in truth and faithfulness,
 That I will keep thy judgments just
 and them in life express.
 107 Affliction hath me sore oppress,
 and brought me to death's door,
 O Lord, as thou hast promised,
 so me to life restore. (mouth, 108 The free-will-off'rings of my which I to thee do give,
 Accept, and teach me how I may
 after thy judgments live.
 109 My soul is ever in my hand,
 great dangers me assail :
 Yet do I not thy law forget,
 nor it to keep will fail.
 110 Altho' the wicked laid their acts
 to make of me a prey, Yet from thy precepts did I not once swerve or go astray.
 111 Thy law, O Lord, I taken have my heritage to be :
 Because such great delight and joy
 it doth afford to me.
 112 For evermore I have been bent,
 thy statutes to fulfil :
 Ev'n so likewise unto the end
 I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xv. part.

113 All thoughts that vain and wicked are
 I do always detest ;
 But for thy precepts and thy laws,
 I ever love them best.
 114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
 my shield and strong defence :
 Therefore have I thy promises
 look'd for with confidence.
 115 Therefore, ye evil-doers all,
 away from me be gone :
 For the commandments will I keep
 of God my Lord alone.
 116 As thou hast promis'd, so perform,
 that I may live and be Never ashamed of the hope
 which thou hast given me.
 117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe,
 for ought they do or say :
 And in thy statutes pleasure take
 I will both night and day.
 118 Under thy feet thou hast trod such as do thy statutes break :
 For nought avails their subtilty,
 their counsel is too weak. (out 119 Like dross thou cast'st the wicked
 wherever they do dwell :
 Therefore can I as thy commands,
 love nothing half so well.
 120 My flesh doth quake for fear of thee,
 my soul is much dismay'd :
 By reason of thy judgments great,
 my heart is fore afraid.
AIN. The xvj. part.
 121 I do the thing that lawful is,
 and give to all men right :
 Resign me not to them that would oppress me with their might.
 122 But for thy servant surety be in that thing which is right ;
 And never let the proud oppress
 me with their rage and spite.
 123 My eyes do fail with waiting for thy health, which I do crave :
 And for thy righteous promise, Lord,
 whereby thou wilt me save.
 124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
 and favour to him show :
 And thy commands most excellent,
 teach me also to know.
 125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
 grant me to understand,
 How by thy statutes I may know
 best what to take in hand.
 126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
 for truth doth quite decay :
 Thy law likewise they have made void,
 and none doth it obey.
 127 This is the cause wherefore I love
 thy laws better then gold,

Or jewels fine, which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them kept in store:

All crafty and malicious ways
I greatly do abhor.

P E. The xvi. part.

129 Thy covenants are wonderful,
and full of things profound:

My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.

130 The entrance of thy word doth give
to men a light most clear:

The simple likewise understand
when they it read or hear.

131 My mouth I open'd, and did pant,
because my soul did long

For thy commandments, which always do guide my heart and tongue.

132 With mercy and compassion, look upon me from above:

As thou art wont such to behold,
as thy Name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:

And never let iniquity thy servant overthrow. (harms

134 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserve and keep me sure:

Thy precepts then will I observe
with heart upright and pure.

135 Thy countenance which doth surpass
the sun in its bright hue,

Let shine on me, and by thy law,
teach me what to eschew.

136 Rivers of waters from my eyes
incessantly do fall:

Because I see how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

Z A D E. The xviii. part.

137 In ev'ry thing, Lord, thou art just,
altho' the wicked grudge:

And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous judge.

138 To render right, and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high,

And such as thou hast in thy law commanded us strictly.

139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed me,
and I am pin'd away.

Because my foes thy word forget,
and will it not obey.

140 Thy word is very pure, and doth greatly my heart rejoice:

Therefore thy servant nothing more
can love, or make my choice,

141 And tho' I be nothing set by,
as one of low degree;

Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee. (Lord,

142 Thy thruth and righteousness, O

for ever shall endure:

Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Anguish and grief have seiz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:

Yet of thy precepts do I still delight to hear and know.

144 The righteousness of thy commands
doth last for evermore:

Then teach them me, because in them,
my life lies up in store.

K O P H. The xix. part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cry'd,
Now answer me, O Lord:

That thy commandments to observe
I fully may record.

146 To thee, my God, I will make suit,
save me, I humbly pray:

Thy testimonies then will I always keep and obey.

147 To thee do I cry in the morn
before the day appear:

For in thy word I put my trust,
and thee alone do fear.

148 My eyes prevent the night-watches,
before they call, I wake:

That meditating on thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thy ears to hear my voice,
and pity on me take:

As thou wast wont, so quicken me,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and greedily,
do after mischief run:

Far from thy law thy are gone back,
and wickedly it shun. (near,

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou
since need doth so require:

For all thy precepts are most true,
then help I thee desire.

152 Concerning thy commandments, I have learned long ago,

That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them groundless so.

R E S H. The xx. part.

153 My trouble and affliction, Lord,
consider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold. (cause,

154 Defend my good and righteous
with speed me succour send:

From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord, ever me defend.

155 As for the wicked, they are far from saving health and grace:

Because the way thy laws to know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant
what tongue can them explain?

According to thy judgments good,
let me my life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore :

Yet from thy laws I never shrink,
nor went aside therefore.

158 The great transgressors I behold,
which is a grief to me ;

Because they do not keep thy word,
nor ever seek to thee.

159 Behold, how I do love thy laws,
with a most upright heart :

Then quicken me, O Lord, for thou
most good and gracious art.

160 Thy word from the beginning hath been ever true and just :

Thy righteous judgments ev'ry one always continue must.

SCHIN. The xxj. part.

161 Princes have persecuted me
without a cause, but saw

It was in vain, for of thy word,
my heart did stand in awe.

162 And surely of thy word I was
more joyful and more glad

Then he that of rich spoils and prey
great store and plenty had.

163 But as for lyes and falsities,
them I hate and detest :

Because thy holy laws I do
above all things love best.

164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice :

Because thy righteous judgments do greatly my heart rejoice. (have 165 Great peace and rest shall all such who do thy statutes love :

No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.

166 My only health and comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand :

And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been my exercise,
which my soul most desir'd :

So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd.

168 Thy statutes and commandments I have kept with heart upright :

For all my doings and my ways
are present in thy sight.

TAU. The xxij. part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :

And as thou hast me promise made
so teach me thee to fear.

170 O let my supplication, Lord,
have free access to thee :

And let me be delivered,
as thou hast promis'd me.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort :

When thou thy statutes hast me taught,

wherein stands my comfort. (word,

172 My tongue shall freely preach thy
and evermore confesse :

Thy famous acts and noble laws,
are truth and righteousness.

173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech,
and speedily me save :

For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.

174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
for other I know none :

And in thy law to meditate
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long days to live
thy Name to magnifie :

And of thy judgments wonderful,
let me the favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandering sheep :

O seek me, for I have not fail'd
thy statutes for to keep.

P S A L. CXX. T. S.

IN trouble and in thrall,
Unto the Lord I call,

And he doth me comfort :

Deliver me, I pray,

From lying lips alway,

And tongues of false report.

2 What vantage or what thing

Gett'st thou thus for to sting,

Thou false and flattering lyar ?

Thy tongue doth hurt, it's seen,

No less than arrows keen,

Or hot consuming fire.

3 Alas ! that I am fain

In those tents to remain,

Which Kedar are by name :

By whom the flocke elect,

And all of Isaac's sect,

Are put to open shame.

4 With them that peace do hate,

I came to meditate

And set a quiet life :

But when my mind wastold,

Causeless I was controul'd,

By them that loved strife.

P S A L. CXXI. W. W.

ILift my eyes to Sion hill,

From whence I do attend

Till succour God me send,

The mighty God me succour will,

Who heav'n and earth did frame,

And all things therein name.

2 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,

And will thee safely keep,

Nor he doth never sleep.

Lo he that Israel doth conserve,

Sleep never can surprize,

Nor slumber close his eyes.

3 The Lord thy keeper is alway,

On thy right-hand is he

A shade to cover thee :
 The sun shall not thee parch by day,
 Nor moon scarce half so bright,
 With cold thee hurt by night.
4 The Lord wil keep thee from distress,
 And will thy life sure save :
 Yea, thou shalt also have
In all thy business good success,
 When thou go'st in or out,
 He'll compass thee about.
 P S A L. CXXII. W. K.
I Did in heart rejoice
 To hear the peoples voice,
 In offering so willingly :
 For let us up, say they,
 And in the Lord's house pray ;
 Thus spake the folk with amity.
2 Our feet, that wander'd wide,
 Shall in thy gates abide,
 O thou Jerusalem full fair,
 Which art so seemly set,
 Much like a city neat,
 Whither the people do repair.
3 The tribes with one accord,
 To give thanks to the Lord,
 Are thither bent their way to take :
 So God before did tell
 That there his Israel (make.
 Their pray'rs they should together
4 For there are thrones erect,
 And that for this respect,
 To set forth justice orderly :
 Which thrones right to maintain,
 To David's house remain,
 His folk to judge with equity.
5 To pray let us not cease
 For Jerusalem's peace,
 Thy friends God keep in amity :
 Peace be thy walls about,
 And prosper thee throughout,
 Thy palaces continually.
6 For my friends sake will I Wish that prosperity
 May evermore abide in thee :
 God's house doth me allure
 Thy wealth for to procure,
 So much as lies in me.

Now Israel
 may say, and that truly,
 If that the Lord
 had not our cause maintain'd,
 If that the Lord
 had not our right sustain'd,
 When all the world
 against us furiously
 Made their uproars,
 and said we should all die,
2 Then long ago
 they had devour'd us all,
 And swallow'd quick
 for ought that we could deem Such was their rage,
 as we might well esteem.
 And as the floods
 with mighty force do fall,
 So had they now
 our lives even brought to thrall,
3 The raging streams
 most proud in roaring noise,
 Had long ago
 ov'rwhelm'd us in the deep :
 Praised be God,
 which doth us safely keep From bloody teeth
 and their most cruel voice,
 Who as a prey
 to eat us would rejoice.
4 Ev'n as a bird
 from fowler's gin or pen Escapes away,
 right so it fares with us :
 Broke are the nets
 and we escaped thus.
 God who made heaven

 His Name hath sav'd
 us from these wicked men.
 P S A L. CXXV. W. K.
Such as in God the Lord do trust,
 As Zion mount shall firmly stand,
 And be removed at no hand :
 The Lord will count them right and just,
 So that they shall be sure
 For ever to endure.
2 As many mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close,
 So will the Lord do unto these
 Who on his godly will do wait :
 Such are to him so dear,
 They never need to fear.
3 For tho' the righteous try doth he,
 By making wicked men his rod,
 Left they thro' grief forsake their God,
 It shall not always their lot be.

Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

4 But as for such as turn aside (sought,
By crooked ways, which they out
The Lord will surely bring to nought:
With workers vile they shall abide;
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Those that do place their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence
In all their need and misery:
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone;
Mov'd with no ill, but standeth sure,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

1 And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no foe can come to them,
To hurt that town in any case:
So God indeed in every need,
His faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly, (end.

3 Right wife and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The sinner's and ungodly's rod
To rest upon his family;
Left they also from God should stray,
Falling to sin and wickedness;
O Lord, defend both night and day,
Thy little flock, and them still bless.

4 O Lord, do good to christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide:
For such as from the Lord do fall:
And to false doctrine daily slide:
Them will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell;
God will them send pains without end,
But Lord, grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour;
And to the Holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts and us succour;
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie:
With heart's desire, all that are here,
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

PSALM CXXVI. W. W.

When that the Lord (brought again his Sion had forth From bondage great,
and also servitude extream;
His work was such (thought;
as did surmount man's heart and
So that we were (dream.
much like to them that us'd to Our mouths were all
with laughter filled then;
Also our tongues

did shew us joyful men.

2 The heathen folk
were forced then for to confess How that the Lord
for them also great things had done;
But much more we;
and therefore can confess no less:
Wherefore to joy
we have good cause, as we begun,
O Lord, go forth,
thou canst our bondage end;
Who to deserts
dost flowing rivers send.

3 Full true it is,
that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come, (joy,
when they shall reap in mirth and They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed,
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy,
But their return
they joyfully shall see,
Their sheaves bring home,
and not impaired be.

PSALM CXXVII. W. W.

Except the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build, it cannot stand:
Likewise in vain men undertake,
Cities and holds to watch and ward
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Tho' in the morn ye rise early,
And so at night go late to bed,
Eating with carefulness your bread,
Your labour is but vanity:
But they whom God doth love and keep,
All things enjoy with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when you do see
That men have heirst' enjoy their land,
It is the gift of God's own hand:
For God doth multiply to thee,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and activeness,
In person and in comeliness:
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 O well is he that hath his quiver
Furnish'd with such artillery:
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never quake or shiver,
When he doth plead before the judge,
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Psalm CXXIX. CXXX. CXXXI. CXXXII.

Thy children stand like olive-plants
thy table round about.
- 3 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see
The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.

And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

I have no scornful eye:
I do not exercise my self
in things that be too high.

- Remember David's troubles, Lord,
how unto thee he swore,
And vow'd a vow to Jacob's God,
to keep for evermore.
- 2 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed,
Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor eyes within my head;
- 3 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacob's God to be an habitation.
- 4 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound:
And in the fields and forests there
these voices first were found.
- 5 We will assay and go into his tabernacle there:
Before his footstool to fall down
and worship him in fear.
- 6 Arise, O Lord, arise. I pray,
into thy resting-place:
Thou and the ark of thy great strength,
the presence of thy grace.
- 7 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints with songs of praise,
their joyfulness express.
- 8 And for thy servant David's sake,
refuse not, Lord, I pray,
The face of thy anointed, and turn not from him away.

- 9 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it:
The fruit that from thy loyns proceed,
upon thy seat shall sit.
- 10 And if the sons my laws will keep,
that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
- 11 The Lord himself hath Sion chose,

and loves therein to dwell:
 Saying, this is my resting place,
 I love and like it well.
 12 And I will bless with great increase her viſuals every where:
 And alſo ſatisfie with bread
 the needy that be there.
 13 With my ſalvation I will clothe

 Which from his beard down to the ſkirk
 of his rich garment ſpread.
 2 And as the lower ground doth drink
 the dew of Hermon hill:
 And Sion with his ſilver drops,

O Land the Lord benign,
Whose mercy nev'r decays,
Give thanks, and praises sing,
To God of gods alway.

For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure
Eternally.

1 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies ever dure:
Great wonders only he Doth by his power sure,
For certainly, &c.

2 Which God omnipotent
By his great wisdom he
The heaven and firmament
Did frame as we may see,
For certainly, &c.

3 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the earth did lay Upon the waters large
Remaining to this day,
For certainly, &c.

4 Great lights he made, for why?
His mercy lasts alway:
The sun most gloriously,
To rule the lightsome day,
For certainly, &c.

5 Also the moon so clear,
Which shineth in our sight,
And stars that do appear
To guide the darksome night,
For certainly, &c.

6 With grievous plagues and sore
All Egypt smote he then:
Their first-born less and more
He slew of beasts and men,
For certainly, &c.

7 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought:
Which he with mighty hand
And out-stretch'd arm hath wrought,
For certainly, &c.

8 The sea, he cut in two,
Which stood up like a wall,
And made through it to go
His chosen children all,
For certainly, &c.

9 But overwhelm'd there then
The haughty king Phar'oh,
With his huge host of men
And chariots also,
For certainly, &c.

10 Who led through wilderness,
His people safe and sound:
And for his love endless

Great kings be brought to ground,
For certainly, &c.

12 And with puissant hand
Slew kings of mighty fame:
As of the Amorites land
Schon the king by name,
For certainly, &c.

13 And Og (the giant large)
Of Basan king also:
Whose land for heritage
He gave his people to,
For certainly, &c.

14 Even unto Israel
His servant dear, I say,
That he therein might dwell,
And there abide alway,
For certainly, &c.

15 Who us remembered when
In our most low degree:
And from oppressors then
In safety set us free,
For certainly, &c.
16 Who doth all flesh with food
Abundantly supply:
Wherefore let God most good

For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure
Eternally.

PSAL. CXXXVII. W. W.

When we did sit in Babylon
the rivers round about:
Then in remembrance of Sion
the tears with grief burst out.
1 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow-trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.
3 Then they to whom we pris'ners were,
said to us tauntingly:
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and pleasant melody.
4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his heavy heart to sing
The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king.
5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast,
If I rejoice before I see
thy full deliverance past.
7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the cursed noise and cry
That Edom's sons against us made,
when they ras'd our city.
8 Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when with a mighty sound

They cry'd, Down, yea, down with it,
unto the very ground.

9 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
10 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy little ones
And dasheth them in pieces small
against the very stones.

PSAL. CXXXVIII. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole
heart,
my Lord, my God always:
Ev'n in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.
2 Towards thy holy temple I
will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holy Name shall be.
3 Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withal:
For thou thy Name hast by thy word
advanced over all.
4 When I did call, thou heardest me,
and thou hast made a' so
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.
5 Yea, a' the kings on earth shall give
praise unto thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.
6 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall repeat:
Because the glory of the Lord
is so exceeding great.
7 The Lord is high, but yet he doth
the lowly man respect:
The proud he knows far off, and them
with scorn he doth reject.
8 Although in midst of trouble I
do walk, and yet shall stand
Reviv'd by thee; for thou, O Lord,
wilt stretch out thy right-hand,
9 Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be
By thy right-hand, the Lord God will
perform his work to me.
10 Thy mercies last for evermore,
Lord, do me not forsake:
Forsake me not who am the work
which thy own hand did make,
PSAL. CXXXIX. N.
O Lord, thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting down dost know:
My rising up, and thoughts far off,
thou understand'st also.
1 My path, yea, and my bed likewise,
thou art about always:
And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my ways.

3 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
that is not known to thee:
Thou hast beset me round about
and laid thy hand on me.

4 Such knowledge is too wonderful,
and past my skill to gain:
It is so high, that I unto
the same cannot attain.

5 From thy all-seeing Spirit then,
Lord, whither shall I go?
Or whither shall I fly away
from thy presence also?

6 For if to heav'n I do climb up,
lo thou art present there:
In hell if I lie down below,
ev'n there thou dost appear.

7 Yea, let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and dwell
Ev'n in the very utmost parts
where flowing sea doth swell:

8 Yet certainly there also shall thy hand me lead and guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

9 Or if I say the darkness shall shroud me quite from thy sight,
Ev'n then the night that is most dark,
about me shall be light.

10 The darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darkness and the light
are both alike alway.

The second part.

11 For thou possessedst my reins,
and thou didst cover me,
Within my mother's womb, when I was there enclosed by thee.

12 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

13 My bones they are not hid from thee,
altho' in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

14 When I was formless, then thy eye
saw me: for in thy book
Were all my members written, and nought after fashion took. (God,

15 The thoughts therefore of thee, O
how dear are they to me!
And of them all, how very great
the endless numbers be?

16 If I should count them, lo, their sum
more than the sand would be:
And whensoever I awake
I present am with thee.

17 The wicked and ungodly thou
most certainly wilt slay:
Therefore now all ye bloody men
depart from me away.

18 These are the men, O Lord, who speak
most wickedly of thee:
And take thy Name in vain, because thy enemies they be.

19 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord,
and that in earnest wise?
Am I not grieved with all those
that up against thee rise?

20 I hate them with a perfect hate,
ev'n as my utter foes.
Try me, O God, and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

21 Consider, Lord, if wickedness
in me there any be:
And in thy way, O God, my guide,
for ever lead thou me.

P S A L. CXL. N.

Lord, save me from the evil man,
and from his pride and spight,
And from all those also who do
in violence delight.

2 Who evermore on me make war,
their tongues, lo, they have whet
Like serpents; underneath their lips
is adders poison set.

3 Keep me, O Lord, from a wicked hands, preserve me to abide Free from the cruel man, who means
to cause my steps to slide.

4 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and gins
for me also have set.

5 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
Thou art my God alone:
Hear me therefore, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moan.

6 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me:
My head in day of battle hath been cover'd still by thee.

7 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have
the end of his desire:
Perform not his ill thought, lest he
with pride be set on fire.

8 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all.
Lord, let the mischief of their lips
upon their own heads fall.

9 Let coals fall on them, let them be cast in consuming flame,
And in deep pit, that never they may rise out of the same.

10 For no backbiters shall on earth
be set in stable plight:
And evil to destruction still shall hunt the cruel wight.

11 I know the Lord th'afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor:
The just shall praise thy Name, and shall dwell with thee evermore.

Great kings be brought to ground,
For certainly, &c.

12 And with puissant hand
Slew kings of mighty fame:
As of the Amorites land
Schon the king by name,
For certainly, &c.

13 And Og (the giant large)
Of Basan king also:
Whose land for heritage
He gave his people to,
For certainly, &c.

14 Even unto Israel
His servant dear, I say,
That he therein might dwell,
And there abide away,
For certainly, &c.

15 Who us remembred when
In our most low degree:
And from oppressors then
In safety set us free,
For certainly, &c.

16 Who doth all flesh with food
Abundantly supply:
Wherefore let God most good
Be prais'd incessantly;
For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure
Eternally.

PSAL. CXXXVII. W. W.

When we did sit in Babylon
the rivers round about:
Then in remembrance of Sion
the tears with grief burst out.

1 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow-trees upon:

For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we pris'ners were,
said to us tauntingly:

Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and pleasant melody.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his heavy heart to sing

The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king.

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:

Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast,

If I rejoice before I see
thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the cursed noise and cry

That Edom's sons against us made,
when they ras'd our city.

8 Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when with a mighty sound

They cry'd, Down, yea, down with it,
unto the very ground.

9 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:

And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.

10 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy little ones

And dasheth them in pieces small
against the very stones.

PSAL. CXXXVIII. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole
heart,

my Lord, my God always:

Ev'n in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Towards thy holy temple I
will look and worship thee:

And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holy Name shall be.

3 Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withal:

For thou thy Name hast by thy word
advanced over all.

4 When I did call, thou heardest me,
and thou hast made a' so

The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

5 Yea, a' the kings on earth shall give
praise unto thee, O Lord:

For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.

6 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall repeat:

Because the glory of the Lord
is so exceeding great

7 The Lord is high, but yet he doth
the lowly man respect:

The proud he knows far off, and them
with scorn he doth reject.

8 Although in midst of trouble I
do walk, and yet shall stand

Reviv'd by thee; for thou, O Lord,
wilt stretch out thy right-hand,

9 Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be

By thy right-hand, the Lord God will
perform his work to me.

10 Thy mercies last for evermore,
Lord, do me not forsake:

Forsake me not who am the work
which thy own hand did make,

PSAL. CXXXIX. N.

O Lord, thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting down dost know:

My rising up, and thoughts far off,
thou understand'st also.

1 My path, yea, and my bed likewise,
thou art about always:

And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my ways.

3 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
that is not known to thee :
Thou hast beset me round about
and laid thy hand on me.
4 Such knowledge is too wonderful,
and past my skill to gain :
It is so high, that I unto
the same cannot attain.

P S A L. CXLI. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
 then haste thee unto me :
 And hearken thou unto my voice
 when I do cry to thee.
 2 As incense let my prayers still be directed in thy eyes,
 And the up-lifting of my hands
 as ev'ning sacrifice.
 3 For guiding of my mouth, O Lord,
 set thou a watch before :
 And also of my moving lips,
 O Lord, keep thou the door.
 4 That I should wicked works commit,
 incline thou not my heart :
 With ill men of their delicates,
 Lord, let me eat no part.
 5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
 for that is good for me :
 Let him reprove me, and the same
 a precious oyl shall be.
 6 Such smiting shall not break my head,
 the time shall shortly fall,
 When I shall in their misery
 send pray'rs up for them all.
 7 And when in stony places down
 their judges shall be cast,
 Then shall they hear my words, because,
 they have a pleasant taste.
 8 Our bones about the pits mouth are all scattered and found :
 As when one breaketh, and doth hew
 the wood upon the ground.
 9 But, O my Lord and God, my eyes,
 do look up unto thee :
 In thee is all my trust, let not
 my soul forfaken be.
 10 Keep and preserve me from the snare
 which they for me have laid :
 And from the gins of wicked men,
 whereof I am afraid 11 The wicked into their own nets
 together let them fall :
 While I do by thy help escape
 the danger of them all.

P S A L. CXLII. N.

Unto the Lord God with my voice
 I did send out my cry :
 And with my strained voice unto
 the Lord God prayed I.
 2 My meditation in his sight
 to pour I did not spare :
 And in the presence of the Lord
 my trouble did declare.
 3 Altho' perplexed was my soul,
 my path was known to thee :
 In way where I did walk, a snare
 they slyly laid for me.
 4 I look'd, and view'd on my right-hand,
 but none there would me know :
 All refuge failed me, and for

my soul none care did show.

5 Then cried I to thee, and said,
 O Lord, my hope thou art :
 And in the land of the living
 my portion, and my part.
 6 Hear now my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me
 From them that do me persecute,
 for me too strong they be.
 7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul
 from prison, Lord, bring out :
 When thou art good to me, the just shall compass me about.

P S A L. CXLIII. N.

Lord, hear my prayer, and my complaint
 which I do make to thee :
 And in thy native truth, and in thy justice answer me,
 2 In judgment with thy servant, Lord,
 O enter not at all :
 For justly'd be in thy sight
 not one that liveth shall.
 3 The enemy pursu'd my soul,
 my life to ground hath thrown :
 And laid me in the dark, like them
 that are to grave gone down.
 4 Therefore my spirit in me is in great perplexity :
 My heart within me is also afflicted grievously.
 5 Yet I record time past, and on thy works I meditate.
 Yea, I do muse upon the works
 that thy hands have create.
 6 To thee, O Lord my God, do I
 stretch forth my craving hands :
 My soul desireth after thee,
 as do the thirly lands.
 7 Hear me with speed, my spirit fails,
 hide noth thy face, lest I Be liketo them that in the pit
 sink down, and there do lie.
 8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know :
 For in thee is my trust, shew me
 the way that I should go.
 9 For unto thee I lift my soul,
 O Lord, deliver me
 From all mine enemies, for I have hid my self from thee.
 10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
 thou art my God alway.
 Let thy good Spirit to the land
 of mercy me convey. (grace 11 For thy Name's sake with quickningalive do thou me make :
 And out of trouble bring my soul,
 ev'n for thy justice sake.
 12 And of thy mercy slay my foes,
 let them destroyed be.

That

That do oppress my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

P L A L. CXLIV. N.

Blest be γ Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight :

The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battle by his might.

2 He is my hope, my fort and tower,
deliverer and shield :

In him I trust ; my people he
subdues to me to yield.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou dost so highly prize ?

Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise ?

4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his days to end

As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lord,
the heavens, and thence descend.

5 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke,

cast forth thy lightning flames,

And scatter them ; thy arrows shoot,
consume them with the same. (ve,

6 Send down thy hand from heav'n abo-
O Lord, deliver me :

Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers set me free.

7 Whose subtil mouth of vanity,
with flatter'ing words doth treat :

And their right-hand is a right-hand
of falsehood and deceit.

8 A new song will I sing to thee,
O God, the Lord most high :

And on a ten-string'd lute also praise thee most joyfully.

9 Ev'n he it is that only gives deliverance to kings :

Unto his servant David help
from hurtful sword he brings,

10 From strangers hand me save and shield,

whose mouth talks vanity :

And their right-hand is a right-hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That so our sons may be as plants,
which growing youth doth rear :

Our daughters as earv'd corner-stones
like to a palace fair.

12 Our garners full and plenty may
of sundry sorts be found.

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

13 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none may us invade :

No goings out there be, nor cries
within our streets be made.

14 The people happy are that with such blessings great are stor'd :

Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

P S A L. CXLV. N.

Thee will I laud, my God and King,
and blest thy Name alway :

For ever will I praise the same,
and blest thee day by day.

2 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatness none can reach :

From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

3 I of thy glorious majesty,
the beauty will record :

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderful, O Lord.

4 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearful acts declare :

And I to publish all abroad
thy greatness will not spare.

5 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great :

And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing will repeat.

6 The Lord our God most gracious is and merciful also :

Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger is he slow.

7 Yea, good to all : and all his works
his mercy doth exceed :

Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and honour thee indeed.

8 Thy saints do blest thee, and they do thy kingdom's glory show :

And blaze thy pow'r, to cause the sons
of men the same to know.

The second part.

9 And of thy kingdom's majesty
do spread the glorious praise :

Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth endure alway.

10 And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.

The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth fray,

11 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou dost them all relieve :

And thou to each suffering food
in season due dost give.

12 Thou openest thy plenteous hand
and bounteously dost fill

All things whatever that do live,
with gifts of thy good will.

13 The Lord is just in all his ways,
his works are holy all :

And he is near al those that do
in truth upon him call.

14 He the desires of all them
that fear him will fulfil :

And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.

15 The Lord preserves all those, to him
that bears a loving heart :

But he all them that wicked are will

will utterly subvert. (speak 16 My thankful mouth shall gladly
 the praises of the Lord :
 All flesh to praise his holy Name
 for ever shall accord.

P S A L. CXLVI. J. H.

MY soul praise thou the Lord always,
 my God, I will confess : (days, While breath and life prolongue my
 my tongue no time shall cease.

2 Trust not in worldly princes then,
 though they abound in wealth :
 Nor in the sons of mortal men,
 in whom there is no health. (part,

3 For why ? their breath doth soon de-
 to earth anon they fall :
 And then the counsels of their hearts
 decay and perish all.

4 Blessed and happy are all they whom Jacob's God doth aid :
 And he whose hope doth not decay,
 but on the Lord is straid.

5 Who made the earth and waters deep,
 the heavens most high withal :
 Who doth his word and promise keep
 in truth and ever shall.

6 With right always doth he proceed
 for such as suffer wrong :
 The poor and hungry he doth feed,
 and loose the fetters strong. (fight,

7 The Lord doth send the blind their
 the lame to limbs restore :
 He loveth all that are upright,
 and just men evermore.

8 He doth defend the fatherless,
 and strangers sad in heart :
 He frees the widow from distress,
 and ill men's ways subvert.

9 The Lord thy God eternally,
 O Sion, still shall reign :
 In time of all posterity,
 for ever to remain.

P S A L. CXLVII. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for it is good
 unto our God to sing :
 For it is pleasant ; and to praise,
 it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Jerusalem
 he buildeth up alone :
 And the dispers'd of Israel
 doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their heart,
 their sores up he doth bind :
 He counts the number of the stars,
 and names them in their kind.

4 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
 his wisdom infinite :
 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
 to ground the wicked might.

5 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
 unto the Lord rejoice :

And to our God upon the harp
 advance your singing voice.

6 He covers heav'n with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :

And on the mountains he doth make
 the grass to grow again.

7 He gives the beasts their food, and to young ravens when they cry :
 His pleasure not in strenght of horse
 nor in man's legs doth lie.

8 But in all those that do him fear,
 the Lord hath his delight :
 And such as do attend upon
 his mercies shining light.

The second part.

9 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
 thy God, O Sion, praise :
 For he the bars hath forged strong,
 wherewith thy gates he stays.

10 Thy children in thee he hath blest,
 and in thy borders he doth settle peace : and with the flour
 of wheat he filleth thee.

11 And his command likewise upon
 the earth he sendeth out :
 Also his word with speedy course
 doth swiftly run about.

12 He giveth snow like wool, and frost
 like ashes scatters wide :
 Like morsels casts his ice, the cold
 thereof who can abide ?

13 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
 and melteth them again :
 His wind he makes to blow, and then
 the waters flow amain.

14 The doctrine of his holy word,
 to Jacob he doth show :
 His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.

15 With any nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known :
 His secret judgments : ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

P S A L. CXLVIII. J. H.

Glaurid unto the Lord,
 From heav'n that is so high :
 Praise him in deed and word,
 Above the starry skie.

And also ye,
 His angels all,
 Armies royal,

Praise joyfully.

2 Praise him both moon and sun
 Which are so clear and bright,
 The same of you be done,
 Ye glittering stars of light.

And you no less,
 Ye heav'n's most fair
 Clouds of the air,
 His laud express.

3 For at his word they were
All formed as we see,
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast.

To them he made

A law and trade
Always to last.

4 Extol and praise God's Name
On earth ye dragons sell :
A' l deeps do ye to fame,
For it becomes ye well.

The same do ye,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

5 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitful are,
The cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declare,
Beasts and cattle,
Yea, birds of wing.

And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

6 All kings both great and small,
With all their pompous train :
Princes and judges all,
That in the world remain,
Exalt his Name.

Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

7 For his Name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament :
For sure he shall

Exalt with bliss,
The horn of his,

And help them all.

8 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness :
The sons of Israel
Each one both more and less.

And also they
That with good will
His words fulfil,

And him obey.

P S A L. CXLIX. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
A new rejoicing song :

And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.

2 Let Israel rejoice in God,
and praises to him sing :

And let the seed of Sion be most joyful in their king. (lute

3 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name :

And with the timbrel and the harp,
sing praises to the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set :

And by deliv'rance he will raise
the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoice :

Aloud upon their beds also,
advance their singing voice.

6 And in their mouths let be the high praises of God the Lord :

And in their hands likewise a sharp
and a two-edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands :

To bind their stately kings in chains,
their lords in iron bands.

8 To execute on them the doom
that written was before :

This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L. CL. N.

Yield unto God, the mighty Lord,
praise in his holiness :

And in the firmament of his great pow'r, praise him no less.

2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts always :

According to his excellence
and greatness, give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets, blow :

Praise him upon the viol, and upon the harp also. (flute,

4 Praise him with timbrel and with organs and virginals :

With sounding symbols praise ye him,
praise him with loud symbols.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord :

To praise his great and holy Name
agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms.

V E N I C R E A T O R.

Come Holy Ghost, Eternal God,
proceeding from above,
Bot' from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love.
2 Visit our minds, and into us

thy heavenly grace inspire :
That in all truth and godliness,
we may have true de fire.

3 Thou art the very Comforter
in all grief and distress :

The

The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.

4 The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestial:

The fire so bright, the love so sweet,
and unction spiritual.

5 Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christ's Church doth stand:
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of God's hand.

6 According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech with grace:

That through thy help the praise of God
may sound in every place.

7 O Holy Ghost, into our souls
seed down thy heavenly light:
Inflame our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.

8 Our weakness strengthen and confirm,
which feeble is and frail:

That neither devil, world, nor flesh
against us may prevail.

9 Our enemies put far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
the best and truest gain.

10 And grant, O Lord, that thou being
our leader and our guide,

We may eschew the snares of sin,
and never from thee slide.

11 To us such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord, grant, we thee pray,
That thou mayst be our Comforter
at the last dreadful day.

12 Of strife and all contention, Lord,
do thou dissolve the bands:

Tye fast the knots of peace and love,
throughout all christian lands.

13 Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:

That of his dear beloved son
we may attain the sight.

14 And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee.

The Spirit of them both, always one God in persons three.

The Song of S. Ambrose, called Te Deum.

WE praise thee, God, and thee confess,
the only Lord to be:

And as eternal Father, all
the earth doth worship thee.

2 To thee all angels cry, the heav'ns
and all the powers therein,

To thee incessantly do cry,
Cherub and Seraphin.

3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabaoth Lord the God;
Thro' heaven and earth thy praise is spread
and glory all abroad.

4 Th' Apostles glorious company
yield praises unto thee:

The prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee incessantly.

5 The noble and victorious host of martyrs found thy praise:
The holy church throughout the world
acknowledge thee always.

6 Father of endless majesty
they do acknowledge thee:

And Christ thy honourable, true,
and only Son to be.

7 The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glory thou art King,

O Christ; and of the Father art
the Son everlasting

8 When sinful man's decay in hand
thou rookest to restore,

To be inclos'd in Virgin's womb
thou didst not them abhor.

9 When thou of death hadst overcome
the sharpness through thy might,

Heav'n kingdom thou didst open set
to each believing wight.

10 In glory of the Father thou
dost sit on God's right hand:

We trust that thou shalt come our judge,
our cause to understand.

11 Lord, help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,

And in eternal glory sit

them with thy saints most good.

12 O Lord, do thou thy people save,
bless thy inheritance:

Lord, govern them, and also do
for ever them advance.

13 We magnify thee day by day,
always, world without end,

And do adore thy holy name:
vouchsafe us to defend

14 From sin this day. Have mercy, Lord, have mercy on us all:

And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord, let thy mercy fall.

15 O Lord, I have reposed all
my confidence in thee:

Therefore let no confounding shame
my portion ever be.

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THE only Lord of Israel
Be praised evermore:

For through his visitation and
his mercy kept in store.

2 His people now he hath redeem'd
that long have been in thrall:

And spread abroad his saving health
upon his servants all.

3 In David's house his servant true
according to his mind,

And also his anointed kings,
as we in scripture find.

4 As by his holy prophets all
he often did declare:

The which were since the world began his ways for to prepare.

5 That we might be delivered
from those that make debate;

Even from the hands of enemies,
and all that do us hate.

6 The mercy which he promised
our fathers to fulfil:

And think upon the cov'nant made,
according to his will.

7 And also to perform the oath
which he before had sworn

To Abraham our father dear,
for us that were forlorn.

8 That he would give himself for us,
and us from bondage bring

Our of the hands of all our foes,
to serve our heavenly king.

9 And that without all kind of fear,
also in righteousness:

And likewise for to lead our lives
in steadfast holiness.

10 And thou, O child, who now art born
and of the Lord elect,

Shalt prophet of the Highest be,
his ways for to direct.

11 For thou shalt go before his face
for to prepare his ways:

And also for to reach his will
and pleasure all thy days.

12 To give them knowledge how that their salvation now is near:

And that remission of their sins
is through his mercy dear.

13 Whereby the day-spring from on high descended from his fear.

To give light unto them that sat
in darkness very dear.

14 To lighten those that shadowed be with death, and are oppress'd:

And also for to guide our feet
the way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Virgin Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord,
my spirit evermore

Rejoiceth in the Lord my God,
who is my Saviour.

3 And why? because he did regard,
and hath respect unto

The low estate of his handmaid,
and let the mighty go.

3 For now behold, all nations and
the generations all,

From this time forth for evermore
shall me right blessed call:

4 Because he hath me sanctify'd,

who

who is the Lord of might :
 Whose name be ever magnify'd,
 and praised day and night.
 5 For with his mercy and his grace
 all men he doth inflame.
 Throughout the generations all
 that fear his holy name.
 6 He shew'd strength with his mighty arm
 and made the proud to start :
 With all imaginations that were in their wicked heart.
 7 He hath put down the mighty ones
 from their supernal seat :
 And did exalt the meek in heart,
 ev'n from their low estate.
 8 The hungry he replenished
 with all things that were good :
 And through his power he made the rich
 oft-times to want their food.
 9 And calling to remembrance his great mercy, very well Hath holpen up most graciously his servant Israel.
 10 According to his promise made to Abraham before :
 And to his seed successively,
 to stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord my God, because my heart
 hath longed earnestly,
 My Lord and Saviour to behold,
 and see before I die :
 1 The joy and health of all mankind,
 desired long before :
 Who now is come into the world,
 lo! man for to restore.
 3 Then suffer, Lord, thy servant now
 in peace for to depart :
 According to thy holy word
 which doth rejoice my heart.
 4 Because my eyes which thou hast made,
 to give my body light,
 Have now beheld thy saving health,
 which is the Lord of might.
 5 Whom thou hast mercifully set
 of thy abundant grace,
 In open sight, and visible,
 Before all peoples face.
 6 The Gentiles to illuminate,
 who do in darkness dwell.
 Also to be the glory of thy people Israel.

The Lord's Prayer, or Pater-noster.

O Ur Father which in heaven art,
 Lord, Hallowed be thy Name :
 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth even as the same
 2 In heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
 As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
 3 Into temptation lead us not,
 from evil keep us free,
 For kingdom, power, and glory is thine to eternity.

*The ten Commandments of God.
 Exod. XX. W. W.*

H Ear, Israel, and what I say
 give heed to understand :
 I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land.
 2 Ev'n from the house wherein thou didst
 in thraldom live a slave :
 None other gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.
 3 No manner of graven image shalt thou make at all to thee ;
 Nor any other figure else
 shall counterfeited be.
 4 Of any thing in heav'n above,
 nor in the earth below,
 Nor in the waters under earth ;
 to them thou shalt not bow.
 5 Nor shalt them serve : the Lord thy God
 a jealous God is he,
 who punisheth the parents faults

to third and fourth degree,
 6 Upon the children that me hate,
 and mercy doth display
 To thousands of such as me love,
 and my commands obey.
 7 The name thou of the Lord thy God
 in vain shalt never use :
 For him that takes his name in vain
 he never will excuse.
 8 Remember that thou holy keep
 the sacred Sabbath-day :
 Six days thou labour shalt, and do
 thy needful works away.
 9 The Lord thy God the seventh hath set,
 for thee to rest upon ;
 No work then shalt thou do in it,
 thy self nor yet thy son,
 10 Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
 thy ox, nor yet thy ass,
 Nor stranger that within thy gates
 hath his abiding place.
 11 For in six days God heaven and earth,
 and all therein did make.
 And after that his rest he did
 upon the seventh day take.
 12 Wherefore he blest the day that he
 for resting did ordain,
 And sacred to himself alone,
 appointed to remain.
 13 Give honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy days may be,
 Upon the land the which the Lord
 thy God hath given thee.
 14 Thou shalt no murder do. Nor shalt commit adultery.
 Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
 15 Thou shalt not cover house, that to thy neighbour doth belong :
 Nor cover shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong.
 16 Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
 nor ox, nor ass of his,
 Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Prayer.

Thy Spirit, grant to us, O Lord,
 To keep these laws our hearts restore :
 And cause us all with one accord
 To magnify thy name therefore.
 2 For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will :
 Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave,
 That we in thee may them fulfil.
 3 Lord, for thy names sake grant us this,
 Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ :
 Of thee to speed how can we miss,
 In whom our treasure doth consist.
 4 To thee for evermore be praise
 With the Father in each respect,
 And with the Holy Ghost always,
 The comforter of thine elect.

The Symbols, or Creed of Athanasius, called Quicunque vult.

What man soever he be that
 salvation hopes to gain.
 The Catholick Belief he must before all things retain.
 2 Which Faith, unless he whole do keep
 and undividedly,
 Eternally, without all doubt,
 he shall be sure to die.
 3 The Catholick Belief is this,
 that God, we worship, One In Trinity, and Trinity
 in Unity alone.
 4 So as we neither do confound
 the Persons of the Three :
 Nor yet the substance whole of one
 in sunder parted be.
 5 One Person of the Father is,
 another of the Son :
 Another Person proper of the Holy Ghost alone.
 6 Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
 but one the Godhead is :
 Glory the same, co-eternal
 the Majesty likewise.
 7 Such as the Father is, such is the Son in each degree :

And such also we do believe the Holy Ghost to be.
8 The Father he is uncreate,
and uncreate the Son:
The Holy Ghost is uncreate,
so uncreate each one.
9 Father incomprehensible,
so likewise is the Son:
Comprehensible also is
the Holy Ghost of none.
10 The Father is eternal, and the Son eternal so:
And in like sort eternal is
the Holy Ghost also.
11 And yet tho' we believe that each of these eternal be:
Yet there but one Eternal is,
and not Eternals three.
12 As not Incomprehensible
nor yet uncreate three:
But one Incomprehensible,
one Uncreate hold we.
13 As the Father almighty is,
the Son is so likewise:
And in like manner almighty
the Holy Spirit is.
14 And albeit that ev'ry one of these almighty be:
Yet there but one Almighty is,
and not Almighties three.
15 The Father God is, God the Son, God Holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not three Gods to be,
but one God and no mo.
16 So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Son:
And Lord the Holy Ghost; yet are
there not three Lords, but one.
17 For as we are compell'd to grant
by Christian verity,
Each of the Persons by himself
both God and Lord to be:
18 So Catholick Religion doth
strictly forbid alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.
19 Of none the Father is, nor made created, nor begot:
The Son is of the Father, not create, nor made, but got.
20 The Holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Son:
Nor made, created, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.
21 So we one Father hold only,
one Son also, not three,
One Holy Ghost alone, and not
three Holy Ghosts to be.
22 None in this Trinity before,
nor after: other is:
Nor greater any than the rest,
nor lesser be likewise.
23 But every one among themselves,
of all these persons three:
Together co-eternal all,
and all co-equal be.
24 So Unity in Trinity,
as it is said before:
And Trinity in Unity,
we always must adore.
25 Therefore what man soever that
salvation hopes to gain,
This Faith touching the Trinity
of force he must retain.
26 And needful to eternal life
it is that every wight,
The incarnation of our Lord
he do believe aright:
17 For this the right Faith is, that we believe, and also know,
That Christ our Lord, the Son of God,
is God and Man also.
28 God of his Father's substance got
before the world began,
And of his Mother's substance born
in world a very Man.
29 Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soul
and human flesh subsist.
30 Touching his Godhead, equal with his Father, God is he:

Touching his Manhood, lower than
his Father in degree.
31 Who, tho' he be both very God,
and very Man also:
Yet is he but ones Christ alone,
and is not Persons two.
32 One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of Man:
But by taking Manhood to God,
this Being, One, began.
33 All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one;
But only by the Unity
that is of one Person.
34 For as the reasonable soul,
and flesh, but one Man is:
So in one Person God and Man,
is but one Christ likewise.
35 Who suffer'd for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose again from death,
and did to heav'n ascend.
36 He sits at the right hand of God,
th' Almighty Father, there;
From thence to judge the quick and dead,
again he shall appear.
37 At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new rector'd:
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
38 And they into eternal life
shall go, that have done well:
Who have done ill, shall go into eternal fire to dwell.
39 This is the Catholick Belief,
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt,
he saved cannot be.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

ALl my belief and confidence
is in the Lord of might:
The Father, who all things hath made,
the day, and also night:
a The heav'ns and firmaments likewise,
and also every star:
The earth, and all that is therein,
which pass man's reason far.
3 And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord, his Son, Co-equal with the Deity,
and Man in flesh and bone,
4 Conceived by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a Virgin pure.
5 Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall:
He came and offer'd up himself
to death to save us all.
6 And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being Judge,
Was crucify'd upon the cross,
and therat did not grudge.
7 And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned by the Spirit:
His body then was buried,
that we might life inherit.
8 His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts:
A dread to wicked spirits, but
joy unto faithful hearts.
9 And on the third day of his death
he rose to life again,
That so he might be glorify'd,
and freed from grief and pain.
10 Ascending up above the heav'ns
to sit in glory still,
On God's right hand, his Father dear,
according to his will.
11 Until the day of judgment, when
he shall return again,
With angels power, tho' of that day
we ignorant remain.
12 To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought:
The living and the dead also whom he hath made of nought.
13 And in the Holy Ghost also,
author of purity:

In Trinity the third Person
believe Istedfastly.

- 14 The Catholick and holy Church
that God's word doth maintain;
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.
- 15 And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death, Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith.
- 16 What time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might;
And see him, with their outward eyes,
which now do give them light.
- 17 Then shall our Saviour Jesus Christ
the sheep and goats divide,
That he may give eternal life,
to those whom he hath try'd.
- 18 Within his realm celestiall
in glory for to rest,
With all his holy company
of saints and Angels blest;
- 19 Who serve the Lord omnipotent,
and him always adore:
- To whom be all dominion,
all praise for evermore.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

- Come, Holy Spirit, God of might,
the Comforter of all:
Teach us to know thy word aright,
that we may never fall.
- 2 O Holy Ghost, visit our land,
defend us with thy shield:
Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord, help us win the field.
 - 3 O Lord, preserve our King, and bless his council, that they may Be stedfast in the Gospel of our Saviour Christ alway.
 - 4 O Lord, that giv'st thy holy word,
send preachers plentifully:
That in the fame we may accord,
and therein live and die.
 - 5 O Holy Spirit, guide aright
the preachers of thy word,
That thou by them may'st cut down sin,
as it were with a sword.
 - 6 Depart not from thy pastors pure,
but aid them at their need:
Who break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.
 - 7 Blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity:
Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all Heresy.
 - 8 Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.
 - 9 True faith in us, O Lord, increase,
and let love so abound,
That man and wife may live in peace,
and all about us round.
 - 10 In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
to nations far and nigh:
And teach them all thy word, that they may sing to thee, most High.

A Thanksgiving after the Receiving of the Lord's Supper.

- The Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies evermore,
That he doth shew unto his saints:
to him be laud, therefore.
- 2 Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord
as he doth right deserve:
Our hearts cannot of him so think
as he doth us preserve.
 - 3 His benefits, they be so great
to us who are but sin,
That at our hands a recompence
he cannot hope to win.
 - 4 O sinful man, that thou should'st have such mercies of the Lord!
Who dost deserve most worthily
of him to be abhor'd.
 - 5 Nought else but sin and wretchedness

- doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord
we daily act our parts.
- 6 The sun that in the firmament
is set for us a light, Doth shew it self more clear and pure
than we be in his sight.
 - 7 The heav'ns above, and all therein,
more holy are than we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree:
 - 8 They do not strive for mastery
nor light their office set:
But serve the Lord, and do his will
there's nothing can them let.
 - 9 Also the earth, and all therein,
of God doth stand in awe,
Observing the Creator's will,
by skillful natures law.
 - 10 The sea, and all that is therein,
doth bend when God doth beck;
Spirits beneath do tremble all,
and fear his wrathful check.
 - 11 But we (alas!) for whom all things
were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord,
as doth the ox or mule.
 - 12 A law he gave us for to know,
what was his holy will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing that's ill.
 - 13 Nor one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please;
Nor doth the thing that might us lead
to Christ and quiet ease.
 - 14 Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not deny:
And he again, of his good will,
would not that we should die.
 - 15 Therefore when remedy was none
to bring us unto life,
The Son of God our flesh did take
to end our mortal strife.
 - 16 And all the law of God the Lord
he fully did obey:
And for our sins upon the cross,
his blood our debts did pay.
 - 17 And that we never should forget
what good for us he wrought,
A sign he left our eyes to tell
that he our bodies bought.
 - 18 In bread and wine here visib'e
unto thy eyes and taste,
His mercies great thou may'st record,
if that his grace thou hast.
 - 19 As once the corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with scythe,
And threshed out with many stripes,
out of his husks to drive;
 - 20 And as the mill with violence
did tear it out so small,
And made it like to earthy dust,
not sparing it at all.
 - 21 And as the oven with fire hot
doth close it up with hear;
And all this done as I have said,
that it should be our meat:
 - 22 So was the Lord in his ripe age
cut down by cruel death:
His soul he gave in torments great,
and yielded up his breath.
 - 23 Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread:
With much reproach and troubles great
on earth his life he led.
 - 24 And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very sore,
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more;
 - 25 Because the juice that in them is
as comfortable drink
We might receive; and joyful be
when sorrows make us shrink:
 - 26 So was the blood of Christ press'd out,
also with nails and spear:
The juice thereof doth save all those
that rightly do him fear.
 - 27 And as the corns by unity
into one loaf are knit:
so is the Lord, and his whole Church,
sho' be in heav'n do sit.

- 28 As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one
In faith and love in Christ above,
and into Christ alone.
29 Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:
From envy and from malice both
our hearts and tongues should cease.
30 Which if we do, then shall we shew
that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life
as always willed he.
31 And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure
with him to have a place.

The humble suit of a sinner.

- O Lord, on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
2 Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove
or take the same from me.
3 But only thou, whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest.
4 And since thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groan,
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark my complaint and moan.
5 For sin hath so inclosed me,
and compass'd me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
6 For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate my pain:
But only Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.
7 Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
tho' not with mortal eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them, Lord,
and, so I trust, shall I.
8 Tho' sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
who shed for me his blood.
9 And as thy angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy name.
10 But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent,
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament:
11 Lest that I tread the sinners path,
and give them my consent
To dwell with thee in wickedness,
whereto nature is bent.
12 Only thy grace must be my stay,
let that with me remain:
For if I fall, then of my self
I cannot rise again.
13 Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
14 Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy church and house of saints,
sing psalms to thee always.

The Lamentation.

- O Lord, in thee is all my trust,
give ear unto my woful cry:
Refuse me not that am unjust,
but cast on me thy heav'nly eye.
2 Behold how I do still lament
my sins wherein I do offend:
Shall I see them have punishment,
since thee to please I do intend?
3 No, no, thy will is not so bent
to deal with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they do repent,
with speed thou grantest their desire.
4 To thee therefore still will I cry,
to wash away my sinful crime.
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry,
but that it may help me in time.
5 Haste then, O Lord, therefore, I pray,
to pour on me thy gifts of grace,
That when this life shall pass away,
in heav'n with thee I may have place.
6 Where thou dost reign eternally,
with God, who once thee down did send:
Where angels do incessantly
sing praise to thee, world without end.

- Preserve us, Lord, by thy dear word,
From Turk and Pope defend us, Lord;
Both which would thrust out of his throne,
Our Lord Christ Jesus, thy dear Son.
Lord Jesus Christ, shew us thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:
Thy poor afflicted flock defend
That we may praise thee without end.
God, Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
Be our patron, help and succour,
Give us one mind and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.
Thou living God in persons three,
Thy Name be prais'd in unity:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

Gloria Patri.

- To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Another.

- To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
immortal glory be:
As was, and is, and shall be still,
to all eternity.

Another.

- All glory to the Trinity
that is of Mighties most:
To God the living Father, and
the Son, and Holy Ghost;
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

To the 100 Psalm Tunes.

- To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all praise and glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and so shall be for evermore.

F I N I S.

A form of Prayer to be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning-Prayer.

A Almighty God and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majesty, trusting in our own merits or worthinesse, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, and grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the Name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who also hath commanded us to assemble our selves together in his Name, with full assurance that he will not only be amongst us, but also be our Mediatour and Advocate towards thy Majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee, most merciful Father, to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold sins and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment, but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christ's sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom thou art well pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant, O heavenly Father, that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words and deeds may redound to the glory of thy great Name, and good example to all men, who seeing our good works, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy mere favour and love, thou hast not only created us to thine own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou preparedst for us from the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in all godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not only make request, O Lord, for our selves, and for them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thy heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world: who as they know by thy wonderful works that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thy holy Spirit to believe in thee their only Saviour and Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent, therefore, O Lord, raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine only seek thy glory. Contrarily, confound Satan and Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schisms, heresies and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because, O Lord, we be fallen into the latter days and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeketh by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel: we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long-suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our sins and wickedness be an hindrance to thy mercies, but with speed, O Lord, consider their great miseries. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgment: yet thou their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy: We therefore, most wretched sinners, bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us of our former wickedness, and ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ's sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us, dear Father, these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Christ Jesus our Lord; In whose Name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening-Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess, that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, and grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings: For our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which dost not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments: yet most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising Prayers.

misgiving even then to help us, when we feel our selves as it were swallowed up of death and desperation; we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and fly to thy sovereign bounty, as our only stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us, neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences; teach us by thy holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy Name; but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory. And albeit we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands; yea, thou art our Father, and we thy children; thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock; thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought; thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us notwithstanding in thine anger, O Lord, neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day do travel in; grant O dear Father, that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season, that we, not overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the insatiable desires of the flesh: but only sufficient, to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thy most holy Name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies and loving kindneses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness freely and of thy own accord, to elect & chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were utterly lost, for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit in the revelation & knowledge of thy holy word; for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities; for saving us from all dangers of body and soul; for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions; for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, to grant us always thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be let into all truth, and comforted in all adversities. O Lord, strengthen our faith, kindle it more in fervency and love towards thee, and our neighbours, for thy sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us always the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word, and deed, we may sanctify and do worship to thy Name, help to amplify and increase thy kingdom; and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing, O Father, without the which we cannot serve thee: but bless thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful unto others. Be merciful, O Lord, to our offences, and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, our Captain, and Defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and out-stretched arm, O Lord, be still our defence; thy mercy and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son, our salvation; thy true and holy Word, our instruction; thy grace and holy Spirit, our comfort and consolation unto the end, and in the end. So be it.
